Why Not Replenish Your Supply of Songbooks at This Time

*We suggest either THE NEW COKESBURY
HYMNAL or THE COKESBURY HYMNAL*

USE THE BOOK YOU PREFER

An all-purpose Songbook that is gaining in popularity daily, nearly 400,000 copies having been sold since publication in 1926. This book is the result of repeated requests for a new Songbook by Southern Methodist leaders. In it are 291 songs selected by preachers and laymen throughout the Church—songs we all love to sing. There are a number of new songs for children.

And in addition the Order of Worship, a large number of Responsive Readings and Programs for Public Worship are featured.

The slight increase in price of The New Cokesbury Hymnal is due to the many added features that go to make it such a worth-while Songbook for every purpose.

The New Cokesbury Hymnal

The Cokesbury Hymnal

This Songbook was originally published in an attempt to bring back the songs that people love to sing. Suggestions were received from preachers, song leaders, and Christian workers, and 289 of the songs submitted were accepted. As a result this book contains a popular selection covering every subject of divine worship and comprising both hymns and revival songs.

A group of responsive readings are included, many being chosen for use on special occasions, while all are appropriate for weekly Church service.

The Cokesbury Hymnal has met with praise everywhere—nearly two million copies having been sold since publication. It may be conveniently used for Church services, Sunday school, or revival meetings.

JOHN MILTON DANNELLY, son of James Patrick and Louisa Olivia Gordon Dannelly, was born at Camden, Wilcox County, Ala., September 19, 1855. His early education was received in his home, the public schools, and Wilcox Institute at Camden. In July, 1885, he was himself redeemed of the Lord and joined the Methodist Church at Camden, Ala., under the ministry of W. W. Graham. Almost immediately he felt laid under a compulsion to preach the good news of redemption in Jesus' name. License to preach was granted by the Quarterly Conference of Camden charge in December, 1885, under the pastorate of Wilbur Isaacs. During the same month he joined the Alabama Conference and was assigned to his first charge. In each year thereafter he received appointments until 1931, at which time he requested the superannuate relation and it was granted. He was commissioned to serve as follows: Louisville Circuit, 1886-88; Wetumpka, 1889-91; Fort Deposit, 1892-95; Dothan Station, 1896-99; Palafox Station, Pensacola, 1900-03; Troy Station, 1904-06; Opelika, First Church, 1907, for a time, but was transferred to Financial Agent of the Woman's College of Alabama and served as such through 1909; Montgomery District, 1910-13; Church Street, Selma, 1914-16; St. Francis Street, Mobile, 1917-20; Prattville District, 1921-24; Selma District, 1925-28; Troy District, 1929-30; Geneva Station, 1931. The Alabama Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias, recognized his ability in 1898 and he was made Grand Master of Exchequer for eight years and then Grand Keeper of Records and Seals; the State of Alabama recognized his service in 1907 and he served as Chaplain of the Alabama National Guard on the Staff of Governor B. B. Comer, with the rank of Colonel, for four years. Southern University recognized his gifts, grace, and usefulness in 1908 and conferred upon him the degree of Doctor of Divinity. On December 22, 1886, he was married to Miss Lena Augusta Stephens, of Louisville, Barbour County, Ala. She lives to mourn his loss, as do the following children: Clarence M. Dannelly, John Milton Dannelly, Jr., Mrs.

E. H. Hobbs, and Mrs. G. B. Clinkscates. He died December 21, 1931. The funeral services were at noon at 4 South Highland Court, Montgomery, Ala., on December 22, 1931. Burial was in the cemetery at Camden, Wilcox County, Ala.—W. W. Curtis.

FRANCIS AQUILLA ROGERS, son of William Rogers and grandson of John Rogers, who was one of the early settlers of Old Stockton, Baldwin County, Ala., was born in Butler County, Ala., April 21, 1857. He spent his boyhood on his father's farm, attending the neighborhood school. In early manhood he was licensed to preach and in the spring of 1882 was sent as supply to the Plantersville Circuit of the Alabama Annual Conference. At the close of this year he was admitted into this Conference on trial and returned to the Plantersville Circuit. During this year he realized the necessity for better equipment, and at his own request was discontinued. He taught school for two years and later entered the Southern University, where he received the degree of Bachelor of Arts in 1886. In November of this year he was married to Miss Edna Willingham, of Greensboro, Ala. Accompanied by his bride he attended the North Alabama Conference, was ordained local deacon by Bishop Hendrix, admitted on trial and appointed to the Courtland Station. His subsequent appointments were: 1887-88, Oxford Station; 1889-92, Jacksonville Station; 1893, Jasper; 1894, Guntersville. In 1895 he transferred to the Alabama Conference and was stationed at Water Street, Selma, 1895-96; Eutaw, 1897; Livingston, 1898-1901; Luverne, 1902-03; Gadsden Street, Pensacola, 1904-07; Brewton, 1909; Foster Street, Dothan, 1910-13; Dexter Avenue, Montgomery, 1914-15; Greensboro District, 1916-19; Eufaula Station, 1920-21; Livingston, 1922-29. At the close of this year he was granted the superannuate relation and continued to live in Livingston. About the first of June, 1932, accompanied by his wife and little granddaughter, he came to Montgomery to visit his daughter, Mrs. Brinkley Boyd, and on June 7 he answered the call to "come up higher." To mourn his loss, together with their mother, are two children, Francis Rogers and Mrs. Brinkley Boyd, and several grandchildren. Rev. Henry Andrews accompanied the body to Ashburn, Ga., where it was laid to rest in the cemetery near the home of his only son.—C. A. Rush.

SCHUYLER GREEN BOYD was born October 28, 1855, in Allen County, Ky. At eighteen years of age he was soundly converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. After four years as a local preacher he was admitted on trial into the traveling connection of the Louisville Conference at Elizabethtown, Ky., in October, 1882, Bishop McTyre presiding. He was ordained deacon and admitted into full connection at Louisville, Ky., in September, 1884, Bishop McTyre presiding. He was ordained elder at the Conference held at Hartford, Ky., in October, 1887, Bishop Granbery presiding. His appointments in the Louisville Conference were as follows: 1882-83, New Roe Circuit; 1883-84, Richardsville; 1884-85, Lewisburg; 1885-86, Gosport-Stinesville, in the Gosport District, State of Indiana; 1886-87, Litchfield. At this time physicians recommended to him a milder climate and he was transferred to the Alabama Conference, which met in Greensboro, Ala., and appointed to the Demopolis Station, 1887-88. His appointments were: Seale, 1889-90; Warrior Stand, 1890-91; Lowndesboro, 1892; Summerfield, 1893-94; Marianna, Fla., 1895-96; Girard, 1897; Phenix City, 1898-99; Columbia, 1900; Arlington Circuit, 1901-03; Eutaw, 1904; Eutaw and Moundville, 1905-07; Clayton, 1908-09; Camden, 1910; Luverne, 1912-14; Tuskegee, 1915-16; Wetumpka, 1917; Marion, 1918; Milton and Bagdad, Fla., 1919; Raybelle Chapel, Selma, 1920; Citronelle, 1921-22; Oakdale, Mobile, 1923; Brantley, 1924-25; Century and Flomaton, 1926; Uniontown, 1927; Whistler, 1928. At the close of this year he asked for the superannuate relation. On July 17, 1932, his Master called, "It is enough; come up higher," and the faithful worker entered into rest. In the year 1882 he was married to Miss Leona Bruce. To them were born three children, Brinkley Boyd, Mrs. R. B. Shontz, and Mrs. Leona Taylor, who, together with their mother, mourn the loss of father and husband.—C. A. Rush.

B. E. MEIGS, son of John William and Emeline Drout Meigs, was born September 26, 1882, in Bibb County, near Centerville, Ala. His father died when he was only two years of age, and the rearing and training of the lad fell upon his mother and his older brothers. He joined the Methodist Church when he was about twelve years old. At the age of seventeen he attended school at Pondville and the following year visited his brother at Rose Hill, near Pachuta, Miss. He worked one year on his brother's farm, and then secured a position in a store in Pachuta. There he met and married Miss Louise Green. Later they moved to Laurel, Miss., and while there he was licensed to preach. In December, 1906, he applied for admission on trial into the Mississippi Conference and served the following charges: Raleigh, 1907; Carthage, 1908-09; Oak Ridge, 1910; Scotland, 1911; Thomasville, 1912; Rankin Street, Jackson, 1913-15; Bay St. Louis, 1916; Saucier and Lyman, 1917; Monticello, 1918-19; Picayune, 1920-21; Pascagoula, 1922; Lucedale, 1923. At the session of the Conference in December, 1923, he was transferred to the Alabama Conference, where he served the following charges: Grand Bay, 1924; Camden, 1925; Lowndesboro, 1926; Girard, 1927-29; Deatsville, 1930-32. On September 11, 1932, Brother Meigs left his earthly field of service for his place in the paradise of God. Brother Meigs was twice married. His first wife, Miss Louise Green, died while he was pastor at Monticello. To this union five children were born: Ione, Earl, Frank, and Ruth; Vivian died at the age of five. While pastor at Picayune he was married to Miss Nola Saucier and to this union one child was born, John Albert, who died at the age of eight. Mrs. Meigs and four children survive him.—D. W. Haskew.

Ques. 14. What preachers have died during the year? Harry L. Hout, George W. Gaither, Charles D. Bulla, James Russell Corron, Norman N. Hall. 5.

HARRY LEE HOUT, son of David H. and Margaret Ann Hout, was born in Shepherdstown, W. Va., September 16, 1863, and died at Del Ray, Va., October 28, 1931. He was the youngest of nine children, seven of whom attained maturity. He received his educational background in the public schools of his native town and at Shepherd College, from which he was graduated in the class of 1881. After graduation he taught for several years. Not having fully found his place in life, he studied law while teaching, looking to that profession for the investment of his life. But when, under the ministry of W. G. Eggleston, he discovered Jesus as Saviour and Lord, he also found his place in life. For with his conversion came the call to the ministry. He was licensed to preach by the Quarterly Conference of his home church and served one year under his presiding elder, Rumsey Smithson. He was admitted on trial at the session of the Baltimore Conference, held at Harrisonburg, Va., March, 1892, Bishop Keener presiding. He was admitted into full connection and ordained deacon at the Conference of 1894 at Fredericksburg, Va., Bishop Granbery presiding. He was ordained elder by Bishop Hargrove at Roanoke in March, 1896. His field of service embraced the following charges: Page, Strasburg, Ronceverte, St. James (Roanoke), Piedmont, Marvin (Washington), Calvary (Washington), Fredericksburg, Covington, Hinton, and Del Ray. He all but ceased to labor and to live at once. At his request, superannuation was granted him at the session of the Conference meeting at Greene Memorial but a year ago. He located in Alexandria, Va., and on Wednesday, October 28, 1931, left his earthly house to be at home with God. Brother Hout is survived by his wife, Mrs. Sarah F. Hout, three daughters, Mrs. W. W. Cranford, Mrs. J. N. Mason, and Mrs. C. W. Skinner, and two sons, H. L. Hout, Jr., and Burton C. Hout, together with three sisters, Mrs. J. H. Wolff, Miss Lottie V. Hout, and Miss Ella D. Hout. His funeral services, held in Del Ray Church Friday morning, October 30, were in charge of his pastor, E. V. Regester, assisted by J. H. Balthis, H. H. Sherman, John Paul Tyler, O. C. Beall, and S. V. Hildebrand. On the afternoon of the same day his body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Shepherdstown, W. Va. The services at the grave were in charge of E. L. Woolf, assisted by J. W. Rosenberger, C. W. Fink, and W. M. Compton.—E. L. Woolf.

GEORGE WILLIAM GAITHER came into the work of our Conference as a local elder from the Western Virginia Conference during the Conference year of 1902-03 and was appointed as a supply on Sterling Circuit as junior preacher with C. B. Dolley. At the Conference of 1903, which was held at Fredericksburg, he was received by transfer from the Western Virginia Conference, and was appointed again to Sterling Circuit as junior to J. W. Mitchell. In March, 1904, he was sent to Flintstone, Md., where he remained for three years. From 1907 to 1911 he served again on Sterling Circuit. In March, 1911, he went to Beltsville, Md., and served three years. From 1914 to 1916 his appointment was Clarendon and Ballston. His next charge was Remington, Va., where he remained during 1917-21. He next spent one year at Bruceton and three years, 1922-25, at Stephens City. At the close of this pastorate he was granted the superannuate relation at Washington in March, 1925. As he was in the Conference class of 1899, he gave to the work twenty-five years of active and efficient service. Brother Gaither was born and reared on a farm near Harrisonburg, Va. He attended the public school and took a special course at Bridgewater College. He also attended Randolph-Macon Academy at Front Royal. On September 27, 1899, he took from one of the finest Methodist homes in Fairfax County Miss Alpha C. Lanham for his wife. Brother Gaither died in his home at Clarendon, Va., November 30, 1931. He was buried at Andrew Chapel, Fairfax County, Va. The funeral services were conducted by his pastor, J. H. Pearson, assisted by J. H. Balthis, H. V. Hildebrand, F. A. Tyler, and the writer of this memoir.—F. J. Prettyman.

CHARLES DEHAVEN BULLA was born near Albany, Mo., January 4, 1862, and died at Nashville, Tenn., February 2, 1932. He was the son of Andrew Jackson and Elizabeth Witten Bulla, who were married in Tazewell County, Va., January 5, 1843, and on September 18, 1845, started by wagon to Missouri, arriving November 12. His college work was done at the University of Missouri, but his education did not cease with college days. In 1887 he came to Washington, D. C., where he was employed for eight years in the War Department of the United States Government. During this time he was an active member of Mount Vernon Place Church and Sunday school. In 1895 he was admitted on trial into the Baltimore Conference and two years later into full connection. He served as pastor of the following churches: Grace, Roanoke, 1895-98; St. Pauls, Baltimore, 1898-1902; Winchester, 1902-06; Alexandria, 1906-10. In 1910 he was elected Editor of the Baltimore Southern Methodist and filled this important position acceptably for a short time. His notable work in the erection of modern Sunday school buildings at Winchester and Alexandria and his inspiring leadership of young people attracted the attention of the General Sunday School Board at Nashville and he was called there to be the Superintendent of the Wesley Adult Bible Class Movement. He also assisted in editing the Adult Student and did much to make it the monthly lesson publication with the largest circulation in America. In 1914 he was elected Corresponding Secretary of the General Sunday School Board and was responsible for the management of the general affairs of the Board in addition to the Wesley Bible Class Movement. He continued in this position until 1921, when he was transferred to the Pacific Coast. He was presiding elder of the San Francisco District from 1921 to 1924 and the Los Angeles District, 1924-27, when he was recalled to Nashville to be Associate Editor of the Sunday School Board. In 1930, when the Boards were combined and reorganized, he was continued as Associate Editor of the Board of Christian Education where he labored as editor of the Adult Student, the Home Quarterly, and the Workers' Council until the end came on February 2, 1932. The Church intrusted many other important matters to Dr. Bulla. He represented the Pacific Conference in the General Conference of 1922 at Hot Springs, Ark., where he received a large vote for bishop. He served as a member of the Commission on Interdenominational Relations; was editor of the Daily Advocate during five sessions of the General Conference; was a member of the International Sunday School Lesson Committee and of the Executive Committee of the Federal Council of Churches. He did important work with the Boy Scouts of America, the Anti-Saloon League, the Sunday School Council of Evangelical Denominations, the International Council of Religious Education, and was influential in having the equestrian statue of Francis Asbury placed in a public square in Washington, D. C. Randolph-Macon College bestowed upon him in 1912 the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity and he is listed in "Who's Who in America." During the thirty-seven years of his active ministry, except the six years on the Pacific Coast, Dr. Bulla was a member of the Baltimore Conference. He was twice married, his first wife being Florence Scarbrough, of Albany, Mo. Of this union there were two children who survive him—Paul S. Bulla and Ruth (Mrs. C. W. Botts). His second wife was Carrie Taxis Brown, who, with four children, Mrs. E. E. Bennett, Mrs. Homer B. Terry, Charles D. Bulla, Jr., and Sidney Bulla, survives him. The paragraph on Dr. Bulla's family would not be complete without a brief mention of his mother, who made her home with him a large part of her later life. She lived to be 101 years old and was a strong, robust character, physically and spiritually. When far past her threescore years and ten, she was accustomed to make a visit annually to other children in the far west, traveling thousands of miles alone. She talked freely to strangers and never failed to tell them about "Charlie," her preacher son. Their mutual devotion was tender and beautiful. No mother was ever more tender to or thoughtful of her babe than he was with his mother as she journeyed through the ninth and tenth decades of her long life. She enjoyed a happy Christian experience and shouted her praises even in the city churches where Charlie was pastor. Funeral services for Dr. Bulla were conducted by Bishop Du Bose in McKendree Church, Nashville, Tenn., on Wednesday, February 3, and the burial was the next day at Baltimore, Md.—H. H. Sherman.

JOHN RUSSELL CORRON, son of Charles Joseph and Mary Ella Corron, was born near White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., November 8, 1899, and died February 20, 1932, at Wardensville, W. Va. He received his education in the public schools of Greenbrier County, W. Va. He was converted in September, 1922, and soon afterwards felt the call to preach, to which he responded, and was licensed to preach on March 9, 1923, by the Lewisburg District Conference at Lewisburg, W. Va. He served two years as a supply and was admitted on trial into the traveling connection in 1925 at the session of the Baltimore Conference held in Mount Vernon Place Church, Washington, D. C., in March. He was that year reappointed to Morgan charge, in the Moorefield District, which charge he continued to serve until the end of a four-year pastorate. His appointments in their order are as follows: 1923-24, Paint Bank; 1924-28, Morgan; 1928-29, Richlands; 1929 to the time of his death, Wardensville. Brother Corron was ordained deacon by Bishop Denny at Roanoke, Va., on October 2, 1927, and elder by Bishop Denny on September 29, 1929, at Cumberland, Md. He was married to Miss Lola Buckland, of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., on January 4, 1923. To this union three children were born, Mildred Evelyn, Lola Helen, and Jessie Grace, all of whom, with their mother, survive. Funeral services were conducted by his presiding elder, C. M. Hesser, at Wardensville, W. Va., on Saturday afternoon, February 20, and on Sunday his body was taken to his home near White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., and there laid to rest to await the resurrection of the just.—F. L. Morrison.

NORMAN N. HALL was born at Linden, Va., on November 16, 1859, the son of Thomas Samuel and Angelina Boyle Hall. His father enlisted in 1861 in the Confederate Army and subsequently lost his life. His mother then moved to Aldie, in Loudoun County, Va., where she made her home with her brother, Dr. Thomas Boyle. When he died ten years later Mrs. Hall moved with her family to Northumberland County. At Virginia Polytechnic Institute, Norman Hall secured his education and after his graduation in June, 1880, came back to Linden, where he taught school for three years. It was as a young school-teacher in 1881, under the ministry of Dr. Poulton, that he was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. In 1885, under Dr. Samuel Rodgers, Norman Hall was licensed to preach, and the next year, on July 22, 1886, he was united in marriage to his cousin, Sally D. Hall. At the Spring Conference of 1887 he was admitted into the Baltimore Conference. His first appointment was Morrisville, where he served three years; thence he was sent to Centerville (now Forest Grove) for three years; then to West River, Md., for four years; Gainesboro, Va., three years; Frederick Circuit, four years; Warren Circuit, four years. At the end of this appointment he found himself forced to superannuate on account of his health. He continued to make his residence, however, in Front Royal, Va., where he lived for the next twenty-six years. Eventually he obtained a position as the deputy clerk of Warren County and thereafter he was to be found at his desk in the courthouse. On June 2, 1932, he was taken ill and twelve days later passed away at his residence on Virginia Avenue, in the town where he had lived and served so long. Surviving him, besides his wife, are the following children: Samuel Norwood Hall, Rosa D. Roszell, James D. Hall, Snowden Hall, and Neville G. Hall. He was laid to rest after services in the church at Front Royal. The solemn words of the funeral office were read by his pastor, R. L. Fultz. Into the Prospect Hill Cemetery of Front Royal, Norman N. Hall was left to rest in the keeping of God.—Nolan B. Harmon, Jr.

EVANDER M. SWEET, SR., was born at Quincy, Fla., October 17, 1837. He was married to Miss Cornelia Brown, of Fort Gaines, Ga., in 1862, to which union three sons and two daughters were born, Evander M., Jr., Marvin, Charles, who died early in life, Mrs. Carrie Smith, and Miss Nina Sweet. He was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in early life and received license to preach the gospel on May 23, 1874. He became a member of the East Texas Conference on December 17, 1874. Subsequently he was transferred to the Central Texas Conference, in which he continued until death, serving throughout his active ministerial life various stations, circuits, college presidencies, and Bible agencies. Brother Sweet's religious activities did not cease when he was superannuated. Wherever he went, he quickly found some special work to do. And then through his fifteen years as an invalid he continued to minister to those who came within his presence. He died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Aaron Smith, in Fort Worth, Tex., on July 9, 1932. The funeral services were in charge of C. O. Shugart, assisted by F. P. Culver, M. K. Little, W. H. Coleman, D. F. Fuller, and W. D. Bradfield. R. C. Armstrong, of Fort Worth, was on the platform, but unable to take part in the service. Burial was in Oakwood Cemetery, Fort Worth, beside the grave of his wife.—C. O. Shugart.

J. T. BLOODWORTH was born in Marshall County, Miss., January 20, 1860, and died at Fort Worth, Tex., August 16, 1932. Converted at the age of 20 in a camp meeting in McLennan County, Tex., he was licensed to exhort, and a year later was granted license to preach. Three years later he was admitted on trial into the Northwest Texas Conference. In the fall of 1885 he was appointed to the Mineral Wells Circuit, in the Weatherford District. The following spring his presiding elder asked him to go west and travel the Mobeetie Circuit, which included practically all of the upper Panhandle. Only two Methodist preachers, J. T. Hosmer and Robert Robertson, had preceded him in presenting the gospel to the people of that sparsely settled section of Texas. His ministry was mainly to the cowboys. Practically all of Brother Bloodworth's ministry, until he was appointed to the evangelistic work, was spent in West Texas. The wife of his youth and companion of his labors and sorrows, together with two sons, Joe and Lloyd, survive him. His prophetic mantle falls upon Lloyd, pastor of one of our Churches in Tucson, Ariz.—W. H. Coleman.

D. L. COLLIE died in Elizabethtown, Ky., on Tuesday, November 8, 1932. He was seventy-nine years of age and had been a superannuate five years. The funeral was held at the First Methodist Church, Fort Worth, Tex., on Thursday afternoon, November 10. He was a native of Kentucky, first joined the Louisville Conference, and early in his ministry transferred to the Denver Conference. He transferred back to Kentucky and in 1902 was transferred to the New Mexico Conference, and later to the Central Texas Conference. He served important charges in Texas, and his last active years were devoted to the cause of the superannuate preachers. He secured nine superannuate homes in the Central Texas Conference. Surviving are two sons, Morris W. and Owen P. Collie, and six daughters, Mrs. P. L. King, Mrs. Lewis Root, Mrs. J. F. Nail, Mrs. Ed Height, Mrs. J. F. Garrison, Mrs. Will S. Horn.—F. P. Culver.

WALTER GRIFFITH was born in Montgomery County, Tex., in 1861. In 1865, with his father, he moved to Bell County. In 1881 he was married to Miss Beula Walker. He was converted at the age of thirty-seven and immediately surrendered to the call to preach. He was ordained a deacon by Bishop Galloway at Brownwood in 1898. In 1900 he was appointed to supply the Floydada charge, and that year was admitted on trial. He was in the active ministry for thirty years and held the relation of a superannuate four years. He served the following charges: Floydada, Silvertown, Lubbock, Frost, Brandon, Chatfield, Wortham, Malone, Itasca Circuit, DeLeon Circuit, Scranton, Barry, Thrall. He was superannuated in 1928. For two years he lived at Corsicana, and then moved to Barry, where he lived until his death. He was killed in Corsicana by a passing automobile on March 22, 1932. Brother Griffith lost his first wife by death while at Malone. During his pastorate of the Itasca Circuit he was married to Mrs. Willie Kelt. He is survived by his wife, who resides at Barry, and a daughter by his first wife, Mrs. Everett White. Following the services at the Chatfield Church conducted by Casper S. Wright, assisted by R. H. Heizer and Bruce M. Cox, the interment was in the Chatfield Cemetery.—Bruce M. Cox.

CROCKETT GRAYSON SHUTT was born at Rock, Mercer County, W. Va., September 15, 1856. Here as a fourteen-year-old boy he gave his heart to Jesus in consecration that increased as the years went by. About 1878 Brother Shutt moved to Texas and taught school in Peoria, Hill County. Here, feeling himself called of God to preach, he was licensed. In 1879 he was admitted on trial into the old Northwest Texas Conference, was ordained deacon in 1881 and elder in 1883. His first charge was Covington Circuit. On September 15, 1881, Brother Shutt was married to Miss Mollie Gray. To them were born two sons, Sam H. and Claude A. Shutt, and one daughter, Miss Bonnie, now Mrs. W. B. Gilleland. Sister Shutt passed to her reward in 1917. Brother Shutt was married to Mrs. Laura Haines on August 19, 1920. He is survived by his wife, three children, and four grandchildren. He wrote for many years for the Texas Christian Advocate under the title, "The Golden Medley." Brother Shutt was a great church builder. At one time Oak Cliff, West Dallas, and Duncanville were in his circuit and he built a church at each point in a single year. He built the first church at Oak Cliff. About the first of September, 1929, while serving the Kerens Circuit, he had a heart attack which came near terminating fatally. At Conference he took the superannuate relation. A home was provided for him at Itasca where fifty years before he had begun his ministry. Attacks of asthma came with greater frequency and persistence until on Sunday evening, August 21, he heard the Master saying, "It is enough; come up higher," and his spirit went home to be with Jesus.—A. W. Hall.

DANIEL ASBURY MCGUIRE was born March 28, 1872, in the Indian Creek Settlement, Comanche County, Tex. In this home were born several other children. What higher education he had was gained at old Polytechnic College in Fort Worth. In 1894 D. A. McGuire was licensed to preach, and was admitted into the Northwest Texas Conference. He married Miss Corine Tunnell of the same settlement from which he came. To them were born two children, Hollis and Thelma. He taught school in 1898 for the first six months at Mesquite, Tex., and the last six months he supplied Zephyr Methodist Church. In 1899 the Northwest Texas Conference appointed D. A. McGuire to the May charge. Here he spent four years. In 1903 he was sent to Rising Star for three years. In 1906 he was sent to Robert Lee. In 1907 he was moved by the Central Texas Conference to the McKinley Avenue Methodist Church in Fort Worth, now Trinity Methodist Church. He spent three years here. In 1910 he was moved to Weatherford Street Methodist Church for his first time and spent two years. In 1912 he was moved to Grandbury. He moved in 1913 to Clay Street Methodist Church in Waco, where he spent four years. Then the World War was on, and he was selected in 1917 to be the Soldiers' Pastor for the boys in Camp McArthur at Waco. He spent two years in this work, and then the Mission Board placed him in the field as a Conference Evangelist to assist them in their work. He spent three years in this work, and in 1922 he went back into the pastorate and was sent to Rogers. After two years, he was sent again to Weatherford Street Methodist Church in Fort Worth, where he spent seven years. He was appointed Conference Evangelist in 1931. In returning to Fort Worth from a business trip to Memphis, death overtook him in an automobile accident.—S. A. Ashburn.

JAMES H. STEWART died on Saturday morning, September 2, 1932, at his home in Belton after an illness of less than a day's duration. With the going away of Brother Stewart was ended a long and useful ministry to all of Texas Methodism, and particularly to the following communities: Covington and Blum, 1892-93; Mansfield Circuit, 1893-95; East Waco, 1895-97; Itasca, 1897-99; Mineral Wells Station, 1899-1901; Vernon Station, 1901-04; Polytechnic, 1904-06; Ennis, 1906-08; Vernon District, 1908-10; Mulkey Memorial, 1910-11; Brownwood District, 1911-15; Hillsboro Station, 1915-18; Waxahachie District, 1918-22; Temple, First Church, 1922-24; Eastland, 1924-25; Weatherford District, 1925-29; Arlington, 1929-31; Belton, 1931-32. The funeral service, conducted in the First Methodist Church at Belton, was in charge of the writer of this article, who answered the call to the ministry during Brother Stewart's pastorate at Temple. John Bowden, ministerial student at Southwestern University, who was drawn into the ministry by the influence of Brother Stewart during the Belton pastorate, also spoke a word of tribute. The service at Covington was in charge of T. Edgar Neal, who, together with F. P. Culver and J. W. W. Shuler, spoke of the work and influence of their friend. Surviving Brother Stewart are his widow, one daughter, Mrs. John B. Pope, and three sons, James H., Robert, and Gathings Stewart.—Edmund Heinsohn.

CULLOM H. BOOTH was born May 26, 1876, in a Methodist parsonage near Pulaski, Tenn. He was reared in an atmosphere of religion and culture. His father, Rev. H. L. Booth, was an able minister and one of the organizers of the North Alabama Conference. He was sent to Vanderbilt University to complete his education, from which institution he received his Bachelor's degree. He began preaching at the age of twenty. In the beginning of his ministry he did some supply work in and near the city of Florence in the bounds of the North Alabama Conference. In 1901 he was received on trial into the old Texas Conference, but the charge to which he was assigned was placed in the West Texas Conference. His appointments in that Conference were: First Street, Austin, now Ward Memorial, three years; Bastrop, two years; University Church, Austin, four years; San Marcos, two years; Laurel Heights, San Antonio, two years. In 1914 he was transferred to the Central Texas Conference and stationed at Georgetown, three years; Corsicana, four years; Waco District, two years; Austin Avenue, Waco, four years and Fort Worth District, two and one-half years. In 1930 Bishop Hay, having chosen him to succeed Bishop Kern, transferred him to the West Texas Conference and stationed him at Travis Park, San Antonio. Soon after he settled in San Antonio, the disease which finally caused his death began to sap his strength, so that in one and one-half years he had to be relieved of this heavy charge. Then Bishop Hay brought him back to the Central Texas Conference and assigned him to the Cisco District. Dr. Booth built three churches which stand as monuments to his wisdom and zeal. They are Ward Memorial, Austin; University Church, Austin; and Austin Avenue, Waco. He also built the beautiful parsonage at Corsicana which is a credit to him and the Church. He was a member of three successive General Conferences, 1922, 1926, and 1930. He was a member of the General Board of Education. When the three Boards were merged at the last session of the General Conference he was placed on the new Board of Christian Education, which position he resigned when his Conference relations were changed by his transfer to Travis Park. He was a member of the Board of Trustees of Southern Methodist University. He was also a trustee of the Methodist Hospital in Fort Worth. On September 24, 1903, Dr. Booth was married to Miss Clare Eddens. He passed away at Dallas in the home of his brother, L. E. Booth, on the night of November 1, 1932.—F. P. Culver.

JAMES CLARENCE GRIMES was born at Sulphur Rock, Ark., June 4, 1879, and answered the call to come up higher on April 25, 1932, in the Methodist Hospital, Fort Worth. While yet a small boy his parents moved to Ellis County, Tex. When he was about grown his family moved to Breckenridge. It was here that he met Miss Anna L. McClenny and on December 12, 1905, they were married. Unto them two sons and two daughters were born, all of whom, together with their mother and his father, survive. In 1908 Brother Grimes and family moved to Olney, Tex. It was here that he heard and answered the call of God to preach. For several years he worked as a local preacher in the Olney Church. It was during these years that he organized the Olney Circuit and served as the first pastor on the work. In 1919 he served the Magargle charge as supply and in 1920 the Antelope charge. In 1921 he was admitted on trial into the Central Texas Conference and served the following charges: Whitt, two years; Azle, two years; Loving, three years; Aledo, one year; Weatherford Circuit, three and a half years. It was while in the midst of his fourth year on this work that he heard the call to come up higher.—L. L. Felder.

EDMUND PAYNE WILLIAMS, son of Rev. J. and Almira P. Williams, was born in Collierville, Tenn. He graduated from the University of Mississippi, spending from 1883 to 1885 inclusive in that school. After his school days he came to Texas as principal of the public school at Aurora, Wise County, and later was principal of the Seventh Ward Grammar School at Fort Worth. He was elected president of Granbury College and received an honorary Master of Arts degree from that institution. While public school principal in Fort Worth, he became superintendent of the Mulkey Memorial Sunday School, with Dr. (now Bishop) Boaz as pastor. In 1896 he was licensed to preach and in 1900 he was admitted into the Northwest Texas Conference. Brother Williams served the following charges: Polytechnic, Balinger, Eleventh Avenue (Corsicana), Taylor (two pastorates), Mexia Station, Cisco District, Dublin District, First Church (Weatherford), Georgetown, Boulevard and Missouri Avenue (Fort Worth), and Hubbard. From Hubbard, after a lingering illness, he joined the Church above. His survivors are his wife, two sons (E. P., Jr., and W. Erskine II), a brother (Judge Erskine Williams), and a sister (Mrs. J. Sam Barcus), and two grandchildren. Prominent among his committee assignments was that as Chairman of the Conference Board of Church Extension. He died at the Methodist Hospital in Fort Worth on September 13, 1932. The funeral was conducted from Mulkey Memorial Church on September 14. His remains were laid to rest by the side of his father's in Pioneer Rest Cemetery, Fort Worth, Tex. His presiding elder, C. S. Wright, was in charge of the funeral, assisted by F. P. Culver, J. Sam Barcus, A. D. Porter, and S. A. Ashburn. —C. S. Wright.

SAMUEL JAMES RUCKER was an itinerant Methodist preacher thirty-seven years, having been admitted on trial in 1895 and was closing his fourth year at DeLeon when he died in Denver, Colo., August 16, 1932. He was born in Rutherford County, Tenn., August 4, 1868, and moved to Texas with his parents when a lad of eight years and settled in McLennan County, near Waco. In August, 1881, he was converted at the old Stanford Camp Ground, under the ministry of E. R. Barcus. Six years later he yielded to a call to preach and on August 17, 1887, was granted a license. The following month he entered Southwestern University, and in 1892 he graduated with the degree of Master of Arts. Then followed three years of training in the Biblical Department of Vanderbilt University where he took the degree of Bachelor of Divinity. In November of that year, 1895, he joined the Northwest Texas Conference and was sent to Tenth Street Mission, Waco. In his thirty-seven years he served the following charges: Tenth Street, Waco; Peach Street Mission, Fort Worth; Salado and Corn Hill Circuit; Seventh Street, Temple; Granbury Station, McGregor, Rice, Mexia, Abilene, Belton, Mulkey Memorial, Coleman, Gatesville District, Hillsboro, Ennis, Weatherford District, Cisco, Bartlett, Granger, and DeLeon. On November 9, 1897, he was married to Miss Beth Foster, of Georgetown. Five children were born to them, two having died in infancy, and three, Sam J., Jr., Mrs. W. V. Overbaugh, and Foster, survive. In the first days of August, with his wife and son, Foster, he drove to Denver, Colo., to spend a few days with his other son, Sam. J., Jr., in Englewood, a suburb of Denver. While there he suffered an attack of the heart which was superinduced by mountain climbing. Twelve days later God called him to his heavenly home.—J. A. Siceloff.

Ques. 14. What preachers have died during the year? H. S. Miller, D. A. Cole, G. C. Herndon, E. L. Ley, G. A. Davis. 5.

HILLIARD SUMMERS MILLER, son of John Hilliard and Ann Caroline Ott Miller, was born in Clayton, Ala., August 3, 1855. He was converted and joined the Methodist Church in Orange County, Fla., in 1869. In the year 1879 he was received into the Florida Conference on trial. He was ordained deacon in 1880 and elder in 1883. He was on the effective list in this Conference twenty-nine years. He took the supernumerary relation in December, 1907, and was superannuated in December, 1908. After this he made a home for himself and loved ones in Bradford County, Fla. Later he moved to Worthington Springs, Fla., and lived there until January 1, 1932. The latter months of his life were spent at Thomaston, Ga., near his son. He was married to Miss Eulalie Hiers, of Bradford County, Fla., December 16, 1897. Four children were born to them, the eldest dying in infancy. Two sons, George H. and Albert H. Miller, and a daughter, Miss Virginia Miller, with their mother, survive him. Brother and Sister Miller were living in Thomaston, Ga., near their eldest son when his last illness came. On August 20 he took his bed never to be up again. On September 4 he was carried to Wesley Memorial Hospital, Atlanta, Ga., and as nothing could be done for him he was brought home. On Sunday, October 9, he sank into a coma, and never rallied. On October 12, at 8:25 A.M., he slipped away from the loved ones on earth to live with loved ones in heaven. His funeral services were held Thursday morning at 11 o'clock from the residence in Thomaston, Ga. John G. Logan conducted the service, and was assisted by J. N. Tumlin, a superannuate, and Rufus D. Dodd, pastor of the First Baptist Church. His body was laid to rest in Glenwood Cemetery, Thomaston, Ga.—T. L. Z. Barr.

DANIEL AUSTIN COLE was born in Pennsylvania October 1, 1849. His parents were Presbyterians, but he was converted in a Methodist revival about 1873 and united with the Methodist Church. He was married to Miss Eva W. Murray the same year. On account of his wife's health the family moved to Florida in 1883 and settled near Tampa, where his wife died in 1884. He was licensed to preach and recommended for admission on trial in 1885 and admitted on trial into the Florida Conference in January, 1886. For 35 years he served faithfully and efficiently as pastor and presiding elder. He also served as a member of the Board of Trustees of Southern College. In December, 1887, he was married to Miss Anna Wilkin-son, of Bowling Green, Fla., who preceded him to the better land by only a few months. In December, 1920, he was superannuated. God called him on February 18, 1932, from the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. J. Nix, in Jesup, Ga., to the home not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. He leaves one son by his first wife, A. H. Cole, and three children by his second wife, Mrs. E. J. Nix, Mrs. J. L. Pierson, and Mrs. A. A. Taylor. One child died in infancy. His body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Cocoa by the side of his wife. The services were conducted by J. H. Daniels, assisted by M. H. Norton, C. H. Summers, L. P. Driskell, and J. T. Guy.—J. P. Hilburn.

GEORGE COOPER HERNDON was born in Baker County, Fla., February 23, 1880. He was converted and called to preach under the ministry of G. S. Roberts in 1911, at Jacksonville, and was licensed to preach by the Jacksonville District Conference in 1912. He served as a supply from 1913 to 1919 inclusive. During this period he was pastor of Jacksonville Mission, New Augustine, Maitland, and Sebastian charges. He was admitted on trial into the Florida Conference on December 9, 1920. He was received into full connection and ordained deacon by Bishop Ainsworth in 1922. He was ordained elder on December 7, 1924, by Bishop Ainsworth. After entering the Conference he served La-Belle, Zolfe, Apalachicola, Marvin Church (Jacksonville), Wildwood, Boynton, and was on the Sebastian charge at the time of his death. On January 12, 1911, he was married to Miss Sallie K. Ridge in Jacksonville, Fla., by Rev. G. S. Roberts. This union was blessed with six children. Of this number two have gone up to heaven. Three daughters, Mary Louise, Dorothy, and Georgia, and a son, Robert, with their mother, survive him. In April he was taken violently ill and carried to Wesley Memorial Hospital, Atlanta, Ga., where he underwent a surgical operation. On May 24, 1932, God gave him his highest and best appointment. His funeral service was conducted by J. H. Daniel, assisted by H. E. Partridge, Smith Hardin, G. R. Stephens, and Rev. Mr. Eshman, a Presbyterian minister. His body was laid to rest in the Sebastian Cemetery.—T. L. Z. Barr.

ELIAS LEITNER LEY was born in Micahopy, Fla., March 4, 1863, and passed away in Miami, Fla., January 16, 1932. Brother Ley was the youngest son of Rev. J. C. Ley and wife, and brother to J. B. Ley and E. F. Ley. The passing of Brother E. L. Ley closes the seventy-eighth year of this family preaching the gospel of Christ in the Methodist Church. He gave his heart to God when quite young. He served as a local preacher for many years before coming to the Conference. He was sent to Key West by Bishop Denny in 1916 and arrived there December 28, at a little church known as "Rocky Road." He served that church twelve years. In 1928 he was sent to Holloman Park, Miami, Fla., where he served two years. In 1930 he was sent to Matecumbe, but his failing health caused him to give up the work the latter part of 1931 and he went to Miami, Fla., to live with his daughter, Mrs. H. W. Heyward. Brother Ley's wife preceded him to the better world about twenty years ago. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. H. W. Heyward, and three sons: Leitner, Lovick, and Willard. His body was laid to rest in Micanopy cemetery by the side of his wife. The service at the grave was conducted by S. I. Hendrix, assisted by L. M. Broyles, W. A. Myres, and the writer.—S. A. Wilson.

GUSTAVUS ADOLPHUS DAVIS, son of Dr. and Mrs. L. B. M. Davis, was born at Brunswick, Ga., January 29, 1876. He received his A.B. degree at Emory College, Oxford, Ga., in June, 1903. He joined the South Georgia Conference in December, 1903, and on December 6, 1904, he was married to Miss Mattie Wooten, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Henry Wooten, of Chauncey, Ga. This union was blessed with three children, a daughter who died in infancy, and two sons, Henry Lee and Gus A., Jr., who reside with their mother in West Palm Beach, Fla. He received four appointments in the South Georgia Conference: North Highlands (Columbus), Midland Circuit, Meigs, Ochlochnee and Altamaha. In December, 1909, he was transferred to the Florida Conference, and served Jennings for two years. He spent 1912 and 1913 at Vanderbilt University. He served the Maccleenny charge, 1914-17; St. Augustine, 1918; Greensboro Charge, 1919-22; Parrish and Ellenton, 1923-25; Tarpon Springs, 1926-27; Cedar Key, 1927-28. In June, 1928, he took the superannuate relation. In December, 1928, he was strong enough to take work again and was appointed to Highland

City and Eaton Park. His last pastorate was Sarah Wagg Memorial, West Palm Beach, where he served three years. He was superannuated at the Conference in Tampa in December, 1931. He was making his home in West Palm Beach when God called him to heaven on June 8, 1932. His funeral service was conducted in Sarah Wagg Memorial Church on Saturday afternoon, June 11, 1932. Bruce Gannaway had charge of the service, assisted by Smith Hardin, C. K. Vliet, Walter Kimmell, and W. K. Piner. His pallbearers were C. D. Blackwell, Morey Dunn, Howard W. Selly, J. W. Loadholtes, M. D. Brown, and E. J. Hills. His body was laid to rest in Woodlawn Cemetery, West Palm Beach.—T. L. Z. Barr.

Ques. 14. What preachers have died during the year? D. P. Hurley, J. T. Frazier, Thomas Priddy, B. C. Wilson, Walter Hodge, C. E. Steele, L. W. McFarland. 7.

DAVID P. HURLEY, son of James F. and Julia A. Hurley, was born February 28, 1861, in Ashe County, N. C. His father was killed during the War between the States. Young David from that time lived in the home of his maternal uncle, David Dixon. His early advantages were such as to give him a liberal education, having attended school at Emory and Henry College in his final preparation for his chosen profession, that of teaching. While a student at Sparta, N. C., he was converted to God, joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and lived a consistent Christian life to the end. For eight years he followed his chosen profession as high school principal. Joining the Holston Conference at Wytheville, Va., in October, 1892, he was sent to the Independence Circuit, where he remained four years. He completed his Conference course of study on schedule time, despite the heavy work of that large circuit, and made a splendid record as preacher and pastor. From there he was sent to serve Spring Valley Circuit, where he also remained four years; then to Lead Mines Circuit for the full four years. From there he was sent to Williamson, now in the Western Virginia Conference, for one year. His next appointment was to Saltville, where he served three years and had been appointed for the fourth when the death of J. O. Straley made vacant the Tazewell District, to which he was appointed presiding elder and where he remained the full four years. He was next appointed to the Radford District, where he did four successful years' work. The Wytheville District next received him. At the end of the third year his health began to fail. Consequently he was sent to Pulaski Station. He remained there for three years, at the end of which time the disease that had been the cause of his giving up the district, creeping paralysis, had so advanced that he was compelled to give up the work he so much loved and take the superannuate relation. He sustained this relation to the Conference a little more than four years. He was married to Miss Sallie A. Nukirk on July 17, 1889. To this union were born two sons and four daughters, Blanch, Dwight P., and Willie Neal Hurley, Mrs. C. M. Peters, Mrs. K. E. Baber, and Mrs. H. C. Branch, all of whom survive him, as do also twelve grandchildren. He passed from this world on January 10, 1932. The remains were brought back to Pulaski, where the simple rites were performed and we laid him to rest on a hilltop overlooking the scenes of his labors.—E. A. Shugart.

JACOB TYLER FRAZIER, son of George A. and Sallie Dillon Frazier, was born in Giles County, Va., November 22, 1840, and died at his home in Chilhowie, Va., February 23, 1932. He was converted and united with the Church at Old Wabash Camp Ground at the age of 16. He was a preacher before he was 21. He was admitted on trial into the Holston Conference at Marion, Va., September 15, 1865. He was received into full connection at Cleveland, Tenn., in 1867, and ordained deacon by Bishop Wightman. He was ordained elder by Bishop Kavanaugh, at Wytheville, Va., in 1870. He enlisted in Company D, Seventeenth Virginia Regiment, at the beginning of the War between the States and served in the Confederate Army under General Lee to the end of the war. He was made chaplain. To him belongs the distinction of having organized the first Y. M. C. A. in the South. It was not affiliated with the parent organization, but it was no less real in fact and in name. Its membership was composed of soldiers from five regiments and it was called the "Y. M. C. A. of Kemper's Brigade." Brother Frazier was its president. He was married in September, 1866, to Maria Virginia Taylor, daughter of J. W. and Mary Tate Taylor, of Tazewell County, Va., and this union was blessed with eight children, five of whom survive: Mrs. J. R. Eakin, H. B., J. T., C. C. Frazier, and Mrs. D. D. Staley. His second marriage was to Fannie D. McBroom, daughter of Judge J. W. and Henrietta Jackson McBroom, of Abingdon, Va., April 8, 1913, and she survives him. He is also survived by one brother, G. A. Frazier, and by seventeen grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. Brother Frazier's first appointment was junior preacher on the Jeffersonville Circuit, and his last was junior preacher on the Chilhowie Circuit. Other of his appointments were: East Tazewell, Lebanon, Main Street (Bristol), Broad Street (Knoxville), Pocahontas, Newbern, Bland Street (Bluefield), Marion, Chilhowie, Conference Evangelist, Emory Circuit, College Chaplain, and on the Jeffersonville, Abingdon, and Radford Districts. He was superannuated in 1919. He preached in the church at Chilhowie on his ninety-first birthday, November 22 of last year. Emory and Henry College recognized his great achievements and his scholarship in the things that pertained to his sacred calling and bestowed on him the Doctor's Degree. At his request a simple funeral was held in the Methodist Church at Chilhowie, conducted by the pastor, assisted by W. N. Wagner, a life-long friend of the deceased. His grandsons were the pallbearers and his granddaughters the flower-bearers. We laid his body to rest in the little cemetery on the hill overlooking the village.—T. J. Eskridge.

THOMAS MORGAN PRIDDY, son of Frank N. and Melvira S. Priddy, was born in Giles County, Va., February 20, 1874. His parents were members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, to which he was carried in infancy and solemnly dedicated to God in holy baptism. His father was the first settler in what is now the town of Narrows, Va., where Thomas was reared. Almost alone his father builded the first Methodist Church in that community. He united with the Church in his nineteenth year, the prevailing custom then being to defer that event until there should be a sound conversion. He was educated in the schools of the community and later studied at Birmingham, Ala. At first he sustained a local preacher's relation to the Church, which enabled him to enter the contracting business, in which he was successful and in which he remained until 1901, when he applied for admission into the traveling connection of the Holston Conference. He was married to Miss Willie Anne Fizer, of Narrows, Va., and to this union four daughters were born: Maude, who became the wife of E. E. Bailey; Ruth, who died in infancy; Mary and Ernesteen, who remain with their mother. Maude, who often sang with her father in revivals and directed his choir, preceded him to the better land by only a few years. She left one son, James Priddy Bailey. Brother Priddy's record of service is as follows: New River Circuit, 1901-04; Grace Church, 1904-08; Trinity, Chattanooga, 1908-10; Centenary, Knoxville, 1910-14; Grove Avenue, 1914-16; First Church, Princeton, 1916-20; Broad Street, Kingsport, 1920-22; general evangelist, 1922-30; Hillsville, 1930 to the time of his death. He had just returned from a revival at Elizabethton, Tenn., when he was taken sick with his last illness. On March 5 he took to his bed, and on the seventeenth the doctors decided upon hospital treatment. Pursuant to their instructions he was removed from the parsonage at Hillville to Martin Memorial Hospital, Mount Airy, N. C., and on the morning of the eighteenth his spirit winged its way back to the God who gave it. He was buried from our Church at Princeton, W. Va., beside his daughter Maude.—E. A. Shugart.

BENJAMIN CORNELIUS WILSON, son of Rev. Martin V. and Elizabeth Lovelace Wilson, was born in Allen County, Ky., February 8, 1865. Here he spent his boyhood and youth. He was converted in his teens and at once united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Old Shiloh. His family belonged to this Church, his father being a staunch supporter and also a local preacher. His mother, who was a sister of the late Henry S. Lovelace, of the Louisville Conference, died when Brother Wilson was only a year and a half old. He attended high school and college at Franklin, Ky. He was married to Miss Alberta M. Wilson, of Allen County, Ky., on September 6, 1888, Rev. Enoch M. Crowe, father of Dr. John M. Crowe, officiating. To this union were born three sons and a daughter. The three sons are living, but the daughter died at the age of ten years. Brother Wilson taught school a number of years in Southern Kentucky and Middle Tennessee. He was licensed to preach in April, 1907, and joined the Louisville Conference September 29, 1908, the Conference being held that year at Settle Memorial Church, Owensboro, Ky., Bishop Wilson presiding. Brother Wilson served in his home Conference until 1914, when he was transferred to the Baltimore Conference, where he gave several years of splendid service, then came to the Holston, where he served till the close of his life on April 1, 1932. His funeral was conducted in the Church in Evensville on Monday morning, April 4, by L. M. Cartwright, C. N. Kennedy, and C. L. Cox. *The body was taken to Ooltewah, Tenn., for burial.—R. C. Camper.

WALTER HODGE, son of Robert Chester and Julia Alice Hodge, was born at Bakersville, N. C., July 12, 1877. He lived in North Carolina till he was seventeen years of age, when he moved with his parents to Sullivan County, Tenn., and located near the town of Blountville. He was happily converted at the age of sixteen and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Soon after his conversion he felt called to the ministry and at once went to work to prepare himself for the high calling to which he had dedicated his life. He was educated at Holston Institute and Emory and Henry College. He spent some time teaching while seeking an education. He was licensed to preach in 1899 and was admitted into the Holston Conference on trial in 1901. He was sent that year to the Bristol Circuit. He finished his year's work on this charge and in the fall entered Emory and Henry College. After the commencement of 1903 he supplied North Fork charge till Conference. After this he served the following charges: Grundy, 1903-05; Coal Creek, 1905-06; Rising Fawn, 3 months, and Hill City, 9 months, 1906-07; Pikeville, 1907-09; Damascus, 1909-11; Bland, 1911-15; Cripple Creek, 1915-17; Independence, 1917-19; Graham Circuit, 1919-23; Castlewood and Dante, 1923-25; Cedar Bluff, 1925-26; Belfast, 1926-27; Dickensonville, 1927-30; Floyd, 1930-31; Leron, 1931. While serving the Bristol Circuit he met Miss Mary Frances McLelland and was married to her on December 22, 1903. To this union were born ten children: Mary Frances, Lucy, Marvin S., Emory Allen, Mrs. Donald Balch, James, Howard, Dorothy, Paul, and Lyle. He is survived by his wife, mother, two sisters, and one brother. Brother Hodge did faithful work on the various boards and committees of the Conference and for twelve years he was Secretary of the Conference Board of Church Extension. In the parsonage at Leron, W. Va., he quietly fell asleep on the morning of April 3, 1932. Funeral services were held in Emmanuel Lutheran Church near his old Tennessee home. The services were in charge of Z. F. Mayberry, who was assisted by other ministers present. His body was laid to rest in the cemetery close by.—W. M. Morrell.

CHARLES EMMETT STEELE was born in Scott County, Va., on May 3, 1864; and his ministry came to a close on May 1, 1932, at the home of his daughter at Elk Garden, Va., following an illness of some weeks' duration. His body was laid to rest in the family cemetery at Bull's Gap, Tenn., on the sixty-ninth anniversary of his birth. His parents were Rev. Reuben and Elizabeth Forkner Steele, who are remembered as persons of unusual piety and Christian devotion. When a lad of twelve years both his parents were claimed by death, but this brief period of parental oversight and guidance was sufficient to establish him in the Christian faith, and doubtless accounts for his conversion at the early age of eight. He grew to young manhood in the home of an elder brother, taking courses of study in both Hiwassee and Emory and Henry Colleges. He was married to Miss Ida P. Mooney, of Bull's Gap, on September 4, 1889. The family remaining consists of the wife and two children, Mrs. T. G. Smith and Charles Keele Steele. One sister also survives, Mrs. Fannie McCrary. Brother Steele's itinerant ministry began in 1893, when he was admitted on trial at Knoxville, Tenn., and includes the following charges: Parrottsville, three years; St. Clair, four years; Macedonia, three years; Strawberry Plains, two years; Chilhowie, three years; Elk Garden, twelve years; Saltville, two years; Glade Spring and Meadow View, where he had begun the second year of a most successful pastorate.—E. E. Wiley.

LAWRENCE WALTON MCFARLAND, son of Jacob and Darthulah Frye McFarland, was born in Tazewell County, Va., October 10, 1895; and died in the George Ben Johnson Memorial Hospital, Abingdon, Va., August 29, 1932. He was stricken with appendicitis during our Pastors' School at Emory, Va., and was immediately taken to the hospital. When only twelve years of age he surrendered his life to our Lord to be used in his holy service. He was early seized with a growing conviction that he should preach the gospel. Sometime during the period of his enlistment in the United States Army he answered that call. He did not go to France, but was first at Camp Lee, Va., and later transferred to Camp Humphreys in Iowa. From this camp he received his honorable discharge. To him the call to preach was a call to preparation. After obtaining his local license he entered Hiwassee College in 1919, in the high school department and finished his junior college course in 1924. In the fall of 1924 he matriculated in Emory and Henry College, and graduated with the class of 1926. Brother McFarland was admitted on trial into the Conference in 1925, into full connection in 1927, and ordained elder in 1929. His first appointment was to Emory and Henry College as a student. He served the following charges: Fremont and McClure, 1926-30; and Andover and Arno from 1930 until the time of his death. On June 5, 1928, he was married to Miss Hattie Kate Hart, daughter of the late James Henry Hart and Sarah Joan Hickman Hart, of Gate City, Va. To this union were born three boys, Horace Edwin, Cecil Eugene, and Gerald Hart. His body rests under the shadow of the pines at Emory, Va. It was tenderly committed, on the afternoon of August 30, by E. E. Wiley, assisted by P. L. Cobb, J. N. Hillman, H. D. Hart, H. G. Holdway, B. T. Sells, H. B. Brown, and the writer.—*R. Ques. 14. What preachers have died during the year? W. T. Rowland, J. W. Hughes, T. F. Taliaferro, W. H. Fry. 4.

WILLIAM T. ROWLAND was born near Chaplin, Nelson County, Ky., February 13, 1842. Being about eighteen years of age at the beginning of the War between the States, he enlisted in Gen. Basil Duke's regiment, Company B, Second Kentucky Cavalry, in the famous brigade commanded by Gen. John Morgan. In 1866, when Kentucky Wesleyan College was established at Millersburg, Ky., by the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, he was enrolled as a student in the first class taught at that institution. He finished the four years' course with credit and received the A.B. degree, and when his course in theology was completed, the degree of Master of Arts was conferred upon him. In September, 1870, he was admitted on trial into the Kentucky Conference. His first appointment was Dean's Chapel, near Worthville, Carroll County. During his pastorate he was frequently associated with the family of the late Dr. James Vachel Conn, whose oldest daughter, Miss Mary Ethalene Conn, became his bride on November 2, 1875. To them were born three sons and four daughters. For the year 1875 his appointment was Danville, and subsequently he served the congregations at Richmond, Simpsonville, Paris, Carlisle, Harrodsburg, Warsaw, and Flemingsburg. Having served the Conference in the itinerant ministry for twenty-five years, in September, 1895, Brother Rowland brought his family to Carrollton, where he had since resided, occupying the ancestral home of his wife, who on March 1, 1920, was called to her eternal home. On February 22, 1929, he slipped on an icy pavement, sustaining a broken hip and other injuries from which he never recovered. On the evening of September 16, 1931, he was granted an entrance to the Eternal Home of the redeemed in Christ Jesus. Funeral services were conducted on the following Friday by W. R. Johnson.—Mrs. W. F. Howe.

JOHN WESLEY HUGHES was born May 16, 1852, in Owen County, Ky. His father came from Culpepper County, Va., in the early days of Kentucky and settled on the waters of Eagle Creek. At a protracted meeting on December 26, 1869, at nine o'clock at night, he was born again. In 1870 he felt his call to preach and settled it then and there, for all time, that he would preach Christ. About this time a young preacher and his wife were sent to the circuit where Brother Hughes lived; the life and influence of this young preacher, T. F. Taliaferro, had much to do with Brother Hughes entering college at Millersburg, Ky. Later in life he entered the Theological Department of Vanderbilt University. In 1876 he was admitted into the Kentucky Conference and appointed to Springport Circuit, in Henry and Carroll Counties. His last pastorate was at Carlisle, Ky. On July 28, 1880, Dr. Hughes was married to Miss Mary Wallingford, of Mason County. The year of 1889 he spent in evangelistic work. In September of 1890 he opened Asbury College in a four-room house with three teachers and eleven pupils. In 1917 Dr. Hughes retired from educational work, and went back to Wilmore to spend his closing days here on earth. His first wife went to heaven while Dr. Hughes was President of Kingswood College. To them were born eight children, four of whom survive the father; Arthur, Clarence, and Walter Hughes and Mary Hughes Wilson. Dr. Hughes was later married to Mrs. Sadie Smith Petty. He died February 22, 1932, and his body lay in state in the magnificent Hughes Auditorium, built to his memory. The writer, by request of Dr. Hughes, was in charge of the memorial service, and the following spoke on various phases of the life of this man, who was characterized by one as "Belonging to the ages": William S. Maxwell, A. P. Jones, T. F. Taliaferro, L. R. Akers, W. P. Davis, and Arthur Hughes, son of Dr. Hughes. We laid his worn-out body to rest by his first wife in the Wilmore cemetery.—William S. Maxwell.

THOMAS FRANKLIN TALIAFERRO, son of William Richard and Harriet McGrew Taliaferro, was born March 1, 1847. Reared under positive Christian influence, he became a member of the Church in early life, and dedicated himself to the Christian ministry. Among his converts was Henry Clay Morrison. John Wesley Hughes began his career under his influence. After finishing his work at Kentucky Wesleyan College, then at Millersburg, Ky., Brother Taliaferro was admitted into the Kentucky Conference in 1871. From that time until his death, May 9, 1932, he gave spotless, efficient, and faithful service to the Church. In 1872 he was united in marriage to Miss Mary Summers, and for forty-two years they shared the joys and cares of the itinerancy. In 1912 his wife fell asleep, and the next year he took the superannuate relation. During his ministry he had served Foster, Warsaw, Goshen, Perryville, Hillsboro, Flemingsburg, New Castle, Pleasureville, Bloomfield, Carlisle, and Falmouth (of which he was thrice pastor), and Frankfort and Cynthiana, which he supplied after superannuation. From 1902 to 1906 Brother Taliaferro was Chaplain of the Reformatory at Frankfort, developing the Christian Endeavor Society so effectually that it was accorded the International Prison Banner. He also became President of the Society for the Friendless, an organization for befriending released prisoners. He remained president of this society until his death. During his Frankfort pastorate he ministered faithfully to Governor William Goebel in his dying hours. During the administration of Governor Fields he was appointed a colonel on the Governor's staff. He organized the Ministerial Association at Frankfort. Among his later writings was a history of the Fort Thomas Church, an important document written for and delivered at their Centenary Celebration in 1930. On Sunday night, May 8, 1932, though suffering with the heart trouble that had for years given him discomfort, he joined heartily in singing with his granddaughter, Hallie Miller Wilson, the great old hymn, "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross." This was but a few hours before he fell asleep. On Monday morning he passed to the land of eternal Sabbath. The funeral service was held at the Frankfort Church on Wednesday afternoon, May 11, conducted by the pastor, assisted by others including the presiding elder, Madison Combs, who spoke on "Brother Taliaferro, the Man," F. K. Struve, on "Brother Taliaferro, the Friend," and M. S. Clark, on "Brother Taliaferro, the Preacher." The members of the Frankfort Ministerial Association were honorary pallbearers. He was laid to rest by the side of his beloved wife in the Frankfort cemetery overlooking the beautiful Kentucky River. Two daughters survive him, Mrs. Ralph R. Wilson and Mrs. R. B. M. Colvin.—James E. Savage.

WILBUR H. FRY was born at Lean, Ohio, June 3, 1909. He departed this life August 25, 1932. He spent his boyhood days in Ohio, where he early came under the influence of the Church. He was converted at about sixteen years of age and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. Feeling the call of God, he came to Asbury College in September, 1927, to prepare himself for the ministry. It was while in college that he met Miss Beatrice Worthen and they were united in marriage June 4, 1930. At the session of the Kentucky Conference held at Winchester in 1931, he was admitted on trial into the Conference and was assigned to the Seco charge. His last public appearance was preaching to the people he loved. The funeral was conducted in the church at Seco by the writer assisted by J. K. Hicks, H. L. Moore, John H. Lewis, and Robert Hart, Jr. His body was taken to Gorham, Ill., for burial. He leaves to mourn his passing his wife, Mrs. Beatrice Worthen Fry, his father, seven sisters, and three brothers.—Virgil L. Moore.

WILLIAM RINGOLD HARRISON, son of Thomas A. and Rebecca Ann Dowdle Harrison, was born at Columbus, Miss., December 22, 1851. When he was fourteen years old he moved with his parents to Sevier County, Ark. In the summer of 1867 he was converted in a revival meeting, and a few months later he was received into the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, by T. W. Hayes. He was licensed to preach in 1879, and after serving as a local preacher for five years, was admitted on trial into the Little Rock Conference in 1884. At this time he was ordained deacon by Bishop Hargrove. During the forty years of his active ministry he served the following charges: Mount Ida Circuit, one year; Tulip Circuit, four years; South Hot Springs and Glen Street, one year; South Hot Springs, one year; Tillar Circuit, four years; Lewisville Circuit, four years; Arkansas City and Portland, one year; Third Street Church, Hot Springs, three years; Benton Station, two years; Prescott District, one year; DeQueen Station, two years; Stamps Station, three years; Amity and Glenwood, four years; Highland Church, Little Rock, two years; Hunter Memorial, Little Rock, two years; Twenty-Eighth Street, Little Rock, four years. In 1924 Brother Harrison asked for the superannuate relation and settled in Little Rock. Responding to the request of the presiding elder, he supplied the Douglasville-Geyer Springs Circuit for three years. He spent the rest of his life in the city of Little Rock. On August 21, after an illness which extended over several months, he fell asleep and was laid to rest in Roselawn Cemetery. In 1882 he was married to Alice Virginia Grady. Five sons and two daughters make up their family: Harvey T., James J., Kenneth, Galloway C., William Ringold, Jr., Mrs. E. T. Hayes, and Mrs. Robert D. Thompson. The funeral service was conducted at First Church, Little Rock, by the writer of this article and L. M. Sipes, pastor of Pulaski Heights Baptist Church. The Methodist ministers of Greater Little Rock acted as honorary pallbearers, and his sons served as active pallbearers.

JOHN ALEXANDER PARKER, son of Franklin and Sarah E. Parker, was born January 24, 1868, near Middleton, Harde-man County, Tenn. When he was ten years old his parents moved to Howard County, Ark., and settled on a farm near Center Point. As a boy he struggled with the hardships of pioneer farm life. He attended the short-term rural schools in the community where he lived. In early youth he felt the Christian ministry should be his life work. On February 2, 1888, he was united in marriage to Susie Elizabeth Pinkerton, who encouraged him to take up his life work in the ministry. They moved to Center Point in order that he might have better school advantages, and still later they moved to Dallas, near Mena, to continue his education. To this marriage were born eight children, five of whom survive: Walter W. Parker, Mrs. J. F. Snuggs, Mrs. Horner B. Ball, Fletcher Parker, and John Cecil Parker. On August 12, 1918, the wife and mother died at Prescott, Ark. On January 4, 1921, Brother Parker was united in marriage to Lela Lane Goodwin, of El Dorado, Ark. To this union were born three children, who survive him: Raymond Trieschmann, James Boaz, and Lois Marie. Brother Parker was licensed to preach October 8, 1892, and was admitted on trial at the Annual Conference held in Hot Springs in December, 1893, Bishop Keener presiding. He served the following charges: 1893, Mountain Fork; 1894, Cove; 1895-96, Chapel Hill; 1897-99, Emmett; 1900-02, Onalaska; 1903, Pike City; 1904, Mineral Springs; 1905-06, Okolona; 1907, Lockesburg; 1908-09, Third Street, Hot Springs; 1910, Stuttgart; 1911-14, Fordyce; 1915, England; 1916-19, Prescott; 1920-21, De Queen; 1922-25, Monticello District; 1926, Benton; 1927-28, Mena; 1929, Lockesburg. On account of failing health he retired at the Conference held at Lakeside, Pine Bluff, in 1930. After a brief illness this man of God finished his earthly course on February 21, 1932, at his home in Hot Springs, Ark. A few years ago Brother Parker requested the writer to officiate at his funeral in case he should go before I did. Funeral services were conducted on February 22 in Grand Avenue Church, Hot Springs, in charge of the writer, assisted by J. H. Cummins, A. C. Millar, J. D. Hammons, S. K. Burnett, F. P. Doak, and Roy Fawcett.—J. Frank Simmons.

W. T. WILKERSON, son of James and Maria Wilkerson, was born in Lancashire, England, July 15, 1868. He was converted and joined the Methodist Church at the age of sixteen, and was licensed to preach at nineteen. He served in the regular ministry of his Church in England for ten years, emigrating to America in 1911. Under the Spirit's guidance he came to Arkansas and was received into the North Arkansas Conference. While a member of this Conference he served the following charges: Cabot, North Little Rock, and Russellville. He was transferred to the Little Rock Conference in 1919, in which body he continued until his death, March 14, 1932. He served the following charges: Camden, Highland (Little Rock), Magnolia, McGehee, Grand Avenue (Hot Springs), De Queen, Fairview (Texarkana), and Bearden. He was married August 3, 1889, to Miss Alice Ann Ashworth, also of Lancashire, England. She, with their three children, Mrs. Leo J. Webster, Mrs. T. B. Douglass, and Caleb Wilkerson, survives him.—R. H. Cannon.

JAMES M. CANNON, son of John and Mary Frances Cannon, was born near Lockesburg, Ark., November 18, 1869, and died at Little Rock on May 21, 1932. He was the second son of a family of seven brothers, four of whom are licensed ministers in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. James M. united with the Church when he was eleven years of age. At the session of the Little Rock Conference held at Warren in November, 1906, Bishop Atkins presiding, he was admitted on trial into the traveling connection. His first charge was Mabelvale. Other charges served by him were Hickory Plains, Huttig, Monticello Circuit, Watson, Lake Village, and Eudora, where he served four years. At the close of the Conference year 1929, on account of long illness, he was granted a year's rest. After more than a year of suffering, he passed to his heavenly reward.—George N. Cannon.

ROBERT HENRY WYNN, son of Rev. John F. and Pauline Gorton Wynn, was born at Waterproof, La., February 23, 1871. At thirteen years of age, he entered the preparatory department of Centenary College, then located at Jackson, La. He graduated in 1889. For the succeeding two years he was employed to teach in the preparatory department of the college, and during this period was licensed to preach. The following session, 1891-92, he spent as a student in the Theological Department at Vanderbilt University. In December, 1892, at Lake Charles, La., he was admitted on trial into the Louisiana Conference, and stationed at Parker Chapel, New Orleans. At the end of three years he was moved to Algiers, where he served for four years. On October 27, 1897, he was married to Miss Alma Sawtelle, of New Orleans. From Algiers he was moved in 1899 to Louisiana Avenue, where he served three years. He began his pastorate at Homer, but before the end of his first year, in September, 1903, he was moved to Ruston, where he served four years. The following two years he was pastor at Minden, and in 1909-11 he served Monroe. He was appointed to the Lafayette District, which he served for a year and a half, but in the summer of 1913 he was called to the presidency of Centenary College, at Shreveport, where he served for six years. On his resignation from the Centenary presidency, he served a second pastorate of two years at Ruston. For four years, 1921-24, he served the Shreveport District. He served a five-year pastorate in Lake Charles, 1925-29. At the close of 1929 he was sent for a second time to Minden, where his second year had scarcely begun when painful and ominous symptoms developed which finally culminated in a brain tumor of unusual size. The tumor was successfully removed; but after several months of apparent improvement, the trouble returned, and at 1:15, on Christmas Day, 1931, from the Methodist Hospital, in Houston, Tex., his weary spirit passed into the Father's house above in time to join in the heavenly chorus, "Glory to God in the Highest." His mortal remains were laid away at Minden, La., on December 26, 1931. The services were conducted by W. R. Harvell, assisted by W. W. Holmes, George S. Sexton, A. S. Lutz, R. E. Smith, H. L. Johns, and R. W. Vaughan. The degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred on him in 1913. Four times he was elected to the General Conference, once leading the delegation. He served for years on the General Conference Board of Education.

Besides his wife, he leaves behind two daughters, Mrs. W. N. Blanton and Mrs. W. F. Allen, and one son, R. S. Wynn. He is also survived by four sisters and one brother.—W. W. Drake.

JOHN TALBOTT SAWYER was born at Ann Arbor, Mich., February 4, 1843, and came South with his parents at a very early age. After graduating from the public schools of New Orleans, he became principal of the old Magnolia School of that city, and subsequently graduated from the Law School of the University of Louisiana, being chosen valedictorian of his class. This was in 1871. Two years later the young lawyer felt the call to the ministry, gave up a promising career in the practice of law, and was admitted on trial into the Louisiana Conference. His ministry of nearly forty years covered the entire State of Louisiana. At the Conference of 1910 he took the superannuate relation. In 1877 he was united in marriage with Miss Elizabeth T. McKnight, and the union was blessed with three children, two of whom survive him, Mrs. Joseph Donaldson and John T. Sawyer. The closing years of his life were passed in the home of his daughter. He died July 12, 1932.—H. N. Harrison

JOHN F. PATTERSON was born in Natchez, Miss., February 15, 1841. He received his education in the same community. During the War between the States he was a private of artillery in the Confederate Army. He was a member of the Wade Hampton Chapter of the Confederate Veterans. He was married to Miss Martha Reeves Wren, of Minden, La., June 15, 1868. She preceded him to her heavenly home many years ago. Because of failing health, Brother Patterson superannuated many years ago, and made his home with his daughter in El Paso. He was received into full connection in the Louisiana Conference fifty-six years ago. He passed to his reward from the home of his daughter, Mrs. Seth Orndorf, in El Paso, Tex., Monday, May 2, 1932. Surviving Brother Patterson are two daughters, Mrs. Seth Orndorf and Mrs. Carrie P. Myers, and two sons, G. W. and H. T. Patterson, and a sister, Mrs. Carrie Eckhardt.—W. Angie Smith.

GEORGE DOWELL PURCELL, son of James S. and Fannie M. Cole Purcell, was born at Black Hawk, Miss., August 29, 1870, and ended life's journey at Shreveport, La., September 19, 1932. Funeral services were conducted at Noel Memorial Methodist Church in Shreveport, with interment at Plain Dealing, La. J. B. Williams, T. M. Brownlee, and W. H. Ledbetter were in charge. At the age of seventeen George Purcell was converted, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. He was licensed to preach at Black Hawk, La., November 19, 1892. For a few years he worked for his expenses and studied at Millsaps College. He came to Louisiana as junior preacher on the North Bossier Circuit under J. R. Roy, in 1897. At the close of the year he was admitted on trial into the Louisiana Conference. Bishop Morrison ordained him deacon in 1898, and Bishop Key ordained him elder in 1903. He served Wesley, Plain Dealing, Davis Springs, Bon Ami, Pelican, Oak Grove, Ida, South Mansfield, Columbia, Jena, Dubach, Ringgold, Lecompte, Boyce, Baker, Eunice, and Walker. On May 24, 1899, he was married to Miss Ella Browne, of Coushatta, La. Of this union there were six children, two of whom died in infancy. Four children, George, Jr., Herbert, Orie, and Mary (Mrs. J. G. LaBorde), and his widow survive. At the session of the Conference held in Monroe in 1931 he was superannuated and then made his home in Plain Dealing.—J. B. Williams.

Ques. 15. Who are the deacons of one year? Marvin Wallace Beadle, Harvey Benjamin Hysell, Willie DeWitt Milton, Virgil D. Morris, George William Pomeroy. 5.

Ques. 16. Who else is in the class of the fourth years? David Tarver, James William Sudduth. 2.

Ques. 17. What traveling preachers and what local preachers have been elected deacons? Traveling preachers, Razzie Ray Branton, Edwin Gustava Kaetzell, Allen Walter Townsend. 3. Local preachers, John William Harper, Alton Ausborne McKnight. 2.

Ques. 13. Who are transferred to other Conferences? W. O. Sadler, an elder, to the Mississippi Conference. 1.

Ques. 14. What preachers have died during the year? George E. Foskett, John F. Hill. 2.

GEORGE EPHRAIM FOSKETT, son of Hopkins and Mary Parsons Foskett, was born in South Egremont, Mass., April 4, 1847. When a child he removed with his parents to Louisville, Ky., where his mother died when George was but twelve years of age. He was placed by his father in school in Massachusetts, but was graduated from the Phillips Exeter Military Academy, in Exeter, N. H. Returning to Louisville, he first engaged with his father in carriage building, was later employed by the Lithgow Manufacturing Company, and still later taught in public schools at Utica, Ind., and Louisville, Ky. He was married on December 26, 1877, to Miss Mary Hunter, in the Broadway Church, Louisville, Dr. H. C. Morrison officiating. He was licensed to preach in June, 1871, but did not enter the itinerant work until the session of the Louisville Conference held at Cadiz, Ky., in 1878, Bishop Pierce presiding. He was received into full connection at Glasgow, in 1880, Bishop Kavanaugh presiding. Brother Foskett was popular as a pastor and always greatly beloved. Three times he was pastor of the West Broadway Church, Louisville, and twice of the Church in Jeffersonville. He entered the superannuate relation at Campbellsville in 1924, and removed to Louisville from Cadiz, which church, the one in which he had been received on trial in 1878, he served as pastor during the last four years of his active ministry. He died October 11, 1931, leaving to mourn his passing his beloved wife and two sons with their wives and hosts of friends.—E. F. Goodson.

JOHN FRANCIS HILL, son of John William and Mary Elizabeth Hill, was born in Allen County, Ky., November 24, 1871. His boyhood days were spent in his native county. Here he was educated and at an early age professed faith in Christ, uniting with the Methodist Church at Stony Point. In 1909 he was married to Miss Julia Bevvie Ellis, and to this union two children were born. Only one survives, his daughter, Miss Bevvie Ellis Hill. For about twenty-five years Brother Hill taught in some of the high schools in Southern Kentucky and in Tennessee. Some years ago he was impressed that it was his duty to take up the work of the ministry. His first service was to fill the vacancy in the Crofton Circuit caused by the death of J. H. Richardson. He also served the following charges: Greenville Circuit, Stanley, Bradfordsville Circuit, East Franklin Circuit, Cadiz Circuit, Beech Grove Circuit, and Rochester Circuit. He was admitted on trial into the Conference during the session at Owensboro in 1925, and was received into full connection at Madisonville in 1928. ANTHONY J. MEADERS, son of James J. and Ann Elizabeth Reynolds Meaders, was born March 2, 1857, in Banks County, Ga. He was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in his eighth year. About this time his family moved to Marshall County, Miss. At eighteen years of age he was teaching in the public schools of his State. He was licensed to preach at twenty years of age, and did some work as a supply in the North Mississippi Conference. He spent the next eight years of his life working, attending school, and teaching. He was for two years a student of the Jackson District High School at Montezuma, Tenn. At the date of his admission into this Conference he had been for three years principal of the Dyersburg District High School at Munford, Tenn. He was married to Miss Ann Eliza McCracken at Newbern, Tenn., on July 9, 1884. To this union was born one son, James R. Meaders, who with his mother, survives. At the session of our Conference at Paducah, Ky., in 1885, Brother Meaders was admitted on trial and ordained local deacon by Bishop Hargrove. He was admitted into full connection in 1888 at Paris, Tenn. In 1890 at Dyersburg, Tenn., he was ordained elder. He was a delegate to our General Conference in 1902, and again in 1914. He was elected statistical secretary of the Conference in 1888 and served until 1894, when he was elected Secretary of the Conference, in which capacity he served until he was appointed to the presiding eldership in 1913. He served the following charges: Henning Circuit, Huntingdon, Dresden, Collierville, Covington, Paris, Dyersburg, Trenton, Martin, Fulton, Brownsville District, Memphis District, Madison Heights, Murray, Whiteville, Henderson, Bardwell and Wickliffe, Barlow Station, and Sharon and Mount Vernon. He came to Conference last year apparently able to continue his ministry. He was serving as Chairman of our Board of Finance at the Conference at Union Avenue, Memphis, Tenn., when he was suddenly stricken, left the Conference room, and never returned. The end came peacefully on November 21, 1931. His brethren paid the last tributes of respect at the Union Avenue Church, and the body was laid to rest in Memorial Park Cemetery.—S. L. Jewell.

RICHARD HUGH PIGUE, the eldest of three sons and four daughters born to Harrison G. and Martha J. Pigue, was born in Butler County, Ky., November 3, 1857, and passed to his reward on November 18, 1931. He was educated in the common schools and in McTyeire Institute. At the age of seventeen years he was soundly converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Bethlehem on the Water Valley Circuit in the Memphis Conference. He was licensed to preach at Walnut Grove in 1882 by the Quarterly Conference of Water Valley Circuit. Being recommended by the Quarterly Conference of McKenzie Station of the Paris District, he was received on trial into the Memphis Conference at Memphis, Tenn., on December 1, 1884. Brother Pigue received his first appointment at the hands of Bishop Keener on December 8, 1884, to Conyersville Circuit. He served the following charges: New Providence Circuit, three years; Woodville Circuit, three years; Hinkelville Circuit, one year; Murray, three years; Spring Hill, four years; Newbern, two years; Gadsden and Gibson, two years; Ashport Circuit, one year; Agent for Superannuate Endowment Fund, one year; Fulton Station, one year; Arlington Circuit, two years; Fulton Circuit, four years; Munford, one year; Friendship Circuit, two years; LaCenter Circuit, two years; South Fulton Circuit, four years; Water Valley Circuit, two years; Hazel Circuit, five years. On November 15, 1930, he was granted the superannuate relation. He died at his home, "Pilgrim's Rest," near Pleasant Grove Methodist Church in Calloway County, Ky. He was buried in the cemetery near that church. Brother Pigue was married first to Miss Virginia Ella Hooper of Tennessee, who died several years ago. To this union were born nine sons: Marvin H., William W., Robert W., Muncie M., Robley L., Richard Hugh, Jr., Warren W., Paul W., and Sid W. Pigue. He was later married to Mrs. Nellie Swan, who survives him. He was editor and publisher of The Methodist, which had a great circulation for several years.

He was a delegate to the General Conference in 1914.—Charles C. Bell.

JOHN WALLACE JOYNER, son of W. Henry and Mary E. Forbes Joyner, was born July 8, 1868, in Tipton County, Tennessee, and was called from labor to refreshing rest January 31, 1932. On November 1, 1888, he was married to Minnie Lois Easley and to this union nine children were born: Lottie, Bessie, Joe, Mary, John, Robert, Gladys, Geneva, and James. Mrs. Joyner died on June 14, 1923. On November 18, 1928, he was married to Loula Magola Coleman. He was converted in early manhood and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and some years later he felt the call to preach. For thirty-seven years he received appointments at the hands of the bishop and the cabinet of the Memphis Annual Conference. He had five four-year pastorates, and only one one-year pastorate. He was superannuated in 1929 and moved to Troy, Tenn., where he spent the remainder of his life. On the evening of January 31, 1932, his spirit slipped away to be forever with the Lord. On February 2, 1932, his funeral was conducted in our church at Troy, Tenn., by W. Q. Scruggs and the writer of this memoir. We were assisted by the following brethren: W. B. Ralph, W. F. Cooley, L. R. Neil, O. C. Wrather, Syl Fisher, J. T. Bagby, and C. B. Clayton. His body rests in Terrace Hill Cemetery, Troy, Tenn.—F. B. Jones.

JOSEPH SIMEON CARL, son of Jacob Ely and Mary Norman Carl, was born in Woodruff County, Arkansas, June 20, 1858. In his eighteenth year he was converted and at once united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Oakland, Tenn. After finishing his school work in Fayette County he attended Vanderbilt University for one year. Brother Carl was licensed to preach at Antioch Church in Fayette County near Oakland, Tenn., on June 16, 1880. He was admitted on trial into the Memphis Annual Conference on November 11 of the same year at Trenton, Tenn., and at this same Conference was transferred to the Little Rock Conference, where he spent three years in service. On April 20, 1883, he was transferred to the Tennessee Conference, and after serving two charges in this Conference he located at the Conference held at Columbia, Tenn., October 7, 1885. He was readmitted into the Memphis Conference held at Jackson, Tenn., on December 3, 1886. He served the following charges: Bethel Springs Circuit, Mifflin Circuit, Sugar Tree Circuit, Belmont Circuit, Benton Circuit, Oak Level Circuit, Milburn Circuit, Pryorsburg Circuit. On November 17, 1900, at the Conference held at Martin, Tenn., he located again. He was readmitted at the Conference held in Dyersburg, Tenn., November 13, 1901. After this he served the following charges: Curve and Ashport, Trimble Circuit, Kirksey Circuit, Atwood Circuit, Pinson Circuit, Bethany Circuit, Bradford Circuit, Ralston Circuit, Columbus Circuit, Gadsden Circuit, Dancyville Circuit, and Belmont Circuit. He was granted the superannuate relation on November 18, 1928. Brother Carl was three times married: first on October 20, 1887, to Miss Lula Hendrix, of Selmer, Tenn. To this union five children were born, three of whom survive: H. N. Carl, Mrs. D. A. Stephens, and Mrs. J. L. Arrington. This wife died June 24, 1897. His second marriage was to Miss Lillie Wilkerson, of Graves County, Kentucky, on December 25, 1899. To this union six children were born, four of whom survive: Mrs. D. L. Griffey, Mrs. A. T. Moore, James, and W. J. Carl. This wife died on December 21, 1922. His third marriage was to Mrs. Vera Jones, of Camden, Tenn., on July 31, 1924. This wife was called to her reward on February 18, 1926. One sister, Miss Addie Carl, also survives him. After several months of failing health, Brother Carl passed quietly away from us on February 28, 1932. On Monday, February 29, he was carried to Brown's Church near Jackson, Tenn., and after funeral services conducted by this writer, assisted by Ray Pafford, W. W. Henley, W. D. Jenkins, and Fred H. Peebles, he was laid to rest in the country cemetery near the church.—Eugene M. Mathis.

CALEB LEE SMITH, son of Edward and Sarah Herndon Smith, was born May 19, 1868, in Winston County, Ala. He lived in the county of his birth until the age of sixteen, at which time he moved with his parents to McNairy County, Tenn. His father was for four years an officer in the Confederate Army and surrendered the Twenty-First Georgia Regiment at Appomattox Court House when the conflict closed. Brother Smith was educated in the various public schools in the communities where he lived and in the Bethel Springs Academy, Bethel Springs, Tenn. He was reared in the Missionary Baptist faith, united with the Church in young manhood, and did his first preaching there. He was ordained elder in the Missionary Baptist Church in the fall of 1893 by his father-in-law, J. M. Deatherage, assisted by two other ministers of this denomination. On the first Sunday night in May, 1894, he united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, on the Shiloh Circuit, Memphis Conference, under the ministry of W. T. Elmore. For six years after coming to the Methodist Church he went to school, taught school, and worked as a local preacher. He was admitted on trial into the Memphis Conference in November, 1900, at Martin, Tenn., Bishop Hoss presiding. He was ordained elder by Bishop Key on November 20, 1904, Jackson, Tenn. He served the following circuits in the Memphis Conference: Ramer, Fowlkes, Maury City, and West Paris. He began his station work with a quadrennium at Olive Street, which became Parkway Church, Memphis, Tenn., during his pastorate there. This was followed by another quadrennium at Trinity Church, Jackson, Tenn. He served Dresden Station, Lambuth Memorial Church (Jackson), Huntingdon Station, Henderson Station, Bells and Alamo, and Bolivar. On November 15, 1888, he was married to Miss Nancy Tennessee Deatherage, of near Corinth, Miss. They reared two adopted children, Guy Smith and Mrs. Edna Laughlin. Sister Smith left for her eternal home on July 17, 1927. Brother Smith was married to Miss Bettie Ingram, of Selmer, Tenn., February 8, 1928. On Saturday night, April 30, 1932, he again looked over his sermons for the next day and said, "Now my work is all ready for Sunday." At six o'clock Sunday morning the stroke came, and thirty minutes later he passed on. Funeral services, in charge of F. H. Peebles, assisted by W. D. Jenkins, W. W. Adams, G. T. Sellars, and E. L. Robinson, were held on Monday, May 2, in the church at Bolivar, Tenn., followed by interment in the Selmer, Tenn., Cemetery.—J. E. Underwood.

LOUIS D. HAMILTON, son of Rev. E. E. and Annie E. Hamilton, was born at Paris, Tenn., July 30, 1862. He was converted, as a mere boy, while his father was conducting family prayers. He was married to Miss Portia Lee Hayes on July 7, 1887. To this union five children were born, all of whom survive: Mrs. G. H. Boyles, Mrs. Ray Flowers, Mrs. Albert T. Ajax, Wilbur H. and William W. Hamilton. Brother Hamilton passed through the State schools where his father was pastor, spent three years in Union University and one year in the Law School of Vanderbilt University. He located in Dyersburg, where he practiced law for ten years. He was admitted on trial into the Memphis Conference on December 1, 1893, into full connection November 16, 1895, ordained deacon November 14, 1895, and elder November 18, 1897. He served many of the leading stations in the Conference and was presiding elder for twelve years. Brother Hamilton died in the home of a relative at Houston, Miss., on July 22, 1932. On July 24 his body was brought back to Dyersburg and from the Methodist Church, after services by R. L. Norman, Fred H. Peebles, and W. W. Armstrong, he was borne to the resting place of his father to wait the coming of the Lord.—W. F. Maxedon.

CARROLL B. MOUNT.—With deep sorrow the Memphis Conference records the death from drowning of Carroll B. Mount, one of our medical missionaries in Africa. Dr. Mount's paternal grandmother was a sister of Bishop Keener. His maternal grandfather was Judge T. J. Flippin. His father was Carroll B. Mount, Sr. His mother, Mrs. Shallie F. Mount, and his sister, Miss Sophie Mount, still live in Memphis. First Methodist Church of Memphis recommended Dr. Mount for license to preach and he was admitted into this Conference in November, 1927, at the session held at Union Avenue Church, Memphis. He served as helper in the First Church, Memphis, while completing his studies in medicine at the University of Tennessee. After he finished his medical course and received his diploma, First Church, Memphis, adopted him as its own missionary and sent him to Africa. On February 23, 1932, Dr. Mount was married to Miss Helen Farrier, a co-worker in that mission field. She has decided to remain there in order to help carry on her husband's unfinished work. Dr. Mount was buried at Minga Station, near the hospital where his life work began and ended. His friend and co-worker, Dr. Lewis, officiated at his funeral.—G. C. Clark.

HENRY WALTER FEATHERSTUN, son of Rev. Francis Marion and Mary Eliza Rundell Featherstun, was born July 10, 1849, in Warren County, Miss., and departed this life at Jackson, Miss., on Sunday afternoon, July 24, 1932. Four years after his birth his father entered the Mississippi Conference, and for more than three-quarters of a century his home was in the "moving tents" of Israel's advancing hosts. Dr. Featherstun became a local preacher at the early age of eighteen years. Preparing for the ministry, he attended Dr. Abernathy's private school near Clarksville, Tenn. He was admitted into the traveling connection of the Methodist ministry at the Mississippi Conference held at Meridian in December, 1871. Bishop Kavanaugh presided over this Conference and ordained him a local deacon on Sunday, December 17, 1871. Two years later, having completed the four years' Conference course in two years, he was ordained traveling elder by Bishop Wightman at Brandon on Sunday, December 14, 1873. His first appointment was Rolling Fork, where he remained two years, and was then sent to Brookhaven. While he was pastor at Brookhaven he was married to Miss Emily Edwards White, of Vicksburg, Dr. Charles K. Marshall performing the ceremony. God blessed their home with seven children. One died in infancy, and two others, Mrs. Emmie May Vaughan and Mrs. Juliette Featherstun Flemming, have likewise preceded him to the Father's House. With his wife those of his immediate family who remain are: Mrs. H. F. Tatum, Walter M. Featherstun, Mrs. J. Morgan Stevens, Mrs. L. B. McLaurin, a sister, Mrs. Irene Phillips, and a half sister, Miss Mamie Featherstun. His grandson, H. W. F. Vaughan, bears the honor of the ministry in which he wrought so well. His brother, Lewis R. Featherstun, the father of Mrs. J. T. Leggett, entered rest at the parsonage in Yuba City, Calif., October 1, 1883, and his father, Francis Marion Featherstun, died at Woodville, Miss., January 30, 1891. While he was pastor in California, his mother and seven children of his father's household died with yellow fever during the terrible epidemic at Vicksburg in 1878. His appointments were as follows: Rolling Fork, 1872-73; Brookhaven, 1874; Rolling Fork, 1875-76. In 1876 he transferred to California and served

Santa Ana, San Luis Obispo, Carpinteria, and Sacramento, in the Los Angeles and Pacific Conferences. Returning to Mississippi, he was assigned to Summit in 1884. In the fall of 1884 he opened Kavanaugh College at Holmesville and remained its president until 1890, when he became president of Edward McGehee College for Women at Woodville, Miss., where he remained until the Conference of 1894. Three years of his presidency of the school at Woodville he was also pastor of the local Methodist church, succeeding his father as pastor in 1891. After eleven years of school work he returned to the full-time pastoral ministry, and was at Yazoo City, 1895-96; Central, Meridian, 1897-98; Brookhaven District, 1899-1900; Moss Point, 1901-02; Main Street, Hattiesburg, 1903-04; Crystal Springs, 1905-06; Columbia, 1907-08; Natchez District, 1909-11; Newton, 1912; Newton District, 1913-14; Port Gibson, 1915-18; Utica, 1919; Waynesboro, 1920-21; Bay St. Louis, 1922. At the Conference held in Crystal Springs on December 2, 1922, he was placed on the superannuate roll. He was a delegate to the General Conferences held at Memphis, Tenn., in 1894, and at Asheville, N. C., in 1910. He served on the General Epworth League Board. He was an author of ability, contributed valuable articles to the Church press, and his books, "Christ and Our Poets" and "Christ and Our Novelists," had a wide sale. The funeral services were conducted from the Galloway Memorial Church, Jackson, on July 26, by J. T. Leggett, who was assisted by B. F. Jones, J. G. Galloway, J. A. Smith, and J. L. Decell.—J. L. Decell.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN LEWIS, son of Rev. W. B. and Alice Jones Lewis, was born on the Redlands plantation in Jefferson County, Miss., October 30, 1863, and died at Jackson, Miss., December 17, 1931. He attended Centenary College, Jackson, La., and Vanderbilt University. At the age of twenty he was admitted on trial by the Mississippi Annual Conference which was held at Natchez, December 12-18, 1883. Bishop McTyeire ordained him deacon at Meridian in 1885, and Bishop Keener ordained him elder at Jackson on December 18, 1887. His appointments were as follows: Kingston, 1884; Bayou Pierre, 1885; Adams, 1886; Summit, 1887-88; Wesley Chapel, Natchez, 1889; Jackson, Capitol Street, 1890-91. The first session of the Mississippi Conference over which Bishop Galloway presided Brother Lewis was assigned to West Jackson. In 1892 he was assistant editor of the New Orleans Christian Advocate. In 1893-94 he was pastor at East End, Meridian; Woodville, 1895-97; Brandon, 1898-99; Laurel and Ellisville, 1900. In 1901 he was at Forest; Magnolia, 1902-03; Canton, 1904-07; Bay St. Louis, 1908; Columbia, 1909-12; Crystal Springs, 1913-15; Hazlehurst, 1916; Canton, 1917; during this year he was elected manager of the orphanage, which position he filled for fourteen years. During his pastorate at Wesley Chapel, Natchez, he was married to Miss Mary Frances Otken, of Summit, Miss. T. L. Mellen, his Conference classmate, performed the ceremony on July 30, 1889. Their home was blessed with three children, Arthur, Roger L., and Miss Evelyn Lewis. His mother (Mrs. Alice Jones Lewis), three sisters (Mrs D. W. Jones, Mrs. Robert S. Ridgway, and Mrs. Laurie Harrell), two brothers (W. H. and W. B. Lewis), and an uncle (B. F. Jones) are the immediate relatives who survive. For twelve years he was Chaplain of the Third Mississippi Regiment, and inaugurated the work of the Y. M. C. A. in the Mississippi National Guard. He was president of the Church-Wide Orphanage Association of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and president of the Conference Hospital Board at the time of his death. The funeral services were conducted from the Capitol Street Church on Saturday afternoon, December 19, by J. T. Leggett, assisted by W. M. Sullivan, W. T. Griffin, J. A. Smith, J. C. Chambers, and J. L. Decell. His body was left in Lakewood Memorial Park Cemetery to await the resurrection morn.—J. L. Decell.

WILLIAM GIBSON FORSYTH, son of Rev. and Mrs. James L. Forsyth, was born at Canton, Miss., August 3, 1856. He entered Centenary College, at Jackson, La., when a young man. After completing his collegiate course he taught school for several years, then entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. On November 1, 1888, Brother Forsyth was married to Miss Mary, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. H. D. Howell. A little more than a month later he was admitted on trial into the Mississippi Conference, at Vicksburg, Miss. He was granted the superannuate relation at Jackson, Miss., during the 1927 session of the Conference. On July 21, 1929, Sister Forsyth laid down the burdens of this life and went away to rest. Brother Forsyth spent the remainder of his days in the home of his daughter, Mrs. L. B. Fairbanks, of Sumrall and Hattiesburg, until his last illness, when he was removed to the Methodist Hospital in Hattiesburg, where, on March 1, 1932, he went to join the ransomed throng. The funeral services were held in Main Street Church, Hattiesburg, Miss., with W. A. Hays officiating, assisted by R. H. Clegg, W. J. Ferguson, L. L. Roberts, and W. T. Griffin, after which his body was conveyed to the New City Cemetery in Hattiesburg, and tenderly laid away to await the resurrection call. The following children were born to Brother and Sister Forsyth: James Howell, Joseph Fountain (who died at the age of 18 months), Lurlene (Mrs. L. B. Fairbanks), William Gibson, Jr., Mrs. Nannie Mae Montgomery. Brother Forsyth served the following charges: 1889-90, Silver Creek, 1891, Mount Olivet; 1892, Bay St. Louis; 1893, Heidelberg; 1894, Estabutchie; 1895-98, Pearlinton and Logtown; 1899, Biloxi; 1900-01, Adams; 1902-03, Glosster; 1904, Centerville; 1905-06, Fayette; 1907, Utica; 1908-09, Harrison; 1910-13, Waynesboro; 1914, Mount Olive; 1915, Edwards; 1916-19, Pascagoula and Ocean Springs; 1920-21, Bay St. Louis; 1922, Enterprise; 1923, Heidelberg; 1924-26, Sumrall; 1927, Long Beach; superannuated at the Conference of 1927.—J. E. Gray.

PATRICK HENRY HOWSE was born at Butler, Ala., December 7, 1859, and died at the home of his daughter in Jackson, Miss., on July 6, 1932. His body was carried to Laurel, Miss., where the funeral service was conducted in the First Methodist Church by this writer, assisted by W. M. Sullivan, C. A. Schultz, L. L. Roberts, W. A. Hayes, and W. H. Lewis. The active pallbearers were J. L. Decell, O. S. Lewis, J. A. Smith, T. O. Pruitt, and A. B. Barry, with C. A. Schultz serving as body escort. Brother Howse was the son of Buckner James and Jane Graham Howse, of Butler, Ala., and moved to Citronelle, Ala., at the age of sixteen, where he was converted and joined the Baptist Church. He was teacher of a Bible class at Winchester, where he met Miss Frances Lucia Jones, whom he afterward married. Ten children were the fruit of this marriage, eight of whom survive him. Soon after this marriage, in 1884, he joined the Methodist Church at Winchester, Miss., under the ministry of Robert Selby. Brother Howse was a railroad man before he entered the ministry, working first in the track division as section foreman on the M. & O. R. R., and was later transferred to the train division, and served as fireman for some time, from Mobile to Tupelo. He was promoted to the position of engineer, but declined the position. He was licensed to preach in 1886, and entered the Daleville College to better prepare himself for the ministry, where he remained as student and teacher until 1889. He joined the Mississippi Conference at Crystal Springs in December, 1889, and was assigned to Pleasant Grove charge. He was ordained a deacon by Bishop Hendrix at Brookhaven, on December 13, 1891, and elder by Bishop Key at Meridian, on December 10, 1893. He served the following charges: Pleasant Grove, State Line, Chunky, Meadville, Wilkinson, Walnut Grove, Neshoba, Daleville, Topisaw, Caseyville, Howison and Saucier, Carriere and McNeil, district evangelist three years, Seminary, McLain, Ellisville, Prentiss, Silver Creek, Avery, Heidelberg, and Shiloh, at which place his health and his strength failed, and he asked for superannuation in 1930.—W. W. Graves.

GEORGE WASHINGTON HUFF was born in Amite County, Miss., January 18, 1855, and passed into the beyond from his home in Coalville, Miss., on Friday afternoon, October 14, 1932. His body was laid to rest in the community cemetery on Sunday afternoon, October 16, after funeral services had been held in the Coalville Church by Otto Porter, assisted by Louis Fayard, J. C. Jackson, and the writer. Brother Huff was born and reared in a Christian home. His father was N. L. Huff, local deacon, and his mother was Miss Jane Mildred Collingsworth. On May 8, 1878, George Huff was married to Miss Jane Seale, of Franklin County. Two years after his marriage he was genuinely converted under the ministry of W. W. Simmons. On October 20, 1886, he was licensed to exhort, the papers being signed by John A. B. Jones, presiding elder of the Woodville District. November 10, 1888, Brother Huff was licensed to preach, and this paper is signed by John A. Ellis, presiding elder, and John V. Cassels, secretary. Brother Huff was admitted into the Mississippi Conference on trial at Natchez in December, 1892, and at the same session of the Conference he was ordained local preacher by Bishop Granbery, the papers being dated December 18. It was exactly ten years later when he was ordained elder in the same church and in the same city with Bishop Key presiding and signing the ordination papers, which are dated December 14, 1902. Brother Huff's first appointment was as supply on the Livingston Mission, where he spent the whole of 1891. That fall he was appointed junior preacher, supply, under J. W. Sandell, on his home circuit. The next year he was admitted on trial, ordained local deacon, and appointed pastor in charge of his home circuit. His other appointments were as follows: Vancleave, 1894-95; Escatawpa, 1896-98; Coalville, 1899-1902; Winchester, 1903-04; Bucatunna, 1905; Eastabuchie, 1906-09; Magee, 1910. Failing health led him to ask that he be sent back near his farm in Amite County. This request was granted, and he served the Homochitto Circuit during 1911. His health had not improved, and at the Conference held in Meridian that fall he asked for superannuation and moved to his farm to try to build up his strength. He remained there only one year, then, feeling that the climatic conditions around Hattiesburg might be better for him, he moved there, where he lived for about five years, doing such preaching as he was able. At the Conference in Vicksburg in 1917 he was appointed to the De Soto circuit in the Meridian District. But his strength was not what he had hoped, and it was necessary for him to give up this work in the summer of 1918 and return to his home near Hattiesburg, where he remained for about a year, when he decided to move to Coalville, on Biloxi River, just north of the coast. Here he lived for the last fourteen years of his earthly pilgrimage. Eight children came to bless his home. Four of them preceded him into the Glory Land. The wife of his youth and four children live to revere his memory.

They are Mrs. E. B. Brown, Mrs. E. I. Boyd, John C. and Clarence C. Huff.—J. L. Neill.

CHARLES HOWARD HERRING, son of John and Matilda Herring, was born in Franklin County, near Meadville, Miss., June 5, 1865. On December 23, 1891, Brother Herring was married to Miss Coreen Little. To this union five children were born. Three of them came into the home to tarry but a short time. Two sons, Clifford and Marion, with their mother, remain on earth to mourn the loss of a loved one gone. Early in life Brother Herring surrendered himself to God and joined the Methodist Church. For several years he was a local preacher, serving as supply at Edinburg in 1905, and at Hub in 1906. In December, 1906, he was admitted on trial into the Mississippi Conference at Laurel, Miss., at which time and place he was ordained deacon by Bishop Ward. He was ordained elder at Hazlehurst by Bishop Morrison in December, 1912. He served the following charges: Hub, 1907-08; Nebo, 1909-10; Adams, 1911; Amite, 1912-13; Woodville Circuit, 1914-16; Harrisville, 1917-18; Roxie, 1919; Nebo, 1920-22; Walnut Grove, 1923; Trenton, 1924-25; Ecutta, 1926-28; Williamsburg, 1929; Matherville, 1930-31. At the Mississippi Conference which was held at Columbia, Miss., he was appointed to Mentor Circuit, where he served till his death, which occurred at the Methodist Hospital in Hattiesburg, Miss., August 4, 1932.—T. J. O'Neil.

WILLIAM WALKER NELSON was born at Toccopola, Miss., December 25, 1882, and died March 20, 1932. He attended the public schools of his home county, and after finishing the grammar grades he entered Beeson's College at Meridian, Miss. On August 30, 1904, he was married to Miss Annie Wells, sister of J. A. Wells. She died two years later. On November 1, 1908, he was married to Miss Clara McDonald. Three sons were born to them, Kleiser, William, and Walter Reece, the youngest of whom, on October 25, 1932, went to live with his father in the glory land. Brother Nelson was admitted on trial into the Mississippi Conference at Brookhaven, Miss., in December, 1909. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Morrison at Hazlehurst, December 15, 1912, and elder at Columbia, December 13, 1914, by Bishop Denny. He served the following charges: North Kemper Circuit, 1910-13; Pleasant Grove, 1914-16; Scotland, 1917-20; Foxworth, 1921; Adams, 1922-23; Georgetown, 1924-26; Vancleave, 1927. At the Mississippi Conference held at Jackson, November 9-13, 1927, he was appointed by Bishop Candler to the Montrose charge, but his health was so badly impaired that he never went to Montrose, but asked for the superannuate relation, in which relation he continued until January, 1931, when he was restored to the effective ranks of the ministry and appointed to the Edwards charge. In November, 1931, he was moved from Edwards to the Lauderdale and Electric Mills charge, where he served till the time of his death. On Monday afternoon, March 21, 1932, the body was laid to rest in Bay Springs Cemetery, the writer officiating, aided by W. M. Sullivan, J. W. Thompson, L. J. Snelgrove, and H. E. Raley.—T. J. O'Neil.

Ques. 14. What preachers have died during the year? C. H. Newman, J. M. Boon, M. H. Moore, A. B. Coffman, J. O. Whitworth, T. A. Allison, Vada Davis. 7.

C. H. NEWMAN was born near Osborn, DeKalb County, Mo., May 23, 1858. For a number of years he was a student in Central College and later took special work in the Theological Department of Vanderbilt University. In the earlier part of his life he taught school.

For a period of years he was President of Viola Academy, Viola, Ark. In 1898 Brother Newman was admitted on trial into the White River Conference. He served the following charges: Mount View, Destra, Sulphur Rock, Black Rock, and Manyard Circuits. He was transferred to the Missouri Conference in 1910 and served the Triplett, DeWitt, Chillicothe, and Milan Circuits. During his active ministry he gave twenty-one years of faithful service. On account of ill health he was superannuated in 1919. On November 12, 1891, he was united in marriage to Miss Susie C. Franks of Viola, Ark. Eight children were born to this union, seven of whom survive: Hendrix, Mrs. Nora A. James, Bernice, Horace, Hays, Charles, and Audrey. Besides these he left behind to mourn his going his faithful companion. Funeral services were conducted by D. K. Pegues, assisted by J. N. Boyd and M. L. Gray, on Thursday, September 3, 1931, in our Elm Street Church at Chillicothe. His body was laid to rest in Edgewood Cemetery, Chillicothe.—C. J. Dohn.

JAMES MARTIN BOON was born April 6, 1847, in Memphis, Tenn., the son of Benjamin F. and Martha Slaughter Boon, both of whom were members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. He was converted August 12, 1870, in a meeting at Kosciusko, Miss., conducted by P. H. Johnston and Charles B. Galloway. He almost immediately felt the call to preach and on September 3, 1870, he was licensed to preach by the Quarterly Conference of the Kosciusko Circuit and was recommended for admission on trial. He was received on trial into the North Mississippi Conference in November, 1870, F. M. Featherstun, presiding elder, and Bishop Kavanaugh presiding. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Kavanaugh at the Conference held in Columbus, Miss., December 3, 1871. He was ordained elder by Bishop Paine at Grenada, Miss., November 30, 1873. He served nine charges and one district in North Mississippi and nine charges and one district in the Southwest Missouri Conference. In 1902 he was transferred to the Missouri Conference and served four charges and two districts. The charges he served in the Missouri Conference were Sturgeon, Clarksville, Carrollton, and Palmyra, and the St. Charles and Chillicothe Districts. In 1919 he took the superannuate relation and moved to Arizona, where he served two charges, Bowie and Liberty. Later he went to Pomona, Calif., where he also served seven months as supply for a sick brother. Brother Boon was married June 3, 1873, to Miss Sara E. Chew. Two daughters blessed their home. Had he lived a few months longer he would have celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of his entering the ministry, his sixtieth wedding anniversary, and the sixtieth anniversary of his initiation into the Masonic fraternity. His widow and two daughters, Mrs. R. L. Alexander and Mrs. W. E. Taylor, and their children and grandchildren survive him. On January 26, 1932, at Pomona, Calif., he went up the shining way. His pastor, Howard Strickland, assisted by W. J. Sims, Cecil M. Aker, and S. M. Cheek, paid tributes to his memory. His Masonic brethren with words of faith and tokens of immortality laid his body to rest in the Pomona Cemetery.—Charles O. Ransford.

MATTHEW HENRY MOORE was born in Warren County, N. C., October 31, 1857, and died at Weaverville, N. C., April 6, 1932. He was admitted on trial into the old North Carolina Conference at the Annual Conference of 1878, Bishop Pierce presiding. After eleven years of service in that Conference, he transferred to the Denver Conference at the request of Bishop Granbery, and served the Pueblo and Trinidad churches. As the high altitude was unfavorable to his health, he came to the St. Louis Conference, where he served West Plains, the Charleston District, and Wagoner Place Church, St. Louis. He then transferred to the Missouri Conference, to which he gave twenty-five years of active service as pastor at Columbia, Moberly, Carrollton, St. Joseph District, Chillicothe, Macon District, Liberty, and Plattsburg. He was a close student and read extensively. He wrote numerous sketches for our Church papers and for The Quarterly Review. He was an authority on the history of Methodism in North Carolina. In addition to his book on "Pioneers of Methodism in North Carolina and Virginia," he published in the Asheville Citizen a series of articles on the early days of Methodism in Western North Carolina. The funeral was conducted from the Weaverville Methodist Church. The pastor, A. P. Ratledge, was assisted by the local pastors of other churches, and by W. A. Lambeth, pastor of Central Methodist Episcopal Church, South, of Asheville. The active pallbearers were students of Weaver College. At the request of the family, only the Church Ritual was used, with three favorite hymns of the deceased, "Abide with Me," "O Love That Wilt Not Let Me Go," and "How Firm a Foundation." The body was laid to rest in a beautiful spot in the outskirts of Weaverville overlooking two mountain ranges. Dr. Lambeth read the committal service.—A. P. Ratledge.

A. B. COFFMAN was born September 7, 1870, near Bucklin, Mo., and died April 22, 1932, at Fairfax, Mo. In 1899 he was married to Miss Villa Bond, at Hybred, Mo. The following children brought high hopes to the parents: Harold, Andrew, Ann, Effie, Marie, Linnie, Helen, and Margaret. Ann and Andrew died in early childhood. Harold died at Browning, where he was minister in charge. Brother Coffman was the youngest of seven children. He was converted at the age of twenty years under the preaching of Bishop William A. Quayle at Chillicothe. For eight years he was engaged in the teaching profession. After serving as Secretary of the Conference Sunday School Board for two years, he entered the active ministry and was appointed to Huntsville Circuit. Two years he served this work. The next appointment was to the Columbia Circuit. From this charge he went to Wilkes Boulevard, Columbia, where he built a fine new church. His next appointment was Avondale; from there he went to Polo. He began a monumental work in North Kansas City which resulted in the organization of three congregations; three churches also were built. West Park, Moberly, was his next charge, and there he succeeded in removing a debt of $4,000 and secured a $7,000 parsonage. His last appointment was Fairfax. On this charge he was stricken in the pulpit with the sickness which resulted in his death nineteen days later. Funeral services were conducted at 4 P.M. in Fairfax, April 23, and in Liberty on April 24, at 1:30 P.M. The writer was in charge of all the services.—V. O. White.

J. O. WHITWORTH was born near Columbia, Mo., December 31, 1863. He grew to manhood on the farm. He was converted in early life. He was licensed to preach and recommended for admission from the Fayette District; and admitted on trial at the Conference held at Mexico in September, 1887, Bishop Hendrix presiding. His first appointment was as junior preacher on the Jameson Circuit under S. B. Tabor. On September 5, 1889, he was married to Miss Rose Dusky, of Jameson. To them were born four children: Charles, Jack, and William Whitworth, and Mrs. E. L. Padgett. The wife and children all survive him. For several years Brother Whitworth had been in failing health, and at the Annual Conference held at Shelby in 1928 he took the superannuate relation, and he and his family continued to reside in Edinburg where he had served three years as pastor. Though he had long been in failing health, death came unexpectedly the early morning of Saturday, May 20, 1932. Funeral services were conducted at Edinburg by Forrest Richards, J. N. Boyd, T. P. Middleton, and C. E. Yoes. He was laid to rest in the Odd Fellows' Cemetery in Edinburg.—W. P. Wynn.

THOMAS ASHLEY ALLISON was for thirty-seven years a member of the Missouri Annual Conference. He passed to his reward on the afternoon of June 29, 1932, from his home in Hannibal. Brother Allison was a native of Ray County and was born March 29, 1865. He grew to manhood in Ray County and in 1889 was married to Miss Laura Kincaid at Orrick, Mo. For eight years he taught in the rural schools. He entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Richmond in 1895. During his ministry he served the following charges: New Hampton, Eagleville, Breckenridge, Kearney and Holt, Union Star, Shelbyna Circuit, Edina, Gorin, LaBelle, Kahoka, New Franklin, Cowgill Circuit, New London and Hydesburg, Higbee, Fairfax and Rupe's Grove, Palmyra Circuit, and Hundley Church, St. Joseph. He continued in the work in spite of failing health until the fall of 1930 when he was granted the superannuate relation, but the following year, at the urgent request of V. O. White, presiding elder of the St. Joseph District, he supplied Hundley Church, St. Joseph. Brother Allison had purchased a home in Hannibal, where he and Mrs. Allison had hoped to spend the remainder of their days. They both identified themselves with the work of Park Methodist Church and he acted as superintendent of the Adult Department of the Sunday school while Mrs. Allison taught in the school. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Laura Allison, two daughters, and three sons. A fourth son died during the World War, in Camp Dix while in the service of his country. Funeral services were conducted in Park Methodist Church, Hannibal, June 30, by W. L. Scarborough, assisted by V. O. White and T. P. Middleton, the latter two having been members of the class with him when he entered the Conference. His presiding elder, Ernest Jones, presided at the services and brethren of the ministry acted as pallbearers. The burial was in the cemetery at New London.—W. L. Scarborough.

J. VADA DAVIS, son of John W. and Emily Payne Davis, was born at Hams Prairie, Callaway County, October 2, 1872. He died at Downing, Mo., August 13, 1932. He was converted early in life and consecrated himself to the service of God. He was married to Lella Martin in Fulton, Mo., December 30, 1897. To this union one child was born, now Mrs. Herbert Humphries. He joined the Missouri Conference in 1900 and served the following charges: Center, Madison, Platte City, Smithville, Forest City, Vandalia, Winfield, Gallatin, Florida, Novelty, and Downing Circuits. On account of ill health he went to Oklahoma and served at Davenport and Stroud, Franklin and Maud, and also at Portales and Vaughn, N. Mex. A funeral service was held at Downing, and then his body was taken to Hams Prairie, his childhood home, and a service was conducted amid his relatives and school-day friends by G. C. Beery, assisted by D. K. Pegues, John B. Scholl, and W. H. Ezell.—Ernest Davis.

Ques. 14. What preachers have died during the year? Charles Claudius Higbee. 1.

CHARLES CLAUDIUS HIGBEE, presiding elder of the Las Vegas District, died at Clayton, N. Mex., August 21, 1932. While conducting a revival at Mount Dora, near Clayton, he was attacked with appendicitis and did not survive the operation. He was buried in Albuquerque. The funeral was conducted by N. L. Linebaugh, assisted by several other members of the Conference. It was Brother Higbee's custom on each quarterly round to preach at every church on a circuit. He spent the greater part of this Conference year conducting revivals and teaching in training schools in his district. The last ten weeks of his life were spent in the field with not a single day at home. It was his universal reputation for system that led to his unanimous choice as Secretary of the Conference and as treasurer of the Conference group insurance. Twenty-one years he served Southern Methodism in two Conferences, the Southwest Missouri and the New Mexico. His appointments in Missouri were Passaic, Bronaugh, Montrose, and Grandview. In 1919 he was transferred to the New Mexico Conference and was appointed that year to Melrose. Subsequent appointments were Carrizozo, Albuquerque, Las Vegas, Crane, and Iraan (Tex.), and the Las Vegas District. Brother Higbee was a native of Calhoun, Mo., born May 2, 1885. His parents were John and Claudia Frances Higbee. He was converted in early boyhood and joined the home church at Calhoun, Mo. On July 2, 1907, he was married to Miss Irma Stella Whitechurch, of Baldwin, Ill. The children of this union are Dolores Frances, Dorothy Caroline, Miriam Roberta, and Charles Eldon.—Clyde K. Campbell.

WILLIAM EMORY FAUST, son of Miles G. and Nancy Horton Faust, was born near Montevallo in Shelby County, Ala.,

March 11, 1862. He attended the common schools in his community. Accepting the call to preach as a call to prepare to preach, he, with his wife and small son, moved to McCalla, in Jefferson County, where a training school was being taught by Prof. I. W. McAdory. He remained in the McAdory School until he mastered the course of study and was graduated. He then went to the old Southern University at Greensboro, Ala. At the session of the North Alabama Conference held in Anniston, Ala., in November, 1888, he was admitted on trial. Bishop Hargrove was presiding and Dr. John A. Thompson was at the secretary's table. In 1889-90 he served McCalla Circuit. At the Conference in Birmingham in November, 1890, he was ordained deacon and received into full connection by Bishop Granbery. He was ordained elder by Bishop Keener at LaFayette, Ala., in November, 1892. His appointments were as follows: 1889-90, McCalla Circuit; 1891-92, Leeds Circuit; 1893-95, Cottondale-Woodstock; 1896-97, Brookwood; 1898, Plantersville Circuit; 1899-1900, Alexander City; 1901-02, LaFayette; 1903-05, Pratt City; 1906-09, Florence District; 1910-12, Jasper Station; 1913, Huntsville District; 1914-17, Roanoke District; 1918, West End, Birmingham; 1919-22, Tuscaloosa District; 1923-26, East Lake, Birmingham; 1927-30, Gadsden District; 1931, Sylacauga. He took the superannuate relation at the Conference held at Sylacauga in November, 1931. He was a member of the General Board of Finance for four years, 1922-1926. He was a member of the General Conference which met in Hot Springs, Ark., in 1922, and also a member of the Special General Conference which met at Chattanooga, Tenn., in 1924. He was married to Miss Willie Texanna Richards in 1883. God blessed this union with three boys and five girls. Willie died while her father was presiding elder of the Florence District. Thomas Greene passed away while the family lived at Jasper. The other six children are all grown and married. They are Frederick B. and John E. Faust, Mrs. Ida Trammell, Mrs. Lola Cooper, Mrs. Katherine Wiberg, Mrs. Bessie Maxwell. While he was pastor at East Lake, Mrs. Faust quietly passed into the Beautiful City. In 1926 Brother Faust was married to Miss Eleanor Gillam. Brother Faust died December 12, 1931. The funeral service, held in the Methodist Church at East Lake, was conducted by Bishop Ainsworth, assisted by several of Brother Faust's intimate friends. His body was laid to rest in Elmwood Cemetery.

JAMES MARVIN MCCLESKEY, son of Abner Perry and Mary Bluford Stone McCleskey, was born in Talladega, Ala., April 1, 1875. His father was a native of Hall County, Georgia. When the son was five years old, the family removed to Birmingham, Ala. Brother McCleskey was converted and joined the Church while quite young and was licensed to preach when he was but a youth. He was a student in the old Southern University at Greensboro, Ala. In the fall of 1895 he accepted the principalship of the Helena High School at Helena, Ala., and taught there for one year. In the summer of 1896 he accepted the pastorate of the Gordo Circuit. In the fall of the same year he was given the North River Mission, where he served as a supply so that he might again take up his college course. He entered the University of Alabama and continued his work in that institution until he was graduated in the spring of 1898. Brother McCleskey was admitted on trial into the North Alabama Conference which met at Huntsville, Ala., November 28, 1898, Bishop Key presiding. He was admitted into full connection and ordained deacon by Bishop Hendrix at the Conference which met at Decatur, Ala., November 28, 1900, and was ordained elder by Bishop Key at the Conference which met at LaFayette on November 19, 1902. He served the following appointments: McTyiere Memorial, Gadsden, 1899; Triana Circuit, 1900; Bridgeport, 1901; Gaylesville Circuit, 1902-03; Fort Payne and Valley Head, 1904-07; Jonesboro Station, 1908-10; St. John, Birmingham, 1911; Albertville Station, 1912-13; Ashland Station, 1914-15; LaFayette Station, 1916-17; Avondale, 1918-19; Jasper Station, 1920-21; Huntsville District, 1922-24; Brandon Memorial, Tuscaloosa, 1925; Russellville Station, 1926-28; Fairfield Station, 1929-30; Usry Memorial, Gadsden, 1931. At the Conference which met at Sylacauga, Ala., November 4, 1931, he was assigned to Sulligent Station in the Jasper District. He went to his new field with courage and optimism, expecting a happy and successful pastorate. But his heart, which had carried a heavy load of sorrow and disease, became too heavily involved to carry on without additional help. He was taken to a hospital in Birmingham, where he seemed to respond to treatment, but on January 12, 1932, he quietly slipped away from loved ones and friends into the "city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God." The funeral service was held at the home of his sister, Mrs. W. C. Baty, in Bessemer, and was conducted by Robert Echols, assisted by John R. Turner, A. M. Freeman, W. F. Price, S. O. Kimbrough, and L. F. Stansell. His body rests in Elmwood, Birmingham, beside his firstborn, Lucile (Mrs. Edgar W. Davis), who preceded him to the glory world a little more than a year. While Brother McCleskey was a student at the University of Alabama, he met Miss Elizabeth Louise Hausman, of Tuscaloosa, Ala., and on November 16, 1898, she became his wife. God blessed this union with three daughters and one son. These children are: Lucile (Mrs. E. W. Davis), deceased; Diana (Mrs. Charles R. Gillespie), Miss Elizabeth McCleskey, and James Marvin McCleskey, Jr. He leaves two sisters, Mrs. M. P. Kiher and Mrs. W. C. Baty. He also leaves his stepmother, Mrs. A. P. McCleskey, two half sisters, Mrs. Ethel Leslie and Mrs. H. M. Davis, and two half brothers, Ben and Lloyd McCleskey. —Robert Echols.

GEORGE H. MEANS, son of Knott Vicory and Lydia Dunn Means, was born April 22, 1848, at Cannelton, Ind., and died in Louisville, Ky., September 27, 1932. His funeral was conducted at the home of his son, George H. Means, Jr., in Louisville, Ky. Dr. Means came of strong, stanch Scotch-Irish ancestry. His mother was born in what is now Larue County, Kentucky, in 1816. His father was born in Old Orchard, Maine, in 1815, but came in early manhood to Louisville, Ky. Dr. Means was married to Miss Virginia Lively, daughter of Dr. Robert and Harriet Turner Lively, of Taylor County, Kentucky, on May 21, 1877. To this union were born three sons and one daughter, who survive him: Edward K., Ray M., and George H. Means, Jr., and Mrs. Charles Felix Dale. Dr. Means' early education was in the public schools. He attended Hancock Seminary, in Breckenridge County, Kentucky, and after completing a course there was admitted on trial into the Louisville Conference at Lebanon, Ky., in 1872. Scarritt-Morrisville College of Missouri conferred upon him the degree of Doctor of Divinity. Dr. Means served a number of stations in Kentucky Methodism, among them, Covington, Frankfort, Winchester, Highland Church (Louisville), and Hopkinsville. After three years at Hopkinsville, he was transferred to the North Alabama Conference in 1910, and was for a time pastor of the College Church at Owenton. He was granted the superannuate relation in 1921, and returned to West Point, Ky., where he lived until the death of his wife on October 9, 1924. Dr. Means' writings include: "Infant Baptism," "Christian Science, or Modern Hoodooism," "The Life of Bishop Morrison," "Baptism, Its Modes, Subjects, and Designs," and "God's Wonders in Fifty Years."—J. H. Nicholson.

Ques. 14. What preachers have died during the year? Cadesman Pope, William F. Blevins, M. B. Umsted, J. P. Wheeler, George McGlumphy, C. F. Hively. 6.

CADESMAN POPE was born June 21, 1837, on his father's plantation in Pike County, Ga. He died Friday morning, April 8, 1932, at Helena, Ark. He entered the ministry at twenty-one years of age, and saw active service until the last few years. He joined the old Georgia Conference at its session in Columbus in 1858. During the seventy-five years of his ministry he served as a pastor, presiding elder, and an educator, serving in all the work to which he was assigned with marked devotion and uniform effectiveness. While he served longer in Arkansas than in any other State, his heart clung most tenderly to Georgia, the State of his birth. He loved the town of Lagrange, Ga., with a peculiar devotion. There he had served a very faithful pastorate, and some years ago he wrote to the writer of this sketch: "When I die I wish you would see that my body is buried beside the remains of my beloved wife at Lagrange, and that you would preach my funeral." It was a pain to me that disabling sickness prevented me from attending his burial and preaching his funeral. While he was serving St. James Church, at Augusta, I was in charge of St. John Church, in the same city. There we became very intimate and very affectionate in our relations. I heard him preach often, and always with profit. I remember, however, his public prayers at this distance of time more distinctly than I can recollect his sermonic discourses. He knew the life that is hid with Christ in God, and spoke to his Lord in prayer as one who knew him well. We lament his departure, but are comforted with hope that we shall overtake him in his glorified state not many days hence.—Warren A. Candler.

WILLIAM FLOYD BLEVINS, son of Frank and Sarah Blevins, was born January 13, 1878, at McRae, in White County, Ark. He died at the Methodist Hospital in Memphis on October 5, 1932. He was converted at about eighteen years of age and joined the Methodist Church in a revival meeting conducted by I. D. McClure. On October 4, 1900, he was married to Martha C. House. To this union three sons and five daughters were born. On November 9, 1904, he was licensed to preach and spent the next two years at Hendrix College. In 1906 he received his first appointment from a Conference, the Wiville Circuit. He was admitted on trial into the White River Conference in 1906 and was ordained deacon in 1908 and elder in 1911. He served twenty-six years in the active ministry. For a while he was Field Secretary of Superannuate Endowment. In the last years of his life he served as pastor at Paris, Cotton Plant, Dardanelle, Augusta, Corning, and Wilson. He died in the midst of his labors, leaving his wife, two sons, and five daughters. The funeral service was held in his church at Wilson, led by J. A. Anderson, his presiding elder, assisted by L. E. Mann, Eli Myers, and the writer. His body was laid to rest at Searcy, Ark.—E. T. Wayland.

MILTON B. UMSTED was born in Gibson County, Tenn., December 22, 1847. He was converted and joined the Methodist Church at the age of twelve. He felt his call to preach when just a boy and was licensed to preach early in life. He was married to Miss Jennie Graves in 1866. She was the mother of his children and his unfailing helpmate till just a few years ago, when she preceded him to the land of light and glory. M. B. Umsted moved to Arkansas in 1869 and spent the rest of his life in this State. He was licensed to preach in 1870. He was admitted into the old White River Conference in 1873, after having served one year as supply. He was superannuated fourteen years ago, but could not be idle, so in the fall of 1920 the Bishop appointed him pastor of East Newport Mission, where he began at once the organization of a Church. Here he remained three years, building and paying for the church that now bears his name. In 1874 Brother Umsted organized the first Methodist Church in Newport, with six members. He had the honor of preaching in Newport the first sermon by an itinerant preacher. He passed peacefully to rest on May 24, 1932, at Newport, Ark. Brother Umsted is survived by his wife, Mrs. Ella Umsted, three sons, one daughter, thirteen grandchildren, ten great-grandchildren, and one sister.—A. E. Holloway.

JOHN P. WHEELER died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Roy Webster, Monday morning, April 18, 1932, at Memphis, Tex., after a long and lingering illness. The funeral services were conducted at the First Methodist Church of Memphis, Tex., with the pastor, J. M. Fuller, officiating. Brother Wheeler is survived by his wife, three sons, H. L., Earl, and Carl Wheeler, and five daughters, Mrs. Roy Webster, Mrs. Mervin Burks, Mrs. H. J. Jorns, Mrs. Louise Stephens, and Mrs. Virgie Brackeen. Brother Wheeler was born and reared in the State of Missouri and went to Texas at the early age of eighteen. He began his ministry in Texas, then transferred to New Mexico, from which Conference he transferred to the North Arkansas Conference in 1910. He served in active relation until 1919, when he was superannuated. He spent thirty-five years in the ministry, fourteen of which were in the traveling connection.—H. Lynn Wade.

GEORGE MCGLUMPHY, son of Dr. and Mrs. A. J. McGlumphy, was born January 13, 1867, in Lincoln, Ill. At an early age he united with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. He graduated from Lincoln College in 1885 and received his Ph.D. degree in 1892. He studied medicine, but on account of failing health was forced to give up his chosen profession. After several years' experience in teaching, in 1891 he was given a position in the faculty of Cumberland College, now the College of the Ozarks, at Clarksville, Ark., where he was head of the Department of Science and Language. While connected with the college, he was licensed to preach in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. Dr. McGlumphy was united in marriage to Miss Cora Pennington, of Clarksville, January 9, 1894. To this union was born a son February 1, 1896, who died January 8, 1899, at Eureka Springs. Dr. McGlumphy joined the old Arkansas Conference in November, 1896, and was stationed at Rogers, where he served two years. He also served Eureka Springs, Central Church (Fort Smith), Harrison, Dardanelle, Conference Superintendent of Sunday School Work, Russellville, Ozark, Bentonville, Paris (five years), Dodson Avenue (Fort Smith). In 1921 he was forced to retire from the pastorate on account of deafness and failing health. In 1922 he was elected Conference Treasurer, in which position he served until his death on December 17, 1931, in Fort Smith. He is survived by his wife and one sister, Mrs. Ella Allen. The funeral service was held in the First Methodist Church by Dana Dawson, J. W. Crichlow, W. C. House, and F. M. Tolleson. His body was laid to rest in Oak Cemetery, Fort Smith.—James A. Anderson.

CHARLES F. HIVELY, son of Rev. Thomas R. and Jane Hively, was born October 6, 1866, in Baxter County, Ark. He was converted when he was about sixteen years of age and joined the Methodist Church. On September 9, 1886, he was married to Mary Dixon. The following year he was licensed to preach and for many years served as local preacher. On October 24, 1919, his wife passed on to her reward. He was married November 2, 1920, to Mrs. Effie Sweitzer, of Jacksonville, who survives him. He was ordained deacon in 1897, admitted into the old White River Conference in 1910 on trial, into full connection in 1913, and was made elder in 1915. He served the following charges: Desha Circuit (supply), two years; Sulphur Rock and Moorefield, four years; Central Avenue, Batesville, three years; Gardner Memorial, North Little Rock, five years; Leslie, two years; Beebe, one year; Midland Heights, Fort Smith, two years; Conference Evangelist, one year; Washington Avenue and Levy, one year; Jelks, two years; Bradford, one year. In 1930 he took the superannuate relation and moved to Jacksonville. Brother Hively sustained serious burns when their home was completely demolished by fire on the morning of March 9. He passed away in St. Vincent's Infirmary, March 17, 1932. In addition to his wife, the following children survive him: Mrs. J. L. McCormack, Mrs. R. J. Goss, Mrs. Oscar Goss, Alex Hively, Bob Hively, Mrs. J. W. Russell. The funeral was held from Gardner Memorial Church. The following ministers conducted the funeral: J. W. Crichlow, Ira A. Brumley, Sam B. Wiggins, and his pastor. The body was laid to rest in Oakland Cemetery, Little Rock, Ark., March 19, 1932.—Edward Forrest.

LUDOLPHUS EDWARD THOMPSON, son of Rev. W. H. and Elvira Arnold Thomp-son, was born July 29, 1855, at Oaks, Orange County, N. C. As a youth he spent four years in Bingham Military School near Mebane, N. C. In 1878 he joined the North Carolina Conference in session at Charlotte, N. C. His ap-pointments were as follows: 1878, Mont-gomery Circuit; 1879, Franklinville Cir-cuit; 1880-81, Lexington Station; 1882, Rowan Circuit; 1883-84, located; 1885, Hillsboro Circuit; 1886, Mooresville Cir-cuit; 1887-90, Yanceyville Circuit; 1891-92, Louisburg Station; 1893, Burlington Station; 1894-96, Burlington Station, Graham and Haw River; 1897, Pittsboro Circuit; 1898-1901, Carthage Circuit; 1902-05, Washington Station; 1906-07, First Church, Elizabeth City; 1908-11, Hay Street, Fayetteville; 1912-15, Wil-mington; 1916, Warrenton District; 1917-20, First Church, Henderson; 1921, Calvary, Durham; 1922, Louisburg Sta-tion; 1923-24, Mebane Station; 1925, superannuated. He was ordained elder in 1882 by Bishop Keener. On February 14, 1883, he was married to Miss Lou McCrary, of Lexington, N. C., and to this union were born two daughters, Edna and Vera, and three sons, Hart-well, John, and Earl, all of whom, except Vera, survive. At the time of his super-annuation, in 1925, he moved to Lexing-ton. On December 4, 1931, came the last call, this time to the presence of his glorified Lord. On Sunday afternoon, December 5, the funeral was held at the home in Lexington, conducted by this writer, assisted by J. B. Hurley and J. E. Abernethy. The mortal remains lie sleeping in the cemetery within a few hundred yards of his last earthly home. —T. C. Vickers.

MICHAEL BRADSHAW, son of William Saurine and Margaret Faucette Stockard Bradshaw, was born in Alamance County, N. C., December 18, 1859. When he was twelve years of age his family moved to the seat of Trinity College, in Randolph County, where he entered the preparatory department in the session of 1871-72. He entered the freshman class in September, 1874, and graduated in 1878 at the age of eighteen. He seems to have spent the two following years there at old Trinity. Then he taught school for a while in Duplin County, before going to Asheboro, where he read law with his brother, George Samuel. He spent the year 1883-84 in the Law School of the University of North Carolina, and received his law license in 1884. The following six years he lived in Asheboro, a member of the law firm of Bradshaw and Bradshaw and also editing the Asheboro Courier. In the spring of 1891 he taught school in Jonesboro, where his sister, father, and mother were living. In the autumn of 1891 he was admitted to the North Carolina Conference at Greenville. On April 7, 1897, Dr. Bradshaw was married to Mary Whitehurst of Tarboro, who survives him. There are four children, Margaret Stockard (Mrs. W. D. Linton), Robert Wallace, Michael, and William Gaston Bradshaw. His first appoint-ment was to the Lillington Circuit, and his last was as presiding elder of the Raleigh District. He served there for three years and in 1930, at the Hender-son Conference, was superannuated at his own request. He spent thirteen years in Durham. Beginning in 1907 for four years he was pastor of the old Main Street Church, afterwards removed to a new site and now known as Duke Memorial. He returned to this church again in 1918 and served five years, and the four succeeding years he lived in Durham as presiding elder of the District. A large part of the remaining years of his ministry he lived in Goldsboro, Wilson, and Raleigh. Dr. Bradshaw died at his home in Durham on February 7, 1932, and was buried in sight of the towers and within the sound of the bells of Duke University, with which, including Trinity College, he had as student, alumnus, patron, and trustee sustained intimate connections through a period of sixty-one years.—W. P. Few.

CLARK CONRADE ALEXANDER, son of Martin Bruce and Saran Idella Stewart Alexander, was born December 30, 1892, at Cottage Grove, Tenn. He died at Clinton, N. C., January 21, 1932. He entered the McFerrin School in Martin, Tenn., in 1913. Brother Alexander joined the Cottage Grove Methodist Church at the age of eleven. He was licensed to preach by the Union City District Conference of the Memphis Conference, November 7, 1913. For the next two years he did some supply work and evangelistic preaching. In 1915-19 he was at Trinity College, where he received the B.A. degree; 1920-22 were spent at Princeton University, where he received the degrees of Master of Arts and Bachelor of Theology. Brother Alexander was ordained a local deacon at the session of the North Carolina Conference held in Greenville, N. C., in 1917. While at Princeton he was ordained to the Presbyterian ministry, but at the close of his work at Princeton he returned to the Church of his childhood. The record of his active ministry follows: Duck Neck Presbyterian Church, Duck Neck, N. Y., 1921-23; First Methodist Church, Tupelo, Miss., 1923-26; Professor of Bible and Religious Education, Birmingham-Southern College, 1926-29; President of Louisburg College, 1929-31; Methodist Church, Clinton, N. C., from June, 1931, until his death, January 21, 1932. In his student days at Trinity he was a member of Sigma Chi and Tau Kappa Alpha. He was editor of the Chronicle, represented the college in intercollegiate debating, and took an active interest in college athletics. He was one of the leaders in re-establishing football at Trinity. While president of Louisburg College he was elected to membership in Phi Beta Kappa. In 1917, in the home of his closest friend, Rev. A. J. Hobbs, he met Miss Rachael Allie Hobbs, of Corapeake, N. C. They were married August 31, 1921. To them were given three children, Rachael Hobbs, Martha Clark, and Sarah Newland Alexander. These, with their mother, survive him. The funeral services were held in the church at Clinton by W. C. Martin, H. B. Porter, J. H. Shore, H. M. North, and M. O. Saummers (of the Clinton Presbyterian Church). At the grave the services were conducted by Walter Patten and T. M. Grant.—F. S. Love.

HARRY MAURICE NORTH, son of John Wesley and Cynthia Wells North, was born in Cleveland County, N. C., March 16, 1873. In 1899 he graduated from Trinity College, winning the Wiley Gray Medal by his commencement oration. His election to Phi Beta Kappa and the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity, the first that Duke ever conferred, were the expressions of the University's estimate of his scholarship. For three years he was headmaster of Trinity Park School. His writings, aside from his sermons, were not extensive, but select. In preparing the Sunday school lesson studies for the editor of the General Board, a high standard of excellence was shown. "The Harvest and the Reapers" reveals the ruling passion of his life, that the world might know and love God and be saved from sin. Immediately after his graduation from Trinity College in 1899, he was sent to the Snow Hill Circuit to finish out the year's work for L. J. Holden. He joined the North Carolina Conference at Washington and served the following places: Snow Hill Circuit, 1899; Morehead City, 1900; City Road, 1903; Trinity Park School, 1904; Edenton Street, 1908; Durham District, 1913; Memorial, 1914; Rockingham District, 1918; Conference Educational Secretary, 1920; Rocky Mount, 1921; Kingston, 1925; Wilmington District, 1926; Raleigh District, 1930. In the district parsonage at Raleigh, he died February 11, 1932. Bishop Mouzon, assisted by J. C. Wooten, F. S. Love, W. A. Stanbury, Walter Patten, and M. Y. Self, conducted the funeral from the Laurinburg Church. He is survived by his sisters, Mrs. T. W. Stacey, Mrs. T. J. Gill, Mrs. W. E. Severance, and Miss Eva North.—John C. Wooten.

SAMUEL ERNEST WRIGHT, son of J. E. and Ida Wright, was born in Cleveland County, N. C., July 18, 1893. When our country entered the World War, the call soon came to him for service overseas. He immediately answered that call and, after a brief period in training, went to the front in France. After receiving his discharge from the army, he located in Hickory, N. C. Soon thereafter he was married to Miss Florence Sharpe. He entered Rutherford College and later Duke University, where he was graduated in 1926. Brother Wright was admitted on trial into the North Carolina Conference at Fayetteville in 1925. He was ordained deacon at Raleigh in 1927, and elder at Kinston in 1929. During his brief ministry of slightly more than six years, he served White Memorial and City Road charge, Henderson, two years, and the Warren Circuit, four years. At the Conference a year ago he was assigned to the Enfield-Whitakers charge, which he had served only a few months when the final call came. He answered from a hospital in Rocky Mount early Saturday morning, February 27, 1932. He is survived by his wife, one son, Samuel Ernest, Jr., his mother, one brother, and three sisters. On Sunday morning, February 28, at eleven o'clock, funeral services were conducted in the church at Enfield by this writer, assisted by L. B. Jones, E. N. Harrison, and S. J. Starnes. From there the body was taken to Hickory, N. C., where further services were held in the First Methodist Church on Monday morning, conducted by S. J. Starnes, assisted by D. E. Barnhardt, A. C. Gibbs, C. S. Kirkpatrick, D. M. Sharpe, and W. C. Wilson. Thence they carried his body to its final resting place in the cemetery at Hickory.—H. B. Porter.

JACOB ALEXANDER LEE, son of John H. and Eliza Frances Lee, was born near Shelby in Cleveland County, February 24, 1856, and died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. James T. Beason, in Shelby, N. C., October 26, 1932. Brother Lee received his educational training at Boiling Springs Academy and Rutherford College. On July 28, 1881, Brother Lee was married to Sara Cynthia Grigg. To this union were born three daughters, Ada V. (Mrs. James F. Blue), Ida Mae (Mrs. Vernon S. Andrews), and Buena V. (Mrs. James T.

Beason). These, with their mother and several grandchildren, survive him. Brother Lee was licensed to preach in 1879 and joined the North Carolina Conference in 1882. He was ordained deacon in 1882, and elder in 1886. Brother Lee served the following charges in the North Carolina Conference: McDowell Circuit, 1881-82; Forest City, 1883-85; Matthews Circuit, 1886-88; Lenoir, 1889; Weldon, 1890; Tarboro, 1891; Murfreesboro, 1892; Carthage Circuit, 1893-95; Maxton, 1896; Kinston, 1897-99; Gibson Circuit, 1900-02; Ridgeway Circuit, 1903. At the Annual Conference of 1903 he retired from the active work on account of throat trouble. He returned to the active work in 1906 and served Dunn, 1906-07; Mount Gilead Circuit, 1908-11; Rowland Circuit, 1912-15; Kitrell Circuit, 1916-18. At the Annual Conference in Goldsboro in December, 1918, he was granted the superannuate relation and went to live with his daughter, Mrs. Vernon Andrews, at Mount Gilead, N. C. He lived there until 1926, when he went to live with another one of his daughters, Mrs. James T. Beason, at Shelby, N. C. His funeral was conducted by E. K. McLarty, assisted by R. M. Courtney, W. L. Ingle, and Zeno Wall, pastor of the Baptist Church.—A. J. Groves.

He was transferred to the Indian Mission Conference and appointed as principal of a Church school at New Hope in the Choctaw Nation, and also presiding elder of the Choctaw District at the same time; then to a government school at Chilocco, Ind. T., with Rev. W. R. Branham, who was Superintendent of that school. After a service there of three years, he was transferred back to the North Georgia Conference in the fall of 1887, and appointed principal of Young Harris Institute, 1888-89; then to Lexington, 1890-93; Woodlawn, Augusta, 1894-97; Hamilton Street, Dalton, 1898; Midway, 1899-1901; Barnesville Circuit, 1902; Milner, 1903; Zebulon, 1904. In the fall of 1904 he was transferred to the Florida Conference, and stationed at Micanopy, 1905-06; then to Key West, 1907. Before the year was out he suffered a heat stroke and was in a hospital until the fall of 1908. He was then transferred to the North Georgia Conference and granted the superannuate relation. He died at the home of his brother, Mr. Ab Gray, in Monticello, Ga., December 1, 1931, and was buried at Oxford. Brother Gray was born August 12, 1852. He was the son of the Rev. A. Gray, who was for many years a member of the North Georgia Conference. He was married to Miss Mary Thomas, of Oxford, Ga.—W. R. Branham.

JAMES DEAN MILTON was born August 29, 1856, and died April 22, 1932. Under the preaching of the Word by Norman D. Morehouse, he gave his heart and life to God when he was fourteen years of age. When he was eighteen he was convinced of a call to preach, but did not yield to that call for nine long years. He was licensed to preach from Trinity Church, Atlanta, September 22, 1885, and was appointed Assistant City Missionary for the next year. In the fall of 1886 he was admitted on trial into the North Georgia Conference. His recorded ministry in the North Georgia Conference is as follows: Ordained deacon December 9, 1888; elder, December 7, 1890; admitted on trial in December, 1886; into full connection, 1888. As supply he was Assistant City Missionary, Atlanta, 1886; Locust Grove, 1887; Etowah, 1888; Marietta Circuit, 1889-90; Richmond Circuit, 1891-93; Harmony Grove (now Commerce), 1894-95; Winder, 1896; Mountville, 1897-98; Clarkesville, 1899-1902; Bowman, 1903-06; Rockmart, 1907; Newborn, 1908-11; Villa Rica and Temple, 1912-13; Stone Mountain, 1914-15; Cornelia and Demorest, 1916-17; Fayetteville, 1918-19; Zebulon, 1920; The Rock, 1921; Ingleside, 1922-26; Tucker, 1927-28; Redan and Rock Chapel, 1929-30; superannuated, 1930. He died at Miami, Fla., on April 22, 1932, and was buried at Decatur, Ga. He is survived by his wife, two daughters, Mrs. Ralph Coursey and Mrs. J. C. Maness, three sons, J. D., C. J., and J. L. Milton, three brothers, and one sister.—J. W. Quillian.

FRANK IRBY GREEN, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Green, was born at Cassville, Ga., November 12, 1895, and passed to his eternal reward from the Wesley Memorial Hospital, Atlanta, Ga., April 23, 1932. He entered school at Waleska, where he better equipped himself for the ministry. He was licensed to preach July 13, 1921; ordained a deacon November 22, 1925; elder, November 27, 1927; admitted on trial into the North Georgia Conference in 1923, and in full connection in 1925. He served the following appointments: Turin Circuit, 1924-25; Warm Springs, 1926; Fairmount, 1927; Forsyth, 1928; Rome Circuit, 1929; Homer Circuit, 1930-31; Lexington, 1932. On October 11, 1914, he was married to Miss Nettie May Edwards, who, together with three daughters and a son, survives him. One child passed away in infancy. Brother Green was buried from the Cassville Methodist Church on April 25, 1932. The writer, assisted by several of his Conference brethren, conducted the funeral service.—Jesse W. Veatch.

HAYDEN COE CHRISTIAN was born October 31, 1848, and passed to his reward May 28, 1932. He was admitted on trial into the North Georgia Conference in 1871; into full connection in 1873; ordained deacon by Bishop Pierce in 1873, and elder by Bishop Keener in 1875. His appointments were as follows: Dallas, 1872; La Fayette, 1873; McLemores Cove, 1874-75; Summerville Circuit, 1876; Winterville, 1877; Greensboro, 1878-79; Evans Chapel Station, 1880-81; Barnesville, 1882. In the fall of 1882 he was transferred to the Pacific Conference and appointed to Sacramento, 1883-86; San Francisco District, 1887-90; Centenary, San Francisco, 1891; Fresno District, 1892-93; Colusa District, 1894; San Francisco District, 1895-96; Los Angeles District, 1897-98. In the fall of 1898 he was transferred back to the North Georgia Conference and appointed to St. James, Augusta, 1899-1901. In the fall of 1901 he was transferred to the South Georgia Conference and appointed to Wesley Monumental, Savannah, 1902. In the fall of 1902 he was transferred to the Florida Conference and served Tallapoosa District, 1903; Orlando District, 1904; First Church, Tampa, 1905. In the fall of 1905 he was transferred to North Georgia Conference and appointed to St. John, Atlanta, 1906-08; Barnesville, 1909; Monroe, 1910; Thomason, 1911; College Park, 1912. He was a delegate to the General Conference of 1890. He superannuated in the fall of 1912.—J. M. Hawkins.

JOHN MARSHALL CROWE died at Griffin, Ga., November 26, 1932, age 76 years. Funeral services were conducted by J. P. Erwin and A. D. Echols. Interment was at Griffin. Brother Crowe served the following charges in the North Georgia Conference as a supply: Buchanan, 1891; Bremen, 1892; Paulding Mission, 1893; Draketown, 1894; East Rome Mission, 1896; Silver Creek Circuit, 1897; Cedartown Circuit, 1899. He was admitted on trial into the North Georgia Conference at the session held in Atlanta, November 21-26, 1900, Bishop

Hendrix presiding, and was appointed to Molena Mission; Center Mission, 1901. He was admitted into full connection at the Conference held at Atlanta, Ga., November 19-25, 1902, Bishop Candler presiding, and was reappointed to Center Mission. Early in life he became interested in religion, and joined the Methodist Church with the old Gerezim congregation in Union County, Miss., in 1872. He received his education at the common schools and at Blue Mountain Academy and Hiwassee College. He joined the North Mississippi Conference on December 3, 1879, at Water Valley, Miss., was ordained deacon by Bishop Paine at Grenada in 1881, and elder by Bishop McTyeire at Oxford in 1883. He served the following charges: 1880-81, Horn Lake; 1882, Bolivar; 1883, Jonesboro; 1884, Blackland; 1885-86, Faison and Indianola; 1887-88, Jonestown; 1889-91, Concordia; 1892, Greenville; 1893-95, Starkville; 1896, Oxford; 1897-1900, Greenville District; 1901, Holly Springs; 1902-05, Columbus District; 1906, Starkville; 1907-10, Lexington; 1911, Itta Bena; 1912-15, Sardis District; 1916-19, Water Valley, First Church; 1920-23, Louisville. At the close of 1923 he asked to be relieved of active work and was granted the superannuate relation. He was married in 1882 to Miss Regina Moody. To this union one son, Moody, was born, who now lives with his mother to share her grief in the passing of his father, April 25, 1932. The sacred words of the funeral service were said by his pastor, assisted by J. R. Countiss and the other pastors of the city.—J. D. Wroten.

ALPHEUS THEODORE CLANTON, son of Theodore Robert and Alice Garrell Clanton, was born August 5, 1884, in the eastern part of Grenada County, Miss. His education was obtained in the public schools of his native county, at Slate Springs in Calhoun County, at Bennett Academy in Clarkson, and at Millsaps College, where he was a student two years. In the fall of 1910 he was married to Miss Carrie Mitchell, of Slate Springs, Miss. Two boys, Paul and Guy, and one girl, Robbie Sam, came into this parsonage home. He is survived by his wife and children, also by his mother, three brothers, R. A., R. E., and J. W. Clanton, and two sisters, Mrs. J. W. Simpson and Mrs. Mordecai. His father preceded him to the beyond by only a few weeks. At the age of sixteen Brother Clanton professed faith in Christ and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Chapel Hill. He was admitted on trial into the Little Rock Conference in the fall of 1908, was ordained deacon at Prescott by Bishop McCoy in 1910, and elder at Lakeside Church, Pine Bluff, by Bishop Kilgo in 1913. He served the following charges: Lacey, 1909-10; Hampton, 1911; New Edinburg, 1912; Arkansas City, 1913-14; Parksedale and Wilmont, 1915-16; Wilmer, 1917; Sherrill and Tucker, 1918-19; Dikes, 1920; Grady, 1921-22; Hawley Memorial, Pine Bluff, 1923; Stephens, 1924. From the last-named place he was transferred in June, 1924, to the North Mississippi Conference and placed at Pickens and Goodman, where he served the remainder of that year and the year following. He served Batesville Station, 1926-28; Tchula Station, 1929-30; and was in his second year at Ruleville when called away. During the last days of August, 1932, Brother Clanton suffered an attack of appendicitis and went to Grenada for an operation. Early Tuesday morning, September 6, there broke upon his spirit the light of an Eternal Day. Tuesday afternoon he was buried from the Methodist Church at Grenada. The service was in charge of J. R. Countiss, who was assisted by L. M. Lipscomb, E. H. Cunningham, W. N. Duncan, and Rev. Mr. Bell, pastor of the Baptist Church at Ruleville. His body was borne by the hands of the officials of the churches of which he was pastor to the beautiful cemetery at Grenada.—R. G. Lord.

IVID ALLEN CLARK, son of Edwin and Ada Love Clark, was born near Winona, Montgomery County, Miss., October 17, 1890. He was converted at the age of twelve years at Gore Springs Church in Grenada County. He was pastor of this church at the time of his death. He attended the local schools in his community, the Bellefontaine high school, and the preparatory school of Millsaps College. On May 3, 1912, he was licensed to preach at the Winona District Conference, held at Kilmichael. He was admitted on trial into the North Arkansas Conference on November 20, 1919, and ordained deacon by Bishop Mouzon at Rogers, Ark., December 3, 1920. In 1921 he was transferred to the North Mississippi Conference, and was ordained elder by Bishop Ainsworth at West Point, Miss., November 2, 1924. In the North Arkansas Conference Brother Clark served Huntington Avenue, Jonesboro, 1917, and Lagrange Circuit, 1918-19, before being admitted to the Conference; also Marmaduke, 1920, and Reyno and Biggers, 1921, following his admission. In the North Mississippi Conference he served Cedar Bluff, 1922-23; Caledonia, 1924; Shuqualak, 1925-27; Kosciusko Circuit, 1928-29; Potts Camp, 1930; Duck Hill, 1931-32. On September 25, 1923, he was suddenly attacked with appendicitis and was rushed to the Methodist Hospital in Memphis, Tenn., but he had been mortally stricken and passed away the following day. On the twenty-seventh, the funeral was conducted from the Methodist Church at Duck Hill by E. H. Cunningham, assisted by several of the ministers who attended the service. His body was laid to rest in the family lot at his old home church, Chapel Hill, where he had preached his first sermon, as well as his last, which was two days before his death. Brother Clark was married to Miss Minnie Maddox on August 2, 1914, and to their home came four children, Allene, Arnold, Marie, and Maggie Love, all of whom survive, though the mother passed away on April 22, 1927. On June 5, 1930, Brother Clark was married to Miss Katherine Jones, who survives him, together with his aged father and mother and brother Edwin.—A. J. Henry.

GEORGE MILES GIBSON, son of Wesley and Jane Gibson, was born in Tazewell County, Va., December 7, 1860. His father was a farmer and an exhorter in the Methodist Church. He was educated in the common schools of Virginia, and after teaching a couple of years he entered Emory and Henry College, from which he graduated with the degrees of A.B. and M.A. in 1887, and from which institution he later received the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity. His first work after graduation was in St. Charles College, in Missouri, as a teacher of Latin and Greek. In the fall of 1888 he was received on trial into the Missouri Conference, and continued to serve in this Conference until 1904, at which time Bishop Hoss transferred him to Trinity Church, El Paso. During his pastorate in this Church he enterprised and erected the present church building and also the parsonage. At this time he was elected president of Central College at Lexington, Mo. In December, 1910, he resigned the presidency of the college and was appointed pastor of First Church, Dallas, where he remained for a quadrennium. His next appointment was Marvin Church, Tyler, for one year, and he was then appointed to Oak Cliff Church, Dallas. This church was unfinished at the time of his appointment, and he immediately finished and furnished the church, and during his seven years' pastorate paid for the parsonage. His last pastorate was Munger Church, Dallas, and the beautiful building there was erected under his ministry. At the close of this pastorate he became Conference Secretary of the Sunday School Board. At the time of his death his appointment was associate pastor of First Church, Dallas. On October 14, 1891, he was married to Miss Florence Allen, of Troy, Mo. To this union were born three children, Kate, now Mrs. W. F. Carruthers, Maude, now Mrs. R. K. Withrow, and Rev. George M. Gibson, Jr., pastor of a Congregational church in St. Louis. His second marriage was on July 21, 1915, to Mrs. Lelia Allen of Dallas, Tex., who with his three children, survives him. Brother Gibson was Secretary of the Conference Board of Education for a number of years, editor of the Conference Minutes, member of the Executive Committee of the Preachers' Institute, taught for a time in the Biblical Department of the Southern University, was engaged by the Sunday School Board and the Board of Missions to teach in Pastors' Schools and Teacher Training Schools throughout the whole Church, was for a time editor of the Texas Christian Advocate and author of several books. The end came while he was caring for his flowers in the beautiful flower garden of his home in Dallas. He was buried from the auditorium of the First Church. His funeral was conducted by C. M. Bishop, who was his friend from boyhood until death, assisted by Bishop John M. Moore, W. C. Martin, A. N. Evans, and the writer.—J. H. Groseclose.

WILLIAM DAVID MOUNTCASTLE, of the Holston and North Texas Conferences, was born near Athens, Tenn., November 21, 1847. He was the son of C. E. and Sarah Lough Miller Mountcastle. At the age of eleven he was converted and joined the Church. On June 17, 1874, he was united in marriage to Miss Frances Moore at Fort Valley, Ga., who preceded him in death nearly three years. One daughter, Miss Willie, was the fruit of this happy union. She survives. Brother Mountcastle's educational preparation for life was made at Hiawasee College. After finishing college he taught for a short time. He was licensed to preach April 8, 1871, and joined the Holston Conference at Morristown, Tenn., in October following, Bishop Pierce presiding. He was ordained deacon at Marion, Va., October 18, 1873, by Bishop Keener, and elder by Bishop McTyeire at Knoxville, Tenn., October 24, 1875. He served Chateau, Riceville, Madisonville, and Maryville charges in the Holston Conference. He transferred to the North Texas Conference in November, 1880. His first charge in the North Texas Conference was Jefferson Station, and he served other charges in the order named: Texarkana, Honey Grove, McKinney, Sherman District, Bowie District (now Wichita Falls and Decatur Districts), Paris District, Plano, Farmersville, Kaufman, Clarksville, Pilot Point, Sulphur Springs District, White-wright, and Bonham Street, Paris. He superannuated in 1921. He was a member of the Board of Trustees of Kidd-Key College for thirty-seven years. He died at Paris, Tex., on April 11, 1932.—J. A. Old.

LINDZEY ALEXANDER BURK, son of Rev. James R. and Ellen Spencer Burk, was born in Crawford County, Mo., on April 24, 1856. He came to Texas in 1859, was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, when fifteen years of age, at Center, Tex. He was licensed to preach at Crawford School House, Anderson County, Tex., September 8, 1883. He was admitted on trial into the old East Texas Conference at the session held at Longview in December, 1883, and into full connection at Beaumont in 1885. He was ordained deacon by Bishop McTyeire in 1885 and elder by Bishop Duncan in 1887. He served in the East Texas Conference the following charges: Wallisville, Peach Tree, Orange, Augusta, Shelbyville, Lufkin, Jacksonville, Elkhart, and Jefferson. In the fall of 1900 he was transferred to the North Texas Conference and served the following charges: Randolph, Celina, Winnsboro, Nevada, Frisco, Collinsville, Garland, Forney, and Myra. At the session of the North Texas Conference held in 1918, he was granted the superannuate relation and moved to Palestine, Tex., where he lived until he was "called up higher" on May 2, 1932, and his body laid to rest in the family burial grounds at Denson Springs, Anderson County. Brother Burk was married at Ioni, Tex., on November 15, 1881, to Miss Mary Robertson who survives him with one son, Thomas R. Burk. One daughter died in infancy.—Robert Gibbs Mood.

W. B. MARTIN was born in Floyd County, Ga., September 19, 1865. At the age of twenty he came to Texas. He was married to Miss Allie Stephens on December 26, 1888. To this union two children were born. He was married a second time to Mrs. Laura Whittle on August 16, 1893. To this union one child was born. He died June 21, 1932, at his home in Harmony, on the Pickton charge. Brother Martin started preaching in young manhood, but never joined the Conference until 1904, when he joined the Northwest Texas Conference. Later he transferred to the North Texas Conference on account of his wife's health. Because of failing health Brother Martin superannuated about ten years ago. Those who survive him are: His wife, Mrs. Laura Martin, two daughters, Mrs. Willie Moore, Mrs. Maggie Anderson, and two stepsons, George and Willmer Whittle, and eight grandchildren. The funeral service was conducted at Harmony Methodist Church by his pastor, assisted by J. Sam Barcus, presiding elder of the Sulphur Springs District, C. D. King, Jr., of Winnsboro, and Jack Alford, Baptist minister of Pickton.—Frank Wilkinson.

E. L. SPURLOCK was born August 16, 1866, on a farm two and a half miles East of Wolfe City, Tex. He was educated at Polytechnic College, Fort Worth, Tex., and took the A.B. degree in 1896. He joined the North Texas Conference at Paris in November, 1896, Bishop Keener presiding. His appointments were: Denison Mission, 1896-97; Bells Circuit, 1898-1900; Debra Hill and Duncanville, 1900-01; Cooper charge, 1901-02; Celeste, 1902-03. He came to Sherman in the fall of 1904 and was pastor of Key Memorial Church about four months, when he was appointed business manager of Kidd-Key College, and served as such until 1913, when he took the supernumerary relation and moved to Greenville, where he lived until 1923. During that time he assisted Wesley College in raising money for its administration building. In 1923 he was elected President of Kidd-Key College at Sherman, Tex., which position he held until June 1, 1928, when he moved his residence to Dallas, Tex., and continued to reside there until his death which took place in the summer of 1932. Brother Spurlock was converted early in life, joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and remained a faithful and true member until released by death and called up on high.—Tom J. Beckham.

Ques. 14. What preachers have died during the year? W. B. Reese. 1.

WILLIAM BRYANT REESE was born near Asheville, N. C., February 4, 1848, and passed to his reward August 21, 1931. He was married to Miss Anna Robertson in Chattanooga, Tenn., February 6, 1888. To this union were born three children, Thomas Carvossa, John H., and Willie (now Mrs. F. C. Lamb) Reese. All are living and were present at the funeral services held in Milton, Oregon. The wife and mother had already gone before to welcome her life partner on the other shore. One brother also survives, Thomas C. Reese, Wapato, Wash. Dr. Reese was in early life converted and united with the M. E. Church, South, of which he was a consistent member until his death. He came West in 1892 and settled in northern Idaho, where he reared his children, educating them in the public schools of that State until he placed them in Columbia College, Milton, Oregon. For a number of years Dr. Reese was probate judge at Lewiston, Idaho, which office he filled with credit to himself and efficiency to the county. At the same time he continued in the practice of medicine, to which a large part of his life was devoted. Before coming West he was received into the ministry of his Church. Later he joined the Northwest Conference, in which he served several charges with faithful and acceptable service. For several years past he was a retired minister of his Church, in whose communion he found delightful fellowship and his highest earthly joy.—H. S. Shangle.

JAMES K. FLORENCE was born October 5, 1845, in the State of Alabama, and died at the Soldiers' Hospital in Sulphur, Okla., January 3, 1932. He moved to the Indian Territory in 1874 and was licensed to preach in the Methodist Church in 1880. He began supply work in the Indian Mission Conference in 1884. For the last twenty years he has been superannuated, but did not let that stop his work. He was converted in an old-fashioned camp meeting in Cherokee County, Tex., where he had moved with his father when twelve years of age. Funeral service was conducted in the Methodist Church at Paoli, Okla. J. D. Stout, C. P. D. Mann, S. W. Franklin, and John Wesley Dowdy conducted the service. The Masons took charge of the body with their ritual service. The body was placed in the Florence Chapel Cemetery, about eight miles from Pauls Valley.—John Wesley Dowdy.

LAWRENCE MARSHALL DALY, son of Dr. J. W. and Maria Munn Daly, was born near Bodcaw, Ark., November 7, 1865. He was educated in law and admitted to the bar by the Supreme Court of Arkansas in the year 1887. He was married to Miss Ora Howell January 21, 1891, at Lewisville, Ark. Under the call of God he discontinued the practice of law, was licensed to preach and admitted on trial into the Little Rock Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in the fall of 1894. He was ordained deacon in 1896 and admitted into full connection. He was ordained elder in 1898. He located at his own request and moved to Oklahoma. He was readmitted into the East Oklahoma Conference which met at Okmulgee, November 1-5, 1911, and served the following charges in that Conference: Antlers, 1911-13;

Okemah, 1913-14; Kiowa, 1914-15; Waunette, 1915-16; Konowa, 1916-17; Caddo, 1917-18; Atoka, 1918-19; Quinton, 1919-20. He was granted the superannuate relation at the Conference which met at Wagoner, Okla., October 27-31, 1920. He died at Lewisville, Ark., January 12, 1932. He is survived by his wife, two brothers (M. G. and Walter Daly), and two sisters (Mrs. W. M. Garner and Mrs. Lawrence Riley).—Sidney H. Babcock.

ORVA SILAS SNELL was born October 9, 1867, in Mercer County, Ill., and was married to Miss Bessie Yarde, of Alexis, Ill., March 23, 1899. He was converted in the United Brethren Church, but joined the Methodist Church in early life. He died at Muskogee, Okla., March 4, 1932. Brother Snell was admitted on trial into the East Oklahoma Conference in 1911 and served at Stillwell, Vian, Coalgate, McAlester, Shawnee, Sasakwa, and other charges. The funeral was held in First Church, Muskogee, where he was licensed to preach and later admitted on trial. The service was conducted by R. S. Satterfield, L. S. Barton, A. N. Averyt, and the writer. He is survived by his widow and one brother, C. A. Snell.—R. T. Blackburn.

JAMES CALVIN SCIVALLY was born February 4, 1852, in the State of Tennessee, and died July 16, 1932, at the home of a relative near Mangum, Okla. He was ordained local deacon and admitted on trial into the Indian Mission Conference at White Bead Hill in 1884, Bishop Hargrove presiding, and appointed to Burneyville Circuit, which he served two years. He served Lone Grove Circuit, 1886-87; Mill Creek Circuit, 1888; Dougherty Circuit, 1889. He was ordained elder by Bishop Hendrix at Muskogee, I. T., in October, 1890, and appointed to Velma Circuit. He was appointed to Marlow Circuit in 1891; Bush Springs Circuit, 1892; Simon, 1893; Marietta, 1894; supernumerary, 1895; Mannsville and Oakland, 1896; Oakland, 1897; Overbrook Circuit, 1899; Edwardsville Circuit, 1900; superannuate, 1902; Ravia Circuit, 1903; superannuate, 1904; Carter Avenue, Ardmore, 1905; supernumerary in 1906, the year the name of the Conference was changed to Oklahoma; Mangum Circuit, 1907-09; Vincon Circuit, 1910. When the Conference was divided in 1911, he was placed in the West Oklahoma Conference and stationed at Vinson, where he served three years; Duke Station, 1914; Vinson Circuit, 1915; Brinkman and Deer Creek, 1916-18; Vinson, 1919; North Mangum, 1920; Randlett, 1921; superannuate from 1922 until his death. Twelve years ago J. W. Sims held the funeral of Mrs. Scivally, and on July 17, 1932, assisted by E. A. Reed, T. H. Ward, R. B. Moreland, and C. W. McNeeley, he held Brother Scivally's funeral at Vinson, Okla. Brother Scivally's body was laid to rest beside that of his wife in the cemetery at Vinson.

CHARLES W. CLAY was born one mile east of Carlisle, Ky., April 15, 1868. His father died when Charles was a small boy and his mother later married Andrew Shroat, of Nicholas County, Ky. He was educated in the public schools of Kentucky, and in Kentucky Wesleyan College. He was admitted on trial into the Kentucky Conference in 1895, and served the following charges: Whitesburg and Hindman, two years; East Pulaski, one year; Preacherville, one year; Clay City, two years. In 1901 he transferred to the Indian Mission Conference, and served the following charges: Lone Grove Circuit, 1901-03; Durant Circuit, 1904; Hartshorne and Haileyville, 1905-07; Tahlequah, 1908; Indian Work, 1909. His health failed, and in 1910 he took the supernumerary relation, in which he continued until his death, which occurred at Ardmore, Okla., November 7, 1931. Brother Clay was married to Miss Mary E. Seago, of St. Louis, Mo. At the time of his marriage he and his wife were engaged in missionary work. After his retirement he resided in Ardmore, Okla., and was for a number of years the Surveyor of Carter County. Some years ago he purchased a farm near Ardmore on which oil was discovered, out of the proceeds of which he gave between $5,000 and $10,000 to Kentucky Wesleyan College. He had a great love for boys and girls, and was deeply interested in their education. Out of the money derived from his oil interests he sent two boys and two girls through Kentucky Wesleyan College. He leaves his wife and one sister. Funeral services were conducted in Ardmore on November 9 by the writer, assisted by George W. Lewis, after which the body was laid to rest in Rose Hill Cemetery, Ardmore.—R. E. L. Morgan.

A. B. L. HUNKAPILLAR was born June 1, 1856, near Montgomery, Ala. He was given the victory over death on October 2, 1932, at Sulphur, Okla. He was united in holy matrimony on October 24, 1882, to Miss Alpharetta Stephenson. To this union nine children were born. Two died in early childhood. One daughter, Genevieve, died January 9, 1929. Six children survive: William Hunkapillar, Mrs. Etchel Pearl Williams, Mrs. Emma Fant, Chester Timmons, Lucian Carl, and Edwin Jones Hunkapillar. He leaves also his wife. Brother Hunkapillar was for many years a member of the Masonic Lodge, having at different times served as Master. He was converted in 1881, and one month from the day of his conversion was licensed to preach. For eleven years he served effectively in the local ranks. He was admitted on trial in 1892, and into full connection in 1894. He was ordained deacon in 1884 and elder in 1892. He served appointments in Oklahoma at Davis, Watts, Stigler, Westville, Wagoner, Chickasha, Fort Gibson, Tahlequah, Maude, Roff, McAlester District, Stonewall, Talihina, Wister, Pauls Valley, Minco, Cribbs, Duston, Afton, Adair, and other places. He was at one time Treasurer of his Conference, and served in official places on important Boards and Committees. He was a preacher and leader of great power and influence.—S. W. Franklin.

Ques. 14. What preachers have died during the year? John Wesley Allen. 1.

JOHN WESLEY ALLEN was admitted on trial into the Pacific Conference at Vacaville in 1869 and was appointed to San Bernardino as junior preacher. The following year the Los Angeles Conference was organized and he was appointed to the San Luis Obispo Circuit. Most of his ministerial life was spent within the confines of the Los Angeles Conference. He was called the "Church Builder" of our Southern Methodism in that Conference when I first knew him in 1882. Many of the now prosperous churches all the way from San Luis Obispo to San Diego were organized by him. He served consecutively the following pastoral charges: Carpinteria and Santa Barbara Circuit, 1872; Julian City, 1873; Santa Clara Circuit, 1874. In 1877 he was appointed presiding elder of the San Luis Obispo District, where he served for three years and was then appointed presiding elder of the Los Angeles District. In 1882 he was sent to San Diego and organized what is now our Park Place Church in that city. To enumerate all of his appointments would be to list most of our churches in Southern California. He died at Rosemead, Calif., during the early morning hours of May 7, 1932, and was buried on Sunday afternoon, May 8, under the quiet and beauty of the live-oak trees in the cemetery at Carpinteria with three of his children.—Andrew Adkisson.

JOHN EMORY GODBEY, son of Josiah and Sena Kelly Godbey, was born in Casey County, Ky., August 11, 1839, and died at Barnes Hospital, St. Louis, Mo., February 29, 1932. Dr. Godbey never had a thought of any career save that of the ministry. Though he became a college professor and one of the outstanding scholars of the Church, he received little formal education in his youth. He spent one winter, 1860-61, in St. Charles College, and his college training was finished when that institution closed on account of the Civil War. He joined the St. Louis Conference in 1861, on the famous occasion when the meeting was forced to adjourn from Arrow Rock to Waverly because of the approach of a Federal gunboat. He was appointed to Independence Circuit, beginning thus a ministerial career that continued for seventy-one years, of which fifty-two were in active service and nineteen in the superannuate relation. The appointments he served follow: Independence Circuit, Asbury (St. Louis), Meramec Circuit, Labadie Circuit, Washington, Labadie and Meramec, Washington and St. Clair, Salem District, First (St. Louis), Page Avenue (St. Louis), Cook Avenue (St. Louis), Chouteau Avenue (St. Louis), Kirkwood, Editor of Southwestern Methodist, all in the St. Louis Conference. He served one term as presiding elder of the Kansas City District, Southwest Missouri Conference, then became editor of the Arkansas Methodist, in the Little Rock Conference. He was pastor at Wilmot and Portland, and at Prescott, in the Little Rock Conference, then Professor of Philosophy in Hendrix College. Transferring back to the St. Louis Conference, he served Christy Memorial, St. Louis, and Clayton. He was superannuated in 1913, making his home in Kirkwood. An editor for many years, he was a prolific writer. A missionary book, "Light in Darkness," a "Refutation of Erroneous Views Respecting the Methodist Episcopal Church, South," and "The Methodist Church Member's Manual" were early volumes. The latter and his "Foundations of Faith" were most satisfactory elementary works, now somewhat out of date by reason of advancing knowledge. His autobiography, "Lights and Shadows of Seventy Years," published twenty years ago, is tremendously revealing. His valedictory work was "Pioneer Methodism in Missouri," a little book of sketches of early ministerial labors, published in honor of the author's ninetieth birthday. He was delegate to General Conferences, and taught the Godbey Bible class in Kirkwood Church until he died. Dr. Godbey was twice married. In 1865 he was united to Miss Mary Sarah Holloway, of St. Louis County. Their four children passed away, and Mrs. Godbey herself was called home in 1910. In 1911 Dr. Godbey was married to Miss Martha Virginia Dunnivant, of Kirkwood, Mo., who survives him. His own end was known to be near only a week or two before it came. The funeral service was held in Kirkwood Church on March 2. C. W. Tadlock delivered the sermon, as requested by Dr. Godbey. William E. Brown, C. W. Webdell, L. E. Todd, Ivan Lee Holt, and his pastor, John L. Taylor, also participated. The Masonic service was given by members of Kirkwood Lodge 484, with Arthur Mather officiating. A great congregation of friends accompanied the body to Oak Hill Cemetery, Kirkwood, where it was laid to rest.—F. E. Williams.

C. L. DENNIS died in the Masonic Home at St. Louis, having served for many years as pastor in the St. Louis Conference. He leaves a wife, a daughter, a son, and their grandchildren. Brother Dennis was never happier than in association with his brethren, and he looked forward each year to the meeting of the Annual Conference. He was happy when he had a chance to do something for his Church or its pastor, and in the last few years of his life he was an agent of the Missouri Home-Finding Society. In that work he sought contributions and placed orphan children in the homes of the people and in the home of the Society. Many little children have been given happiness and a chance in life because of his work. There is not any way to estimate his work, or the character influences of such, and men and women of to-morrow will thank C. L. Dennis for what he did for them as little children. In his illness, which lasted for months, he was patient and ever conscious of God's presence. As Christian in "Pilgrim's Progress" crossed the River of Death, and the water reached to his knees and his waist and his neck, he called back to his fellow-travelers on the bank: "I have reached the deepest part, and I want you to know that my feet are on solid rock. Fear not." Such was the faith of Brother Dennis, and the going of our brethren into the other world so calmly and so courageously strengthens the faith of those of us who are left. May grace be given to us to follow in their train!—J. T. Self.

HENRY HORWOOD JOHNSON.—In the autumn of 1892 a young man from England came to the bar of the Missouri Conference. He had formed in England during the preceding year the acquaintance of Bishop Charles B. Galloway, who invited him to come to the United States and enter into our itinerancy. Bishop Galloway was in charge of the Missouri Conference and desired to make use of him there. He was appointed to Marceline. His ministry was so acceptable that he was thereafter advanced to Brookfield, then to New London and Oakwood, then to Huntsville, to Memphis, to Monroe City, to Albany, to Salisbury, and to Clarence. After this, he became a member of the St. Louis Conference and served at Mount Auburn, Malden, Lafayette Park, Kirkwood, Wagoner Place, Haven Street, and Immanuel. During the Centenary Movement he was the Conference Missionary Secretary. Brother Johnson was an able administrator. He built churches at Huntsville, Clarence, and Malden, and a parsonage at Salisbury. He was born at Bristol, England, July 2, 1866. He was educated in Clifton Grammar Schools in Bristol. In his early manhood he was employed in the offices of the Great Western Railway of England. He early joined the Wesleyan Methodist Church and soon became a local preacher, being licensed at Gotham Church, in which he was a charter member of the Sunday school. For five years he did the work of a local preacher in England, where local preachers are constantly active in supplying preaching engagements. He had a part in founding a mission which is now a large congregation. After two years in this country, he was made happy by the arrival from Bristol of Miss Kate Elizabeth Morgan, whom he had known and loved before he left his native land.

He and Miss Morgan were married on August 25, 1894. Mrs. Johnson and their son, Leslie Morgan Johnson, live now at Kirkwood. Only one other child was born in the Johnson home and that was a son who died in infancy. At the Conference session of 1931 he requested superannuation. His survival thereafter was brief. On November 4, 1931, his Master called him to take his place in the final kingdom of the blessed. His body was taken for the funeral service to Immanuel Church where he had served the previous year. They carried his body to its last resting place in Memorial Park Cemetery.—Alfred F. Smith.

WILLIAM HARRISON PASCHALL, son of William M. and Sarah A. Paschall, was born October 26, 1852, in Pontotoc County, Miss. He was converted in May, 1873, at Louisa Chapel, Frenchman's Bayou Circuit, under the ministry of A. Conley and joined the Church at the same time and place. He was licensed to preach October 3, 1874, by the Quarterly Conference of Frenchman's Bayou Circuit, W. R. Young, preacher, and W. R. Foster, presiding elder. The same Quarterly Conference also recommended him for admission on trial, and he was received into the White River Conference at Searcy, Ark., in 1874. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Kavanaugh at Augusta, Ark., on November 18, 1877, and was located at the same Conference. He was readmitted into the St. Louis Conference in 1886 and was ordained elder by Bishop Hendrix on September 28, 1888, at Bonne Terre, Mo. In the St. Louis Conference he served the following charges: Doniphan Circuit, Greenville Circuit, Van Buren Circuit, Advance Circuit, Fairdealing Circuit, Shiloh Circuit, Barnesville Circuit, Manchester and Fenton, Rolla Circuit. He was married to Nancy S. Lewis in 1886, and to this union three children were born, only one of them living to womanhood, Mrs. J. H. Clark. His wife died in March, 1890. He later married Etta Jane Bates, and three children survive this union, Mrs. J. R. Rowden, Paul and Roy Paschall. This wife died December 4, 1905. He was married to Miss Cora Wilson, of DeSoto, Mo., in 1909, and there are three children by that marriage, Naomi, Marvin, and Robert. Brother Paschall passed to his reward on September 10, 1932, and his body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Birch Tree, Mo.—William J. Velvick.

FRANK P. JERNIGAN was born in Middle Tennessee in 1874. He was admitted on trial into the White River Conference about thirty-two years ago. He was transferred to the Florida Conference in 1900. Two years later he transferred back to the North Arkansas Conference. He then transferred to the Western Virginia Conference and served two years in Charleston, W. Va., and two years in Louisa, Ky. He transferred to the St. Louis Conference in 1924 and served Farmington four years. He was a superannuate two years on account of ill health, became again effective, and was closing his second year at Bismarck when called to his reward.—John T. Self.

J. F. E. BATES came to us in 1922 and soon made his way into our councils and into our hearts. Before coming to us he had given a fruitful ministry to Methodism in Arkansas and North Carolina, laboring successfully in such important fields as Rogers, Van Buren, Forrest City, Newport, Ark., and Rocky Mount, N. C. He continued this fine work in our own Conference, serving Bertrand, Chaffee, West Plains, Haven Street (St. Louis), and Sikeston. In the midst of a fine work this tall son of God passed, almost without warning, through the experience we so awkwardly call death. No prolonged sickness kept him idle—and for this he would have been thankful. The whole community was stunned as it learned that he had left them. His presiding elder, R. H. Kleiser, was in charge of the funeral services. His lifelong friend, M. N. Waldrip, preached the sermon. The vested choir of his own Sikeston church sang. From this funeral at the Sikeston church, his body was taken back to Rogers, Ark., for a funeral in the church he built, and for burial there. He is survived by his wife, a daughter, Mary, and a son, William. January 14, 1876, to September 21, 1932, was the span of life for him before the fuller measure of eternal life began. Thirty-four of these years he gave to the ministry of preaching in the Kingdom of Jesus.—J. C. Montgomery.

DANIEL MELVIN MCLEOD was born in Bishopville, S. C., October 1, 1866. His father and mother, William James and Amada Rogers McLeod, were faithful members of the Methodist Church. In 1886 Brother McLeod entered Wofford College with the freshman class of that year. In his junior year Thomas H. Leitch, an evangelist, and his singer, Fred Marshall, conducted revival services in Central Methodist Church, Spartanburg, S. C., and during these services Brother McLeod was clearly converted. Following this definite experience in his life came the quiet but firm impression that he was called of God to preach the gospel. In June of 1890 he graduated from Wofford College with the degree of A.B. The following month he was granted license to preach and that fall entered the Theological Department of Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tenn. In the early summer of 1892 he completed the English course in theology and that fall joined the South Carolina Conference. His first charge was Sumter Circuit, where he served one year as junior pastor. Other charges he served were: Union, Chester, Sumter, Trinity (Charleston), Sumter District, Marion Station, Bethel (Charleston), and his last appointment was Central, Florence. On January 10, 1900, he was married to Miss Bertie Guyton and to them nine children were born, all of whom survive him. For many years he held the position of Chairman of the Board of Missions. He was treasurer of the Sunday School Board. Three times he was elected a delegate to the General Conference: 1918, 1922, and 1930. He served as a member of the Commission on Constitution, the Board of Education, and for a number of years, as a trustee of Wofford College. In 1919 he was given the honorary title of Doctor of Divinity by the South Carolina University. In the spring of his second year at Central, Florence, he was taken sick. Realizing his inability to do further work, he asked for the superannuate relation, which was granted him at the Conference held in Sumter, November 12, 1931; but this relation he held for less than a month, for on December 8, 1931, he passed to his eternal home.—Thomas G. Herbert.

HUGH WALKER WHITAKER was born in Hart County, Ga., March 9, 1849. He went to his eternal reward February 25, 1932. He was the son of Rev. and Mrs. D. L. Whitaker. From that home of deep religious influence came three ministers of the gospel: Milford Flavius Whitaker (deceased), G. R. Whitaker, and Hugh Walker Whitaker, to whom we pay tribute in this memoir. Beside these there was one other brother, J. Talley Whitaker, who died some years ago. Brother Whitaker had deep religious convictions from childhood and at an early age was converted and joined the Methodist Church. After such preparation as local schools could give, he attended the Cokesbury Conference School under George F. Round. Brother Whitaker joined the Conference in 1871, and his first appointments were those of junior preacher on the Newberry and Cokesbury Circuits. On September 24, 1874, he was married to Miss Nancy Carrie Sligh, of Newberry. Eight children, all surviving, blessed their union: Mrs. C. A. Schumpert, Mrs. O. H. Lane, H. D., W. S., G. W., Paul, M. B., and Lander Whitaker. His appointments were as follows: Newberry Circuit, junior preacher, 1872; Cokesbury Circuit, junior preacher, 1873; Ellington Circuit, 1874; located at the close of 1874 and was readmitted in 1877; North Newberry Circuit, 1878; North Laurens, 1879; Conwayboro, 1880; Lexington Fork, 1881-82; Fort Mill, 1883-84; Tradesville, 1885; Chesterfield, 1886-87; Cypress, 1888; Ridgeville, 1889-90; Saluda Circuit, 1891; Abbeville Circuit, 1892-93; Westminster, 1894. Transferred to the North Carolina Conference and appointed to Cumberland, 1895; Silver City, 1896; supernumerary, 1897-98. Transferred back to the South Carolina Conference and appointed to Walhalla, 1899; Saluda (Butler), 1900-03; Verdery, 1904; McCormick, 1905; Prosperity, 1906-09; Hickory Grove, 1910; Rock Hill Circuit, 1911; Ehrhardt, 1912; Swansea, 1913; supernumerary, 1914-18; superannuate, 1919; Dorchester, 1920-21; Cottageville, 1922-23; Grover, 1924-25; superannuate, 1926-32. After his superannuation he came back to spend his last days in the same county where he had spent his first days in the ministry. He had many friends in Newberry.—J. F. Lupo.

THOMAS BURNETT OWENS was born February 22, 1853, at Hartlepool, Durham County, England. He was the son of John and Mary Hannah Owen. As a child he was educated in private schools, and then as a youth studied for two years in Walworth College, Pierremont Crescent, Darlington, Durham County, England. While yet in his teens, he came with his father to America and settled on a farm in Sumter County, S. C. The call to preach came in childhood, and it grew into an abiding conviction that this was to be his life work. He was licensed to preach by the Sumter District Conference held in Lynchburg, S. C., in 1885, T. J. Clyde being the presiding elder. After serving as a local preacher for some years, he was admitted on trial into the South Carolina Conference held in Darlington in December, 1904, Bishop Wilson presiding. At the same time and place he was ordained deacon. Brother Owen's appointments were as follows: Johnsonville, 1902-03; Santuc, 1904-06; Gaffney Circuit, 1907-09; Belmont, 1910-11; East Chesterfield, 1912-15; Liberty Circuit, 1916. At the close of 1916 he took the supernumerary relation, and in 1922 he was superannuated. For six years he lived at Wilkesboro, N. C., and in 1923 he came to Chesterfield, S. C., where he spent the remaining years of his life. On February 14, 1882, he was married to Miss Elizabeth Broadway, of Clarendon County, S. C. She died January 4, 1902. Of this union two children survive: Mrs. N. G. Broadway and Thomas Reynolds Owen. His second marriage, May 4, 1902, was to Mrs. Nannie O. Poston, of Johnsonville, S. C. At the time of his death she was very ill, and she passed away less than a month after her husband, August 3, 1932. An older brother, John Owen, was a member of our Conference. A nephew, William C. Owen, was also a member of our Conference, and was for several years a member of the staff of the General Sunday School Board of our entire Church, at Nashville, Tenn. Two brothers yet live: Alfred and R. N. Owen. Three of his sisters are still living: Mrs. E. S. Booth, Mrs. Margaret Dixon, and Mrs. Lizzie Johnson. After a serious illness of several weeks, Brother Owen fell on sleep in Sumter, S. C., July 13, 1932. The next day the funeral service was held in the home of his son, T. R. Owen, in Sumter, and his body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Andrew Chapel, between Summerton and Pinewood. His presiding elder, J. T. Fowler, conducted the services, assisted by C. C. Herbert, William G. Moore of the First Baptist Church, R. R. Tucker, George W. Davis, G. L. Ingram, J. A. Campbell, and the writer.—Albert D. Betts.

HENRY LEE SINGLETON, son of Miles P. and Martha J. Singleton, was born at Esley, S. C., April 4, 1868. His education was in the primary and grammar schools of the county, from which he went to Leesville College, of which Prof. Lawson B. Haynes was then president. Later he attended Wofford College and in 1903 took a lecture course at Vanderbilt in further preparation for his life work. He was licensed to preach in 1898, and admitted on trial into the South Carolina Conference in 1899. Ordination to deacon's and elder's orders followed in the regular course, 1901 and 1903. Charges served by him were Marion Circuit and Mills, 1900; Loris and Little River, 1901; Mount Carmel, 1902; Harpers, 1903-04; Bucksville, 1905-06; Blackstock, 1907-08; Lancaster Circuit, 1909; Loris, 1910. While serving the Bucksville charge in 1906, he was married to Miss Mary Carolyn Butler, of the Camp Swamp section, near Loris. Only a few years, however, did health allow Brother Singleton to continue in the active service of the ministry. Broken in health, at the close of the year 1910, he took the supernumerary relation. He took the superannuate relation at the Conference session in Mullins, 1930. Through these twenty-two years he suffered greatly. At last the brave spirit was released from the suffering body and, on September 8, 1932, went home to God. Surviving are his widow and two daughters, Mrs. Worth B. (Lillian Lucille) Suggs and Annie Lee. Funeral services were conducted by his presiding elder, J. H. Graves, assisted by his pastor, Paul T. Wood. Burial was in the Patterson Cemetery, Loris.—E. O. Watson.

WALTER ISAAC HERBERT, son of Rev. Thomas G. and Harriet Bryce Herbert, was born April 6, 1864, and passed to his reward on high, August 16, 1932. His educational advantages were of the best in the elementary and high schools of the communities in which his father served as pastor or presiding elder. His college education was at Wofford, of which institution he was an A.B. graduate in 1885. Licensed to preach a few weeks after his graduation from Wofford College in June, 1885, he was recommended for admission on trial into the South Carolina Conference, and was received into the traveling connection December 10, 1885, at Columbia, S. C. His first appointment was Spartanburg City Mission, but during the year, to meet a Conference emergency, he was transferred to Cheraw Station, which he served for the full period allowed. Other appointments were: Union, 1890-91; Laurens, 1892-94; Florence, 1895-98; Newberry, 1899-1902; Main Street, Columbia, 1903-06; Trinity, Charleston, 1907; Charleston District, 1908-11; Sumter District, 1912-13; Commissioner of Education, 1914-15; Cokesbury District, 1916-17; Bethel, Spartanburg, 1918; Men's Club for Soldiers, Columbia, 1919; Marion Station, 1920-21; Bennettsville, 1922-25; Darlington, 1926-29; Bishopville, 1930-32. He served the Conference in many positions of responsibility and trust such as the Board of Missions, of which he was treasurer for eight years; trustee of Cokesbury Conference School, trustee of Epworth Orphanage for some twenty-five years, Chairman of the Board of Church Extension for twelve years, President of the South Carolina Conference Brotherhood, and Trustee of Lake Junaluska. At the request of the Woman's Missionary Societies he wrote the story of the work of the Woman's Missionary Society in South Carolina entitled "Fifty Wonderful Years." On June 26, 1889, he was married to Miss Constance T. Furman, of Greenville, S. C. The wife, with eight sons and daughters, survive him. One son, James Carlisle, lies in a soldier's grave in St. Mihiel, France. One daughter, Constance, died in infancy and beside her grave the father's was made. One son, James Furman Herbert, is a member of the North Carolina Conference. A daughter, Anne Elizabeth, is a medical missionary in China. Two daughters are home makers, Frances (Mrs. H. H. Lester) and Sarah (Mrs. Hughes Roberts). Two are teachers in the public schools of the State, Miss Harriet Bryce Herbert and Miss Dorothea Furman Herbert. There are two other sons, Walter Chesley Herbert and Henry Williams Herbert (medical student in Emory University).—E. O. Watson.

SAMUEL D. BAILEY was born in Newberry, S. C., July 29, 1859, and grew to young manhood in Lexington County. He was the son of Rev. James H. and Sarah Boorer Bailey. He was educated in the schools of Lexington and at Leesville High School. In addition, he studied under private tutors. On December 22, 1896, he was married to Miss Mary Campbell. This union continued till it was severed by his death. To this couple were born T. B. Bailey, Mrs. E. R. Poston, Mrs. Cecil Keels, J. H. and Herbert Bailey. After having served for several years as a supply, Brother Bailey was admitted on trial in 1903. As pastor he served the following charges:

St. John's, Camden, 1896-97; Wateree, 1898; Sumter Circuit, 1899-1900; Paxville, 1901; Bethany, 1902-03; Jefferson, 1904; Jordan, 1905-06; Magnolia Street, Sumter, 1907; Hickory Grove, 1908-09; Rock Hill Circuit, 1910; Branchville, 1911; Kershaw, 1912-15; Pinewood, 1916; McBee, 1917-19; Blenheim, 1920-22; Johnsonville, 1923-24; Mullins Circuit, 1925-27; Jefferson, 1928-29; New Zion, 1930-32. He died at New Zion on August 17, 1932. The funeral was conducted from Trinity Church, Sumter, on August 18, by the writer, with G. F. Kirby, S. O. Cantey, M. L. Banks, J. H. Graves, and E. O. Watson assisting. Following the funeral his body was buried near that of his old friend F. H. Shuler in the cemetery at Sumter.—E. K. Garrison.

Ques. 8. Who are readmitted? None.

Ques. 9. Who are received by transfer from other Conferences? J. E. Ellis, T. H. Williams, B. L. Betts, elders, from the North Georgia Conference. 3.

Ques. 10. Who are received from other Churches as traveling preachers? Fred C. Meyer, a deacon, from the Evangelical Church. 1.

Ques. 11. Who are located this year? O. C. Mingleddorf, at his own request. 1.

Ques. 12. Who have withdrawn or been expelled? None.

Ques. 13. Who are transferred to other Conferences? W. H. Budd, Felton Williams, M. R. Heflin, elders, to the North Georgia Conference; Royal Page, to the Florida Conference. 4.

Ques. 14. What preachers have died during the year? Guyton Fisher. 1.

GUYTON FISHER, son of Dr. Harris and Julia Guyton Fisher, was born in Dublin, Ga., April 2, 1871. The family moved to Eastman, Ga., while Guyton was still a small boy. After going through the public school of Eastman, his father, desiring to make of him a lawyer, put him under the instruction of one of his distinguished kinsmen, Hon. Olin Wimberly, of Macon, Ga. Young Guyton had born in him a strong desire to be a physician. After the untimely death of Dr. Fisher, he announced to his mother that he wanted to be a physician and she sent him to Baltimore to study medicine. While at home a few months later, working to get funds to finish medical college, he drifted into a revival in McRae and was converted and called to preach. At the time he felt called to the ministry he was engaged to a young woman who later became his wife. Feeling that he was under obligation to release her, since their engagement was somewhat based on an altogether different career in life, he wrote her a letter to that effect. Mrs. Fisher, then Mrs. Robert F. Avant, of Cordele, Ga., replied that she was happy to be a preacher's helpmate instead of the wife of a doctor. They lived together for thirty-eight years, and two children were born unto them: Guyton, Jr., and Emma Love, who married Robert F. Tatum. Brother Fisher was received on trial into the South Georgia Conference in December, 1894, and served as follows: Claxton Circuit, 1894; Dexter, 1895; Abbeville Station, 1896-97; Statesboro Station, 1898; transferred to the Pacific Conference and served a church in Los Angeles, 1899-1902; Redlands Station, 1903; transferred back to South Georgia and served Trinity, Savannah, 1904-05; St. Paul, Columbus, 1906-08; Fitzgerald, 1909-11; Centenary, Macon, 1912-13; Montezuma, 1914-16; Quitman, 1917-18; First Church, Americus, 1919-22; Douglas, 1923-24; First Church, Brunswick, 1925-26; Blakely, 1927-28; Pelham, 1929-31. In the summer of 1931 while at Pelham a malignant attack of influenza so shattered his nerves that he was compelled to vacate his church and at the last Annual Conference in Savannah he asked for the superannuate relation. He and his wife went to Miami to live with their son, Guyton, Jr. He seemed to improve until September 5, 1932, when he gave way under a sudden attack and his spirit left his frail tenement for the "house not made with hands." His body lies in Woodlawn Park Cemetery, Miami, and his widow is making her home in that city with Guyton, Jr.—C. A. Jackson.

Ques. 15. Who are the deacons of one year? Frank Gilmore, L. H. Cochran, George E. Rosser, L. M. Spivey. 4.

Ques. 16. Who else is in the class of the fourth year? None.

Local preachers, William Park Smith, Samuel Luttrell Akers, John Wesley Parham, Simon Newsome Carver. 4.

Ques. 18. What traveling preachers and what local preachers have been ordained deacons? Traveling preachers, Elman Robert Lewis, Melvin Eugene Peavy, John Gordon Ivey. 3. Local preachers, William Park Smith, Samuel Luttrell Akers, John Wesley Parham, Simon Newsome Carver. 4.

Ques. 19. What traveling preachers and what local preachers have been elected elders? Traveling preachers, Carl Tillman Lawhorne, Roy Lester Gardner, Samuel James Brown, Charles Arthur Jackson, Jr., James Owen Stanaland, Carey Carl Smoak, Frederick Bryan Hooks. 7. Local preachers, none.

Ques. 20. What traveling preachers and what local preachers have been ordained elders? Traveling preachers, Carl Tillman Lawhorne, Roy Lester Gardner, Samuel James Brown, Charles Arthur Jackson, Jr., James Owen Stanaland, Carey Carl Smoak, Frederick Bryan Hooks. 7. Local preachers, none.

Ques. 21. Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration? They were called, one by one, and their characters examined and passed.

Ques. 22. Who are supernumerary? None.

Ques. 23. Who are superannuated? Bascom Anthony, L. J. Ballard, W. M. Blitch, C. C. Boland, M. B. Boykin, H. C. Brewton, J. T. Budd, T. M. Christian, C. T. Clark, F. L. Coleman, J. W. Connors, W. K. GILLMORE LEE COFFMAN was born November 15, 1873, near Marshall, Mo. His

boyhood and early manhood were spent in Saline County. He attended the Marshall public schools and high school, and later Missouri Valley College. Brother Coffman was united in marriage December 24, 1903, to Miss Ida Campbell, who, with one daughter, Mary Maude (now Mrs. Hollis Wharton), and two sons, Lee and Logan Coffman, survive him. He was received on trial into the Southwest Missouri Conference at the session held at Marshall in 1901. He was admitted to deacon's orders in 1913 and was ordained elder by Bishop E. R. Hendrix at the session held at Butler in 1905. His appointments were as follows: Nelson and Blackwater, Dover, Chilhowee, Appleton City, Julian (Nebr.), Sweet Springs, Pilot Grove, Peculiar, South Prospect, Malta Bend, Bucyrus, and the last four years at Gilliam. He was granted the superannuate relation at the last session of the Conference and on October 19 his spirit ascended to be forever with God. The funeral services were conducted by the writer in the church at Gilliam. He was laid to rest in Ridge Park Cemetery at Marshall, Mo. —J. E. McDonald.

LAFAYETTE ELLIOTT CONKIN was born in Tompkinsville, Ky., July 28, 1878. On Saturday, March 5, 1932, as he and his wife were returning home after visiting one of the church families, he was suddenly stricken with a heart attack. Friends assisted him to his home, but he passed away before medical attention could reach him. He joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in 1904 at Ladonia, Tex. In 1905 he joined the North Texas Conference and was ordained elder in 1913. During his ministry he served the following charges:

Quinlan and Boise City, Tex.; Broken Bow, Okla.; Clayton and Carrizozo, N. Mex.; Calico Rock, Charleston, and Kensit, Ark. In May, 1930, he was transferred to the Southwest Missouri Conference and stationed at Joplin, Mo. In September, 1931, he was appointed pastor of St. Luke's Church, Springfield, Mo. For nearly five years he served as an evangelist in the Texas Conference, with the late R. E. Houston as his singer. On October 10, 1919, he was married to Jean Wrenn, in Boise City, Tex. He is survived by his wife, two brothers, G. F. Conkin and Lowrey Conkin, and one sister, Mrs. Charlie Reecer. Funeral services were held in St. Luke's Church on Sunday, March 6, by H. U. Campbell, presiding elder, assisted by E. W. Potter, W. L. Perryman, B. W. Hughes, and J. A. Young. There were seven other ministers present. The body was taken to Glasgow, Ky., for services Tuesday afternoon and then laid to rest in the cemetery at Tompkinsville, Ky.—H. U. Campbell.

JAMES S. EMERY, the fifth child of John and Sarah Sutton Emery, was born in Tennessee on August 19, 1862, and departed this life at Bronaugh, Mo., April 5, 1932. Soon after his father's death, which occurred when he was but a few years of age, the family moved to Fulton County, Ark. Here he secured such schooling as was available at that time in the public schools. He was converted during his teens and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. When he was about twenty years old he felt and yielded to the call of God and entered the ministry of the Church. For a number of years he served charges in Arkansas, later transferred to the St. Louis Conference, where he served regularly until 1908, when he transferred to the Southwest Missouri Conference. Here he served the following charges: Pineville, Newtonia Circuit, Seneca and Racine, Smith's Chapel and Shiloh, Willard Circuit, Bois d' Arc, Archie Circuit, Chilhowee and Lucas, Hume and Underwood, Bates City Circuit, and Bronaugh. Brother Emery was twice married. In 1881 he was married to Miss Whiten McConnell. To this union three sons and four daughters were born, only two of whom are living. On May 19, 1901, he was married to Miss Lenna A. Barrett. To this union one son and six daughters were born, all of whom survive him. His funeral was held in the church at Bronaugh, where he spent his last two years as an active minister, and was conducted by J. E. Alexander, his presiding elder, assisted by W. T. Knight, his pastor, and C. R. Dick. Z. M. Williams, J. B. Swinney, W. S. Dabney were present and acted as pallbearers. His body was buried at Seneca, Mo.—J. E. Alexander.

JOHN WESLEY OWEN died at the parsonage in Bates City, Mo., June 11, 1932. He had been ill only a few days. Black Oak, Caldwell County, Mo., was the place of his birth, September 26, 1857. In his death there came to a close a ministry of 52 years in the traveling connection. He was converted and joined the Church when nine years of age. He was licensed to preach at the age of eighteen. His first appointment was Milan, Mo. For twenty years he preached in the Missouri Conference, serving the following charges: Memphis, Paris, Kirksville, La Plata, Shelbina, Marceline and Bucklin, Mexico Circuit, Elmo, Savannah, Skidmore, Triplet, Jamesport, Maysville, Pattonsburg, Mokane. He was transferred to the Southwest Missouri Conference in 1907 and served the following charges: Oak Grove, Peculiar, Garden City, Metz, Wellington, Corder, Houstonia, Bunceton, Longwood, Grain Valley, Miami and Mount Carmel, and Bates City, where he was closing his second year. He was married February 15, 1881, to Miss Lorena Besse and for fifty-two years they walked the pathway of life together. She is left alone to complete the journey. Funeral services were conducted by J. E. McDonald in the church at Oak Grove, Mo., June 12, and interment was made at Oak Grove. J. D. Robins, F. R. Chapman, and J. H. Sneed took part in the service.

WILLIAM JASPER SNOW departed this life at Sweet Springs, Mo., August 29, 1932. He was born in Lafayette County, near Lexington, January 30, 1861. His father was a captain in the Confederate army and lost his life in that memorable struggle. The mother died when William was very small, and Mrs. Sarah McAlister took the orphan child into her home and gave him the affection and care of a mother. He was converted at the age of seventeen. He attended school at Morrisville, Fayette, and Vanderbilt University. He was married October 17, 1889, to Miss Hattie D. Thornton at Drakes Chapel near Clinton, Mo. There were born to this union one daughter, Ruth Edna, who died in infancy, and three sons, David N., Paul T., and William Jewell, who, with the widow, survive him. He was admitted on trial into the Southwest Missouri Conference at the session of 1888 held in Nevada. He was ordained deacon in 1890 by Bishop Joseph S. Key, and ordained elder in 1892 by Bishop Charles B. Galloway. He gave forty-four years of active service to the Church as an itinerant preacher. He served Montserrat Circuit two years, Corder and Blackburn two years, and Lamonte one year. He was then transferred to the Northwest Texas Conference, where he served Midland Station one year and Milford Circuit three years; he was then transferred back to his home Conference. His appointments for a time were as follows: Houstonia Circuit, two years; Buncheon, two years; Pilot Grove and Pleasant Green, six months, when, on account of the threatened condition of Mrs. Snow's health and on urgent advice of the physician, he sought the climate of North Dakota, where he served as pastor in the Methodist Episcopal Church for four years. At the expiration of this time, he came back to Missouri, and supplied the Windsor Circuit for eight months. Then at the next session of the Conference he was appointed to Hume and Underwood, which he served for three years; Butler Station, three years; Malta Bend, one year; Epworth Church, Kansas City, two years; Sunday School Field Agent, one year; Kansas City Circuit, one year; Buckner Circuit, one year; Sweet Springs, four years; Wellington, one year; Buncheon, two years; Appleton City, two years; Prairie Home, two years. Funeral services were held in the church at Sweet Springs the afternoon of August 31. J. E. McDonald was in charge. S. P. Cayton and R. F. Campbell, the only remaining members of the class of 1888, assisted in the service. H. A. Wood offered prayer. His body was laid to rest at Sweet Springs after the words of the ritual of the Church and service by the Masonic order.

Ques. 14. What preachers have died during the year? Berry T. Lannom, Robert Waite, William Henry Klyce, James Thomas Brown, John E. Harrison, William L. Jackson, Payton A. Sowell. 7.

BERRY T. LANNOM was born December 18, 1871, and died December 18, 1931. He became a Christian in his early youth and joined the Missionary Baptist Church and was for a number of years a minister in that Church. He transferred to the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in the year 1904. Brother Lannom was twice married. He has by his first wife one daughter, Mrs. W. H. Page, who survives him. He is also survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary McAfee Lannom, one son, Edgar Lannom, and one daughter, Mrs. J. L. Thaxton. Brother Lannom had a stroke of paralysis at Manchester a few years ago from which he never recovered. He spent his latter days in McMinnville, Tenn. Brother Lannom served the following appointments: Ashland City, South Side, Cornersville, Lebanon Circuit, Lynnville, Thompson Station, Tracy City, McMinnville Station, Savannah, and Manchester. He was transferred to the Oklahoma Conference, where he served for four years. He also served for two years as Conference Evangelist in the Tennessee Conference. His funeral was from the Methodist Church of McMinnville, Tenn., conducted by his pastor and his presiding elder, G. A. Morgan, assisted by all the pastors of the town.—W. W. Pullen.

ROBERT WAITE died March 10, 1932, at his home in Murfreesboro, Tenn. He served the following charges: Sandyhook, Savannah Mission, Mount Auburn, Sparta Mission, Woodbury, Almaville Circuit, Eagleville Circuit, Santa Fe Circuit, Bethlehem Circuit, White Circuit, Prospect, Cornersville, Lynchburg, and was beginning his first year on the Blanche charge when he had a paralytic stroke from which he never recovered and which caused him much suffering for six years. Brother Waite was born in Coffee County, Tenn., February 13, 1874. He attended school in Winchester, Tenn., and joined the Tennessee Conference in 1901. He was married to Miss Dora Elizabeth Burns, of Clifton, January 31, 1904. This union was blessed by five children, who, with their mother, survive him. The children are Anderson, Marietta, Robert, Jessie, and Nina. The funeral was held at the First Methodist Church in Murfreesboro, the following brethren taking part: J. R. Parsons, O. P. Gentry, John Baggett, J. T. Cotton, and Vaughn Fultz, pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. He was buried in the cemetery at Murfreesboro.—J. L. Smothermon.

WILLIAM HENRY KLYCE, son of James Harvey and Mary Caroline Klyce, was born at Mount Pleasant, Tenn., February 11, 1853. In August, 1871, he was converted and joined the Methodist Church. Realizing the call of God upon him, he asked for and received license to preach, and in the fall of 1872 he entered Webb School, at Culleoka, Tenn., to prepare for his life work. Finishing Webb School in 1875, he entered Vanderbilt University that fall, where he continued as a student for two years. In October, 1877, at Tulip Street Church, Nashville, Tenn., he was admitted on trial into the Tennessee Conference. Heeding a call for workers for the Northwest, he transferred at once to the Columbia Conference and spent five years in this difficult territory, serving Albany, Oakland, and other places in Oregon. He was then transferred to the Los Angeles Conference, where he was for two years presiding elder of the San Luis Obispo District, and for one year pastor of Santa Ana Station. He then transferred to the Northwest Texas Conference, where he served Belton Circuit for one year and Brownwood Station for one year. After ten years' ministry in the West, Brother Klyce returned to his native State in the fall of 1887 to complete his ministry in the Tennessee Conference. Here he served in succession the following charges: Bellbuckle, Wartrace, Arlington, Dickson, Sparta, Salem and Walnut Grove, Asbury Circuit, Antioch Circuit, Sadlers and Adams, Erin, Charlotte Circuit, Cornersville, Nolensville, and Franklin Circuit. In the fall of 1907 Brother Klyce asked for and was granted the superannuate relation. While in Oregon Brother Klyce met and married Miss Hettie V. Winniford. This marriage took place September 18, 1879. To this union six sons and two daughters were born. Two of the sons died in infancy. The other children all lived to maturity. His oldest son, Battle Hargrove, met a tragic death three or four years ago as a result of a steamboat accident on the Mississippi River. His oldest daughter, Miss Mary, died a few weeks before her father. He went away after a brief illness April 7, 1932. His wife, three sons, Winniford W., William Henry, Jr., and Paul, and one daughter, Mrs. Frances Bridges, wife of Dr. T. F. Bridges, survive him. The funeral service was conducted at Blakemore Church, April 8, 1932, by William H. Johnston, W. F. Tillett, and the writer. His body was laid to rest in Mount Olivet Cemetery. — George L. Beale.

JAMES THOMAS BROWN, son of James P. and Nancy Ellen Brown, was born near Westmoreland, Sumner County, Tenn., November 18, 1879. He departed this life in the city of Nashville on May 15, 1932, and his body was interred three days later in the Pleasant Grove Cemetery. T. C. Ragsdale was the principal speaker at the funeral, but was assisted by several of the following brethren of the ministry who were present: Anderson, Baggett, Bratcher, Estes, Fielder, Hinkle, Hewgley, Johnson, Kelley, Parsons, Stewart, Taylors, Troutt. In 1903 J. T. Brown was married to Miss Myrtle Creasy, daughter of Esquire and Mrs. Philip R. Creasy. Two sons came into the home, Philip and John Tim. Brother Brown joined the Methodist ministry in 1906. Among the charges he served were: White House, Chestnut Mound, Sumner Circuit, Woodward (Okla.), Westmoreland, Culleoka, Decherd, Mulberry, Hampshire, Bethpage, Thompson Station, Cedar Hill, and Adams. — S. R. Bratcher, John Baggett.

JOHN ELLIS HARRISON was born at McMinnville, Tenn., January 31, 1854. With his father's family he moved to Cornersville when twelve years of age. He attended school there until ready to enter the Webb School at Culleoka. After finishing at Webb's he went to Vanderbilt, where he graduated in June, 1893. He was licensed to preach by the Cornersville Quarterly Conference on November 14, 1874. He was admitted on trial into the Tennessee Conference at Nashville in 1884. He was ordained deacon in 1878 and elder in 1885. In the fall of 1883 he was elected to the chair of Chemistry in Centenary College, Jackson, La. In the spring of 1884 Bishop McTyeire appointed him to fill out the unexpired pastorate at West End Church, Nashville. At the expiration of this pastorate Dr. Harrison was sent to Spring Hill, then Franklin, Clarksville, Murfreesboro, and Pulaski. He was then transferred to the State of Texas, where he established the Westmoreland Female College at San Antonio. He gave himself and his all to this enterprise for twenty-three years. Upon resigning he turned over to the Church a plant finished and furnished, valued at $180,000. After resigning from the presidency of this college, Dr. Harrison again entered the active ministry and served Del Rio, Beeville, and Hyde Park Churches in Texas. He was transferred to the State of Arizona, and made presiding elder of the Arizona District, which then embraced the entire State. At the end of two years he was able to show such results as justified the General Conference in erecting the district, then a part of the Los Angeles Conference, into a separate administrative jurisdiction, to be known as the Arizona Annual Conference. After serving six years in the West, Dr. Harrison transferred back to the Tennessee Conference and served Elm Street, Goodlettsville, and Madison, Elm Street again, and Mount Pleasant District. His final transfer was from the Mount Pleasant District to the Church triumphant on May 19, 1932. In 1883 Dr. Harrison was married to Miss Mollie Walton, of Cornersville, Tenn. Surviving him are his wife, one daughter, Mrs. Albert Bruhl, John E. Harrison, Jr., and McCord Harrison. After services in the church at Mount Pleasant, in which the pastors of his district served as both active and honorary pallbearers, conducted by Bishop Du Bose, assisted by John R. Stewart, and the pastor, W. T. Haggard, the body was carried to San Antonio, Tex., for interment. — W. T. Haggard.

WILLIAM LEE JACKSON was born March 15, 1865, in Clarksville, Montgomery County, Tenn. He was the son of Thomas H. and Sallie C. Jackson and the grandson of Rev. William G. Dorris. He was converted and joined the South-ern Methodist Church in April, 1877, and was admitted on trial into the Tennessee Conference in October, 1886, at Clarksville, Tenn. Brother Jackson was twice married. In early manhood he was married to Miss Sallie Scott, of Montgomery County. She died at Dickson, Tenn., in 1907. There were no children born to this union, but Thomas Morgan was taken into their home at the age of three years and was under Brother Jackson's fostering care until he reached manhood. On March 24, 1909, he was married to Miss Blanche Scott, of Columbia, Tenn. To this union was born one daughter, Sarah. His wife, this daughter, Sarah, the foster son, Thomas Morgan Jackson, one brother, Walter Jackson, and a sister, Mrs. Ida Jackson Tomlinson, survive him. During his ministry of forty-six years he served the following places: Gainesboro, Shady Grove and Little Lot, Goodrich, Cumberland City and Erin, Centerville Station, South Columbia Station, Hermitage, Waverly Place, Goodlettsville, Waverly Station, Dickson District, Mount Pleasant Station, Lawrenceburg District, Gallatin District, Franklin District, Chapel Hill, and Arlington Station. Brother Jackson passed to the great beyond at his home June 30, 1932. The funeral services were conducted by Bishop Du Bose, assisted by E. P. Anderson, T. C. Ragsdale, W. H. Johnston, and the writer, from Arlington Church. His body was laid to rest in Mount Olivet.—E. R. McCord.

PAYTON AUGUSTUS SOWELL was born at Williamsport, Maury County, Tenn., March 2, 1849, and died September 1, 1932. His grandfather, Charles Sowell, was a pioneer settler in Maury County, Tenn., having emigrated from North Carolina to Tennessee when the father of P. A. Sowell was only two years old. Capt. John Gordon, his grandfather, was a member of General Jackson's spy company, and both his grandfathers were soldiers under General Jackson in the Indian wars. His father was Joseph M. Sowell, who was a soldier in the Seminole War, and served for two terms in the General Assembly of the State. He was once elected a delegate to the General Conference. Late in life he became a local preacher and served many charges as a supply pastor. He often acted as the Secretary of the Quarterly Conference and was serving in this capacity when his son Payton was licensed to preach. Brother Sowell's mother, Nancy J. Gordon, daughter of John Gordon and granddaughter of Capt. John Gordon, died when her son was only two years old. At six years of age he moved with his father to Lawrence County, where he was reared. At sixteen years of age, under the preaching of Sanford Mason, a local preacher, he was consciously and gloriously born of the Holy Spirit into the Kingdom of God, at Pleasant Grove Church, near his home. He was licensed to preach at Pleasant Valley Church, in 1868, John F. Hughes, presiding elder, and Joseph M. Sowell, secretary. In 1870 at Pulaski, Tenn., he was admitted on trial into the Annual Conference. He served the following charges: Mount Zion Circuit, Shelbyville Station, Edgefield, Savannah, Elkton, Culleoka, Fayetteville, Brentwood, Savannah District, Murfreesboro District, East Nashville District, Franklin, Danville, Ky., Clarksville, Arlington, Columbia, Clarksville and Franklin Districts, Arlington (second time), and Smyrna and Thompson. It was during his pastorate at Edgefield that he met Almyra Probart McFerrin to whom he was married in old Tulip Street Church in September, 1877. She died in April of 1910. For thirty-five years Brother Sowell was the chairman of the Conference Board of Church Extension. He leaves one child, Mrs. C. S. Williamson. After services in the church at Lawrenceburg, conducted by his pastor, C. B. Cook, assisted by W. T. Haggard, George L. Beale, E. R. McCord, and others, his body was conveyed to Mount Olivet Cemetery, in Nashville, to rest beside his wife.—T. C. Ragsdale.

Ques. 14. What preachers have died during the year? W. W. Horner, A. G. Scruggs, Weems Wooten (no memoir). 3.

WILLIAM WORTH HORNER was born November 24, 1847, in the State of Alabama, and when an infant he was brought to Texas by his parents, where he spent the remainder of his life. When a boy of sixteen he gave his heart to God and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. In 1873, at the age of twenty-six, he felt the call to preach. In September of the same year he was licensed to preach by the fourth Quarterly Conference at Atlanta, Tex., by J. H. McLean, presiding elder. He immediately joined the Trinity Annual Conference which convened at Dallas, and was appointed junior preacher on the Gilmer and Longview Circuit. He was ordained deacon on October 17, 1875, by Bishop Pierce, and on November 10, 1877, he was ordained elder by Bishop Wightman at Bonham. He was married to Amanda Lewis in 1877. To this union were born four children, three of whom preceded him into the glory world. One daughter, Mrs. Ruth Godbey, remains with his wife to mourn his departure.

The works served during his ministry are as follows: Longview and Gilmer Circuit as junior preacher, 1874; Forney Mission, 1875; Wheatville Mission, 1876; Coffeerville Circuit, 1878; Boston Circuit, 1879-80; Mount Pleasant Circuit, 1881-82; Winnsboro Circuit, 1883; Anona Circuit, 1884-85; Brookston Circuit, 1886-87; Commerce Circuit, 1888-89; Montague Circuit, 1890. He was transferred to the Texas Conference and stationed at Franklin, 1891-92; Flatonia Station, 1893-94; Webberville Circuit, 1895; Hearne Station, 1896; Madisonville Circuit, 1897-98; Montgomery Circuit, 1899-1900; Manchaca Circuit, 1901; Anderson Circuit, 1902-03; Coffeerville Circuit, 1904; Hallsville Circuit, 1905-06; Neches Circuit, 1907-08; Lexington Circuit, 1909-10; Hempstead Station, 1911; Wallis and Fulshear, 1912-14; Beasley Mission, 1915; Giddings, 1917-19. At the session of the Texas Conference which met at Tyler in November, 1919, Brother Horner entered the superannuate relation. He moved to Tyler, where he and his wife lived for eleven years. In January, 1931, Brother Horner's health was failing rapidly, so he was taken to the hospital for Confederate soldiers at Austin. On Wednesday morning, November 11, 1931, at 5 o'clock, he heard the call to "come up higher."—W. E. Hassler.

A. G. SCRUGGS, who for more than fifty years was a member of the old East Texas and Texas Conferences, passed away August 3, 1932, at his home in Jasper. He was past eighty years of age at his death. Brother Scruggs joined the ranks of old East Texas Conference in 1884. His first charge was Buena Vista in Shelby County. Other charges served were: Alto, Crockett, Terrell Circuit, Nacogdoches Mission, Cedar Street (Tyler), Roberts Avenue (Beaumont), Franklin, Hemphill, Alvin, Woodville, Jasper, Nederland, and Kountze. He superannuated at the close of his pastorate at Kountze and moved back to Jasper to make his home, at which place he lived until his death. After his superannuation he served one term as District Clerk of Jasper County. He was buried in the Jasper Cemetery. He is survived by his wife, his daughter, Mrs. Mary Love, and five grandchildren.—A. A. Tharp.

Ques. 15. Who are the deacons of one year? William Prentice Bond, G. G. Cecil, John W. Ford, B. N. Merchant, A. T. Mooney, W. H. McCown, Harry V. Rankin, R. C. Terry, J. D. White. 9.

JOHN FLETCHER ANDERSON, son of Tappley and Louisa Manning Anderson, was born near Holland's Store, Anderson County, S. C., September 23, 1851. As a young man he entered railroad service, and for four years was agent and telegraph operator at Greenwood, S. C. There, on December 21, 1876, he was married to Katherine Sullivan Richter. Nine children were born into their home, of whom five survive: Bertha L. (Mrs. W. J. Nichols), J. Courtenay, Corinne, Kathleen, and Ruby Lucile (Mrs. C. S. Link, Jr.). When sixteen years of age Brother Anderson was converted and joined old Providence Church, on what was then known as West Anderson Circuit. In October, 1884, his presiding elder, T. G. Herbert, Sr., preached at Providence camp meeting a sermon on "A Call to the Ministry," which led him to make his decision to become a Methodist preacher. A month afterwards he was licensed to preach at Bethesda Church by the same presiding elder, and the next year, December, 1885, he was admitted on trial into the South Carolina Conference in session at Columbia. He was ordained deacon by Bishop McTyeire on December 4, 1887, and elder by Bishop Keener on November 24, 1889. Brother Anderson's record of service is as follows: Local preacher, 1884-85; West Anderson Circuit, 1886; Walhalla Circuit, 1887; Pickens, 1888-91; Fountain Inn, 1892-94; Easley, 1895-97; Oswego Circuit, 1898; Leesville, 1899-

1902; Whitmire, 1903; Gray Court, 1904-07; Pendleton, 1908-10; York, 1911-12; McCormick, 1913-15; superannuate, 1915-17; Lowndesville, 1918-19; superannuate, 1919-31. From the time of his final superannuation until his death Brother Anderson's home was in Williamston. He died on Sunday, November 8, 1931, and was buried the next day in the cemetery at Williamston.—F. E. Dibble.

JOHN CALDWELL CALHOUN NEWTON was born in Anderson County, S. C., May 2, 1848, descended from John Newton, who came to Westmoreland County, Va., in 1660. He studied for a time at Thalian Academy, Pickens County, S. C., until the Civil War interrupted his education. When only a boy of seventeen he enlisted in the Confederate Army and saw service during the latter part of the war. Afterwards he entered Kentucky Wesleyan College, but later transferred to Kentucky Military Institute, from which he graduated with first honor, receiving the A.B. degree in 1874. Following his graduation he joined the Kentucky Conference. He continued in that Conference for ten years, meanwhile teaching for some time at Millersburg (Ky.) Female College. In 1874 he was married to Miss Lettie Emma Lay, of South Carolina. In 1884 he began postgraduate work at Johns Hopkins University, at the same time serving a church in the city of Baltimore. Later he held a pastorate at Warrenton, Va., until March, 1888, when he went out to Japan to join the little handful of Southern Methodist missionaries who had begun the mission less than two years before. Dr. Newton's work in Japan was to be the training of young Japanese preachers. He, with his three students, went to Tokyo and for one year was connected with the theological department of Aoyama Gakuin, a school belonging to the Methodist Episcopal Church. The next year plans had been completed for the organizing of Kwansei Gakuin in Kobe, and Dr.

Newton and his students transferred there to become the nucleus of the new institution, Dr. Newton becoming dean of the Theological Department. After about eight years of this work Dr. Newton returned to America where he held pastorates in Virginia until 1903, when he went back to take up his old work. Kwansei Gakuin was growing and Dr. Newton and others perceived the advantages of making it a union institution. He had an important part in the negotiations which culminated in 1910 in organizing it under the joint control of the Southern, the Canadian, and the Japan Methodist Church. In 1914 he was elected president of the whole institution. He served as president for about seven years, and under his guidance the school made remarkable progress in numbers and in physical equipment until it took its place among the best and largest colleges in Japan. Even after resigning as president, Dr. Newton remained at the school, continuing his lectures in the theological department until 1923, when advancing years and Mrs. Newton's poor health compelled him to retire from active service. From this time they made their home with their daughter Ruth, Mrs. E. Marvin Underwood, in Atlanta. From this home Mrs. Newton went to her eternal home on December 8, 1928, and Dr. Newton followed less than three years later, on November 10, 1931. In the fall of 1924 he delivered a series of lectures at Southern Methodist University, and later he occupied for a time the chair of missions at Scarritt College. The variety and depth of his interests may be shown by the titles of two books, "What England Owes to Other Peoples" and "Christian Ethics," the former of which he completed a few months before his death, and the latter, practically finished, on which he was laboring almost until the day of his death.—John B. Cobb.

EGBERT RAY DEGGES was born in Lancaster County, Va., October 5, 1889, and entered into rest at Hampton, Va., April 15, 1932. He was the son of C. L. and Alice Carlton Degges, his father being a local preacher in the White Marsh Methodist Church. Brother Degges at an early age confessed Christ as his personal Saviour and united with White Marsh Church, from which church he was granted license to preach in 1917. After graduating from Lancaster High School he felt very definitely the call to the ministry. He entered Randolph-Macon College with a marked determination to do the will of God. Brother Degges served the following charges: West Campbell, North Pittsylvania, Broadwater, King George, Spottsylvania, King William, and Fox Hill. On December 30, 1914, he was married to Miss Lillian George. To this union were born two sons, Egbert Lawson and Franklin Carleton Degges, the latter dying in infancy. Brother Degges was stricken with appendicitis early Sunday morning, April 10, and lived only five days. On the following Sunday he was laid to rest in the cemetery at White Marsh Church. His presiding elder, J. T. Bosman, conducted the funeral service, assisted by J. T. Green, W. H. Jones, and C. C. Jones.—Edgar G. Hill.

OLIN RAY was born near Walnut, Tippah County, Miss., July 5, 1886. His parents were Franklin Elmore and Martha Lucretia Ray. He received his early education in the public schools near his home. In the fall of 1907 he entered the preparatory department of Millsaps College, from which college he received the B.A. degree in 1913. In December, 1914, he entered Emory University and graduated with the B.D. degree in the summer of 1916. At the age of twelve Olin Ray joined the old Campground Church. In 1908 he was licensed to preach and was appointed as a supply to the Sidon and Tchula Charge, North Mississippi Conference. To this conference he was admitted on trial at the session of 1910, and served the following charges: Holcomb, three years; Jones-town and Belen, one year; student at Emory University from December, 1914, to the summer of 1916; Tunica and Robinsonville, two years; Macon Station, three years; Kosciusko, two years. In the fall of 1923 he was transferred by Bishop W. A. Candler to the Virginia Conference and stationed at High Street, Petersburg, where he served four years. He then served Onancock Station four years, and in the fall of 1931 he was assigned to Central Church, Portsmouth. He has two brothers who are also ministers. On Christmas Day, 1916, he was united in marriage to Miss Sarah Louise Graham, daughter of William and Jane Graham, of Prairie Grove, Ark. To this union three children were born: Martha Louise, Bobbie Janet, and Mary Katherine. Any fair appraisal of Olin Ray would have to take into consideration the last six months of his earthly life. He had had warnings of something more than any passing disorder; but relief from all pain, the urge of the task, and a great hope had given him courage to believe that he was well over his difficulties, and that he was ready for many years of work at his beloved vocation. He went to his Portsmouth assignment in November, 1931 with a freshness and vigor that belied all rumors of any physical debilities. It was only two months later, in January, that the fatal blow fell upon him. The months that followed were the severest of tests as he heroically struggled to live. Realizing that the end drew near, he longed to go back to the home of his boyhood. Summoning all of his strength, he made the long journey to Mississippi, and arrived in time to have a happy reunion with his loved ones and friends of other years. He died at the home of his boyhood on June 19, 1932. The funeral services were conducted at Campground Church, on Monday afternoon, June 20, by J. H. Felts, presiding elder of the Corinth District, North Mississippi Conference, assisted by E. S. Lewis, J. H. Holder, and W. W. Wodland. His body was laid to rest in the churchyard near by, a short distance from the grave of his mother. He is survived by his wife and three children, also his father, three sisters, and four brothers.—H. P. Clarke.

BERNARD FARRAR LIPSCOMB finished a long and widely useful course on Monday, August 15, 1932. Dr. Lipscomb was born February 16, 1851, the first-born of Cornelius B. and Pocahontas F. Lipscomb. Having been trained under the gracious influences and tender ministries of a Christian home, he early accepted Christ as his Saviour and Lord, and joined the Church of his fathers—old Trinity, the mother church of Richmond Methodism. Eight times he was chosen by his brethren to represent them in the General Conference. Eighteen times he was elected Secretary of his Conference. He was at one time Secretary-Treasurer of Randolph-Macon College. In 1902 he was called to fill a vacancy in the Board of Trustees of Randolph-Macon College, and was made chairman of its most important committees, and President after the death of Judge Newman five years ago. In 1888

he was asked to edit and publish the minutes of his Annual Conference, and continued to do this difficult and painstaking work until relieved by request in 1909. His Alma Mater conferred on him the degree of Doctor of Divinity and the key of Phi Beta Kappa. At the beginning of his life he secured a position in the State Bank of Virginia in his native city. In 1872 he was married to Miss Ella J. McLaurine, of Richmond, but their union was soon dissolved by death, and he and his baby boy were left sorely bereaved and distressed. In the hush and sorrow of the lonely hours that followed, the call to the ministry came appealingly to him, and he promptly gave up his chosen career and yielded himself to the will of his Lord. His Mother Church, Trinity, Richmond, gave him license to preach on September 28, 1874, and soon after he entered Randolph-Macon College for better preparation for his high vocation, supplementing the education he had received at Jefferson Male Academy, Richmond. In 1876 he was received on trial into the Virginia Conference, and was sent to Queen Street Church, Norfolk, a newly organized charge, where he made full proof of his ministry and remained four years to the pleasure and profit of his congregation. On December 12, 1877, he was married to Miss Sallie Emily Wright, of Smithfield, Va. She fell asleep November 16, 1920. On finishing his term of four years at his first charge, Queen Street Church, Norfolk, he filled successively the following appointments: Salisbury, Md., 1881-83; Churchland, 1883-85; Berkeley, 1885-89; Charlottesville, 1889-93; Mount Vernon, Danville, 1893-97; Newport News, 1897-99; Washington Street, Petersburg, 1899-1902; Secretary-Treasurer, Randolph-Macon College, 1902-03; Petersburg District, 1903-07; West Richmond District, 1907-09; Park Place, Richmond, 1909-10; Norfolk District, 1910-13; Petersburg District, 1913-17; Charlottesville District, 1917-21; Rivermont, Lynchburg, 1921-23; First Church, Hampton, 1923-24; Lynchburg District, 1924-28; Ashland, 1928-32, where in the fourth year of his happy pastorate he was stricken with anemia. And so after five weeks of patient and careful treatment at St. Luke's Hospital, Richmond, he yielded his spirit to the God who gave it. He is survived by one sister, Miss Minnie Lipscomb; three brothers, Irvin, Stanley, and Herbert; and ten children, Arthur McL., Mrs. Frank Talbott, Bernard W., Herbert C., Walter P., Mrs. James B. Denny, Mrs. Walter McCandlish, Miss Helen, Thomas L., and Willis G. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon, August 16, in the Duncan Memorial Church. Bishop Collins Denny, assisted by S. C. Hatcher and T. McN. Simpson, conducted the service and his body was laid to rest in Hollywood amid those he had "loved long since and lost awhile."—T. McN. Simpson.

WERTER H. GREGORY, son of Richard Claiborne and Eliza Twitty Baily Gregory, was born August 31, 1846, in Lunenburg County, Va. In boyhood he attended rural schools conducted on the subscription plan. At the age of seventeen he enlisted in the Confederate Army, joining Major Batts' Battalion of Petersburg, Va., composed of boys not old enough to enter the regular service. This was in 1863. In 1864 he was transferred to the 32d Virginia Infantry, one of the regiments of the noted Pickett's Division. At the time of his death he was a member of William Watts Camp of the United Confederate Veterans and Chaplain of the Camp at Roanoke, Va. Brother Gregory made a profession of faith in Christ, under the ministry of James W. Blincoe, pastor of the Powhatan Circuit, but did not join the Church until 1868, while he was a student at Randolph-Macon College situated near Boydton in Mecklenburg County. He was received into the membership of the Church by James Jamieson, Chaplain of the College. He soon realized that he was called of God to preach. At the Conference of 1871, held in Portsmouth, Va., and presided over by Bishop Paine, he was admitted on trial into the Virginia Conference. He was ordained deacon on November 30, 1873, by Bishop Keener, in Cumberland Street Church, Norfolk, Va. He was ordained elder November 21, 1875, by Bishop McTyeire in Lynn Street Church, Danville, Va. His first appointment was to Pittsylvania Circuit. This was a most discouraging and difficult field of labor. The church buildings had been dismantled and destroyed by the great battles of the War between the States; but not daunted by the difficult task, he entered the charge with the determination to restore what had been destroyed. He visited Baltimore and other adjacent cities and collected funds for the restoration and rebuilding of the churches. This zeal, energy, good judgment, and unflinching devotion to his Lord's work characterized his labor in all of his charges, from Pittsylvania, his first charge, to Concord Circuit, his last charge. In 1902 he asked for the superannuate relation and retired to Roanoke, Va. He passed to his eternal reward September 26, 1932. Brother Gregory was twice married. On August 8, 1877, he was married to Miss Sallie James Payne who died June 4, 1907. Of this marriage there were seven sons, all of whom survive: Rev. H. C., H. F., H. B., E. P., W. P., H. W., and P. W. Gregory. S. C. Hatcher, of this Conference, is a nephew of Brother Gregory. On July 13, 1910, he was married to Miss Lillie B. Thomas, who survives him. The funeral services were held from Trinity Church, Roanoke, Va., by the pastor, Hubert Sydenstricker. Interment was in Fairview Cemetery, Roanoke.—J. C. Read.

WILLIAM HENRY HARRISON BIGGS, the oldest member of the West Texas Conference, and with the longest record of years of active service in the Conference, died at his home in Brownsville, Tex., January 12, 1932. Born in Memphis, Tenn., November 21, 1840, he went with his parents to the Indian Territory at the age of ten, and two years later to Arkansas, where he grew to manhood. He enlisted in the Confederate Army at the beginning of the Civil War, and served throughout the war without an injury. He took part in several major engagements—Island No. 10, Port Hudson, and Perryville, Ky. Three times he was made prisoner, escaped once, was exchanged once, the third time he was paroled, and peace was declared before he reached home. After the war he engaged in teaching until 1871, when he entered the ministry and joined the Little Rock Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. In 1874 Brother Biggs transferred to the West Texas Conference. Beginning with Flatonia in 1874 his appointments were: Cuero-Victoria, Gonzales, Goliad, Texana, Edna, Lockhart, San Marcos, San Marcos District, Beeville District, Seguin, Luling, Floresville, Kyle, San Marcos Circuit, Llano District, Alice Runge, San Marcos District, Kyle, Leesville, McDade, Moore, Devine-Lytle, Poteet, and Los Fresnos. In 1920 he was granted the superannuate relation. Upon retiring from active work, Brother Biggs moved with his family to Brownsville, where he spent the last ten years of his life. Surviving him are his wife, one daughter (Mrs. Regina Sosby), and seven sons (Kenner, William T., Edgar, Frank, Reuben, Morris H., and Alvin J. Biggs).—Sterling Fisher.

JAMES ARTHUR KING was for eighty years a member of the Methodist Church, for sixty years a Methodist preacher, and during the War between the States a Confederate soldier, scout, and chaplain. He was a circuit rider on the Texas frontier in the days of Indian raids and all of his life he was a Christian gentleman of the highest type. He was born September 27, 1837, in Rutherford County, N. C., was married on December 22, 1859, in Marshall County, Ala., to Miss Mary Martha Albert, who died in 1914; and was called to his own reward January 16, 1932. Brother King's service in what is now the West Texas Conference began with his appointment as a supply to the San Saba Circuit, then in the Northwest Texas Conference, under William Monk as presiding elder. The circuit included all of San Saba and McCulloch Counties, part of Mason County, two appointments in Brown County, and two in Lampasas County. There were seventeen appointments, and to make the round of them he traveled three hundred and seventy-five miles every month on horseback. Having served from 1871 to 1884 as a supply, in the latter year he was admitted to the membership of the West Texas Conference. He served Llano two years; Kerrville, one year; Williamsburg, one year; Fort Davis, one year; Floresville, two years; Leesville, three years; Rancho, one year; Round Mountain, two years; Belmont, three years; Eagle Lake, one year; Webberville, two years; Bexar, one year; Nixon, one year; and closed his active ministry at Belmont for the second time, and at the end of that year asked for and received the superannuate relation in 1909. To Brother and Sister King were born six children, three of whom died in infancy. He leaves two sons, Judge James A. King and Dr. W. A. King, and one daughter, Mrs. W. H. Woods.—Sterling Fisher.

VICTOR V. BOONE was born in Mississippi, February 22, 1863, and died March 16, 1932. He joined the Conference in 1883 and spent the first twenty years of his active ministry in Mississippi. He then transferred to the West Texas Conference and served the Utopia, Devine, Staples, Kennedy, and South Bluff (Corpus Christi) charges. He continued preaching for several years after retiring from the active work in Corpus Christi and nearby churches. He later moved to San Antonio, where he resided at the time of his death. On October 30, 1889, he was married to Miss Lillie May Hall, of Bay St. Louis, Miss., while pastor of the Church in that city. Ten children were born to that union, seven of whom are still living. Surviving him are his widow (Mrs. Lillie May Boone), one brother (D. K. Boone), five sons (Leslie, Vaught V., Bolton, Fletcher, and Murry Boone), and two daughters (Mrs. L. L. Rogers and Mrs. L. R. Powell).—Dennis Macune.

EDWARD COLFAX SWANN was born December 27, 1865, in Benton County, Ind. His mother was a stanch Presbyterian and it was her influence that led him to be a Christian. He was converted in 1888 and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, May 5 of that same year in Mooresville, Mo. He received his education in the public schools, Chillicothe Normal, and Central College, Fayette, Mo. He was licensed to preach in August, 1891, and one year later he entered the Missouri Conference, where he served faithfully and acceptably for twenty-four years. After serving Centralia, his last appointment in the Missouri Conference, on account of failing health he chose to locate and did so against the advice of many friends. He then came to Texas and for six years served the people of Los Fresnos. Part of that time the congregation was known as a Community Church, but in 1920 he led the people to organize a Methodist Church and he became a supply pastor. He was readmitted into the Missouri Conference and transferred to the West Texas Conference and served LaFeria, Ozona, and Alice. In the last-named place his health completely failed again and he took the superannuate relation. After seven years of feebleness and suffering he died in great peace at his home in San Antonio in 1932. He was first married to Miss Leila Comstock, who died soon after their marriage. He later married Miss Susie Edelen, who, together with their four children and their families, survives him.—H. E. Draper.

ALBERT W. WILSON was born in Polk County, Mo., June 30, 1861. When only three years old the family moved to Idaho, where he grew to manhood. On March 6, 1883, he was converted and realized a distinct call to the ministry. He was licensed to preach on March 6, 1885. He was married to Miss Nannie Baldwin on January 1, 1889. In 1891 he was admitted on trial into the West Texas Conference and two years later was received into full connection. He served thirty-six years in the active work and six years as a superannuate. Brother Wilson's itinerant labors began with the Paint Rock Circuit, followed by appointments to the following: Victoria, Bandera, Llano, Kyle, Runge, Lockhart, Gonzales, Floresville, Beeville, Uvalde, Bishop, Prospect Hill, in each of which places he usually served four years. He fell asleep October 6, 1932. He is survived by his wife, a daughter (Mrs. C. T. Smith), and two sons (A. R. and A. W. Wilson).—A. E. Rector.

MELODIOUS F. DANIEL was born in West Point, Ga., March 14, 1859. When he was a small child the family moved to Alabama. He was licensed to preach January 22, 1881, by the Quarterly Conference of Louina Circuit, Lafayette District, North Alabama Conference; ordained local deacon by Bishop Hargrove May 17, 1888, at Alexandria City, Ala.; moved to Texas in the fall of 1893; ordained local elder by Bishop Hendrix on December 3, 1893, at the session of the Texas Annual Conference held in Navasota. At the same time he was received on trial. In his twenty-six active years in the Texas Conference he served the following charges: Hockley Mission, Salty Circuit, Giddings Circuit, Sealy Circuit, Kilgore Circuit, Hardy Memorial (Texarkana), Angelton, Alto, Redlawn Mission, Midway, Alto Circuit, and Hempstead. In the fall of 1919, on account of failing health, he was transferred to the West Texas Conference and served as follows: Goldthwaite Station, Ozona, Manor, and Lometa. At the Annual Conference held at San Angelo in October, 1929, he reached the "honor roll." For a few months he made his home in Goldthwaite. Then he moved to Victoria, where he lived until November 15, 1931, when he received his final crowning. Brother Daniel was twice married: first to Miss Fannie Golden in Alabama in 1884. She died soon after they came to Texas, leaving him three little boys. His second marriage was to Miss Hettie Gladish in January, 1896. She and two sons, H. S. and E. B., of his first marriage, and one daughter, Mrs. Annie Laurie Jones, of his second marriage, survive him.—B. W. Allen.

J. A. BOATMAN was born in Rosedale, Ind., in 1874. He was converted and united with the Church in early childhood. Many years he spent on the farm and as a railroad man. There came the time when he felt a definite and clear call to preach the glorious gospel of Jesus Christ. At the age of thirty-eight he entered the Methodist itinerancy and devoted the remaining years in loyal, loving, and sacrificial service to the Church. Eighteen years of his life he gave to the West Texas Conference. At the session of the last Annual Conference he was stationed at Nixon, where, in less than two months, he found his way into the hearts of a great circle of newly made friends. In recent years he was stricken with an illness that proved a great handicap, but in spite of great physical pain, he labored untiringly and in most efficient manner until the end, which came on December 26, 1931.—S. B. Beall.

RUFUS KING BRADY was a native of Randolph County, N. C., having been born in the southeastern section of said county in the Moffitt community. Here he grew to manhood, working on his father's farm and attending the public schools of the neighborhood. He pursued his education further in Shiloh Academy. While a boy he professed faith in Christ and joined the Christian Church at Shiloh. After a few years spent on the farm and in teaching in the public schools of the county he was licensed to preach. Then, after two or three years, he transferred his membership from the Christian Church to the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and was received into the Western North Carolina Conference on trial at the session in Hickory, November 17, 1909. At this Conference he was assigned to Burnsville Circuit. After leaving Burnsville he was in the Salisbury District ten years, serving the following charges: Bethel-Big Lick, four years; West Concord, three years; East Spencer, two years; Salisbury Circuit, one year. Other charges served were: Prospect, Lowesville, Hudson, Moravian Falls, Wilkesboro. At the Conference in Statesville in 1925 Brother Brady was transferred to the South Georgia Conference, where he served for three years on the Hebardsville and Plains charges of that Conference. He was then transferred back to the Western North Carolina Conference in 1928 and appointed to the Delwood charge. In 1929 he was appointed to the Pine Creek charge in the Waynesville District. In the spring of 1931 at his own request he was released from this charge by the bishop and moved to a farm near Guilford College. At the session of Conference in Asheville in November, 1931, he took the superannuate relation and continued to live on his farm. On April 20 he died suddenly while riding along the highway with two friends near Climax, N. C. Brother Brady was twice married, first to Miss Nettie Cheek of Randolph County. To this union two children were born, one of whom, a daughter, still survives. His second marriage was to Miss Flora Sugg, of Erect, N. C. To this union there are five surviving children, as follows: Harold K., Ruth Kate, Mary E., Juanita S., and Hugh Parks, who, with their mother, mourn his going. Brother Brady was a thirty-second degree Mason, his membership being in Salisbury, N. C. On April 22, in the cemetery of the church of his boyhood at Shiloh, we laid his body to rest to await the resurrection morning.—W. T. Albright.

JOSEPH ALBERT COOK, son of Anderson and Nancy Booker Cook, was born near Mount Airy, N. C., March 7, 1854, and died at Asheville, N. C., July 13, 1932. Brother Cook was educated in the public schools of Hawkins County, Tenn., and at St. Clair High School. He felt the call to preach in boyhood. Answering the call, he was licensed to preach January 5, 1876. He was received on trial into the Holston Conference at Knoxville, Tenn., in 1878. He was ordained deacon by Bishop McTyeire at Wytheville, Va., October 30, 1881. He was ordained elder by the same bishop at Abington, Va., October 9, 1887. During the fifty-four years of his ministerial life he served the following charges in the Holston Conference: 1879, junior preacher, Liberty Hill Circuit; 1880, McDowell Mission; 1881, Buchanan Mission; 1882-84, Fall Branch Circuit; 1885-88, Clinton Circuit; 1889-90, Staffordsville; 1891-92, Elk Creek. In the Western North Carolina Conference he served the following: 1893, Jefferson; 1894-96, Polkville Circuit; 1897-98, Forest City; 1899-1900, Polkville Circuit; 1901-03, Franklin District; 1904-05, Mount Airy District; 1906-07, Haywood Street, Asheville. At the Conference in 1907 he transferred to the South Carolina Conference, where he served the following charges: 1908, Greer; 1909-10, Ninety-Six; 1911-13, Inman; 1914, Jonesville; 1915-16, Duncan Street, Spartanburg. In 1916 he came back to the Western North Carolina Conference and served the following charges: 1917-20, Sylva; 1921, Randleman; 1922-23, Mount Airy Circuit; 1924, Pilot Mountain; 1925, Randleman; 1926, superannuated; 1927, Mount Airy Circuit. In 1928 he superannuated and moved to Asheville, where he lived until his death. He built churches at Clinton, Tenn., Jonesville, S. C., Polkville and Sylva, N. C. He built or completed churches or parsonages at twenty-two other places. Very few men after serving a charge once are sent back, but he went back to three charges: Polkville Circuit, Mount Airy Circuit, and Randleman. All his work was not on circuits. He served as presiding elder on the Franklin and Mount Airy Districts. He was married February 3, 1879, to Julia Yost Cook, and to this union twelve children were born, nine of whom, with his wife, survive him. The funeral service was held in Haywood Street Church, Asheville, July 15, 1932, conducted by T. A. Groce, Carlock Hawk, and the writer. The body was laid to rest in Green Hill Cemetery.

ANTHONY WAYNE JACOBS was born August 17, 1852, in Dandridge, Tenn. Early in his youth his father, together with his family, moved to the beautiful valley of the Cullasaja in Macon County, N. C. Here Uncle Wayne, as he was affectionately known, grew to manhood, and here he returned to spend his declining years. Early in life he professed saving faith in Christ and united with the Salem Methodist Episcopal Church, South. In this Church he served efficiently as an official until he moved to Dillsboro, N. C., where he entered the mercantile business. In 1880 he was married to Miss Margaret Louisa Gray. Uncle Wayne was licensed to preach August 18, 1888, at Webster, N. C., by the Webster Quarterly Conference, under the presiding eldership of J. H. Weaver. In October of the same year he was admitted on trial into the Holston Conference at Asheville, N. C. His first appointment was to the Highlands-Glenville Mission. After the division of the Holston and North Carolina Conferences, his lot was cast with Western North Carolina Conference, where he served the following appointments: 1890-92, Franklin Circuit; 1893-94, Hayesville Circuit; 1895, Webster-Cullowhee Circuit; 1896, North Haywood Circuit; 1897-99, Haywood Circuit; 1900-01, Ivy Circuit; 1902, Shoal Creek and Cherokee Mission; 1903, Whittier and Cherokee Mission; 1904, Bryon City Circuit; 1905, Yadkinville Circuit; 1906, Pilot Mountain Circuit; 1907, Spray and Draper; 1908, Stoneville and Mayodan Circuit. It was while here that his wife's health became such that they returned to Macon County in April and went to Warm Springs, Tex., later, where they remained for several months. His next appointment was to the Macon Circuit in 1909. Due to the great suffering of his wife, and the fact that her comfort called for his constant attention, he was superannuated in 1910. The records show that his was a useful and fruitful ministry. During these twenty-two years in the ministry he built four churches and two parsonages at a total cost of $6,243.92, while he improved ten churches and eight parsonages at a total cost of $2,636. He baptized 187 infants and 267 adults; while he added to the membership of the churches he served 336 on profession of faith and 476 by certificate or otherwise, making in all 812—a rather remarkable record when you consider that his ministry was confined to the country. Moreover, one of the last entries in the records as preserved by himself reads, "I started three preachers in the traveling ministry," while the last entry reveals: "Largest annual salary, $450.50; smallest, $90.11." His superannuation did not by any means end his good works, for his interest in the kingdom never abated. Some worthy project was ever being planned, prayed for, and executed. His last will and testament provides that the whole of his Brotherhood benefit should go to the Children's Home, while Weaver College was given $1,000 in notes. He preached in convict camps, organized and conducted Sunday schools in the out-of-the-way places; and even, when very feeble and physically unequal to the strain, he attended the Ecumenical Methodist Conference in Atlanta last year and our last annual session at Asheville. Following several years of declining health, Anthony Wayne Jacobs entered the mansions of rest on January 20, 1932. The funeral was held at Salem, his childhood church. The rites were conducted by his pastor, H. C. Freeman, assisted by L. B. Hayes, O. P. Ader, J. L. Teague, and J. C. Umberger. His body was interred in the Salem churchyard.—F. O. Dryman.

DAVID S. RICHARDSON, son of D. C. and Mary Ragsdale Richardson, was born in Davie County, N. C., July 2, 1865. In August, 1880, he was born of the spirit. Joining the Church at the time of his conversion, he felt called at once to the work of the Christian ministry. Reared in the country, he attended at first the country schools of his day, then studied to further prepare himself at Cross Roads Academy, and later still better prepared himself by taking a course of study in Oskaloosa Theological College in Iowa. In 1887 he was married to Miss Sallie C. Powell, of Iredell County. After having taught three years in the public schools he began his work as a Methodist preacher. In 1889 at Asheville, N. C., he joined the Blue Ridge Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church and served the following charges in that Conference: Gastonia, 1890-91; Huntersville, 1892; Clyde, 1893; Canton, 1894-95; Statesville Mission, 1896; Yadkinville, 1897; Wilkes, 1898-99; Harmony, 1900-01; Trap Hill, 1902. In 1903 he became a member of the Western North Carolina Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at its session held in High Point. In this Conference he served the following charges: Creston, 1904; North Catawba, 1905; Spruce Pine, 1906-08; McDowell, 1909-12; Stony Point, 1913; Davidson, 1914; Leicester, 1915; Macon, 1916-17; Broad River, 1918-21; Ansonville, 1922-24; North Monroe, 1925-26; Taylorsville, 1927-28; Morganton Circuit, 1929-31; Gilkey, from the last session of our Conference till the time of his death January 29, 1932. Brother Richardson leaves to feel most keenly the loss of his going from us his wife, two sons (A. M. and A. J. Richardson), and three daughters (Mrs. Lillian Cabe, Mrs. Elsie Pendergrass, and Miss Vivian Richardson). His body was carried back to Morganton and laid to rest. Twenty of his brethren in the ministry were present, either to take part in the funeral or to offer a loving though silent tribute in memory of our brother and friend.—E. W. Fox.

WILLIAM REYNOLD WARE was born in Shelby, N. C., April 26, 1859, and died January 9, 1932. When he felt called unto the ministry, he left the labor of the farm to study and to graduate from Catawba College. Years later this institution conferred on him an honorary doctor's degree. After graduation he spent three years in the School of Religion at Vanderbilt University, from which, in 1884, he graduated with honors in course. At the Conference at Wilmington in 1884 he was given his first appointment, Plymouth. From then on he served the following charges: Washington, 1887-90; Reidsville, 1891-94; Central, Monroe, 1895-97; Shelby District, 1898-1901; Centenary, Winston-Salem, 1902-03; First Church, Salisbury, 1904; Central, Monroe, 1905-07; Main Street, Gastonia, 1908; Greensboro District, 1909-12; Salisbury District, 1913-15; Statesville District, 1916-17; North Wilkesboro, 1918-21; Central, Albemarle, 1922; First Church, Morganton, 1923-24; Forest City, 1925-26; Rutherfordton, 1927-29; Walkertown, 1930; Glenwood, Greensboro, 1931. He was married August 27, 1886, to Miss Allie Driver Brown of Greenville, N. C. Seven children were born into their home. The widow and six children (Mrs. C. A. Kriechbaum, William R. Ware, Jr., Henry M. Ware, Mrs. J. L. Rendleman, R. Dwight Ware, and E. Spencer Ware), together with ten grandchildren, survive. Naomi Key, a daughter, died in infancy. After the funeral services from West Market Street Church, in Greensboro, directed by W. A. Newell, C. C. Weaver, H. G. Hardin, and A. W. Plyler, the body was taken to Shelby for interment, and there another service was held by Bishop Mouzon, E. K. McLarty, and A. L. Stanford.—R. Dwight Ware.

He was converted August 31, 1881, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. On May 14, 1885, he was married to Miss Helen Stollard. To this union were born ten children, three preceding him in death. He leaves to mourn his departure his wife, five sons, and two daughters. He was licensed to preach September 26, 1885, at Bethany Chapel, Buchanan Circuit, Va. He was appointed pastor of Buchanan Circuit in 1887. He served as pastor in the Holston Conference for seventeen years, then came to the Western Virginia Conference. For forty-seven years he rendered valuable service in the work of our ministry. He departed this life March 7, 1932, at his home in Matewan, W. Va. Funeral services were conducted by his pastor from our church at Matewan, in the presence of a very large congregation, with interment following in the Red Jacket Cemetery.—H. L. Phillips.

EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT

An Answered Prayer

THE Editor has had many very definite answers to earnest and specific prayer. These answers have come in various and often in unexpected ways.

In the spring of the second year of the current century a younger brother came on a visit from a community a few hundred miles farther south. The day for his return home had been set, but before it arrived an attractive position was thrown open to him, which he accepted, and therefore changed his place of abode. Sometime later the Editor felt the need of an entire change of scene, atmosphere, surroundings, and planned a trip to the heart of old Mexico which lasted even forty days, but wrought wonders in the matter of readjusted nerves, outlook on life, and regained strength.

About sixty days after this journey the younger brother, at the office, one morning complained that he was sick. He was advised to go home and go to bed, with the understanding that if he did not feel better in a few hours the doctor would be called in to prescribe for him. The doctor was called in. After a careful examination he announced nervously that the young man's pulse frequency was 140 a minute, and he was unable to diagnose the case satisfactorily. Other doctors were called into consultation—several of them—but none was bold enough to say exactly where the trouble lay nor what it was. All agreed that an operation to determine the cause was out of the question with a heart beating 140 times a minute.

A few days after our mother learned of her baby boy's condition, she came from the old home to be near and to minister to him.

Before mother came, however, when the two brothers were alone in the room one evening after dinner, we were talking about different things when he said: "Brother, I am a member of the Church, but I am not a Christian. But I don't want you to be sending any preachers to be talking and praying with me."

Christian friends, think how this voluntary confession of the adored younger brother pierced the older brother's heart: My own brother a member of the Church, but not a Christian! We had several ministerial friends, to some of whom I opened my heart and asked for help. These friends began to call on him in the most informal way—no preaching, no intimation that they thought he was anything except a Christian of the Christians.

As time passed on my brother's confession weighed on my mind and heart. One evening I went to the Y. M. C. A. to attend the Saturday Night Bible Club. Arriving early I went to the parlor, took a Bible upon the center table and read over the Sunday school lesson for the next day. Although the room was brilliantly lighted and groups of young men were standing and sitting around in conversation, my thoughts were concerning my brother. As I sat in an armchair, I placed my forehead in my upraised hand and prayed earnestly: "Heavenly Father, I pray Thee, if it is Thy will, restore my brother to health and strength. But, O Heavenly Father, if it is Thy will to take him to Thyself, wilt Thou not give us the assurance that all is well with his soul? Amen."

For a few moments I sat in meditation, aimlessly turning the leaves of the Bible lying open in my lap, when suddenly I was attracted by what seemed to be an illuminated spot on one of the pages. Lifting the Bible I read the verse where the strange light had appeared. These are the words that had appeared to be so luminous: "A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment unto victory."

My own eyes opened wide and the great burden of my soul rolled away as I meditated: "My brother—he is the bruised reed; my brother—he is the smoking flax. This is the answer to my prayer."

The meeting of the Bible Club over, I hurried to the apartment in order that I might tell the story privately to our mother as I have told it here. When I had finished she said with evident joy: "My son, this is as definite an answer to prayer as you will ever have. Let us praise God."

Later the doctors advised that my brother would fare better in a higher altitude and suggested the mountains of East Tennessee; so there in early May his mother took him. There the boy had much fellowship with a godly aunt who seemed to understand him thoroughly, who talked with him about his love affairs, his escapades, his fads and fancies, his soul's welfare, and through her influence he experienced the wonderful awakening of his soul, and he could no longer say, "I am a member of the Church, but I am not a Christian."

In July a long-distance message advised that my brother, whose pulse had continued to beat 140 strokes a minute, was losing ground and I must hurry if I expected to see him alive again. So a sister and a brother from home joined us there the next day. For many hours we watched with him as he hovered between life and death. In his moments of wakefulness he talked much of things present and things to come.

On Saturday afternoon his voice weakened. When the clock struck six, he said: "Did—that—strike—twelve?" The other members of the family were standing around the bed, while I sat holding his hand, so I replied: "No, brother, it is six—six o'clock in the evening."

I have often wondered if he was looking for the coming of the Master at the hour of twelve, for a moment later he raised his head, his wide-open eyes looking straight forward, exclaimed "Jesus! Jesus!" his long accelerated heart ceased to beat, and his spirit literally "met the Lord in the air."

Turning to mother and brother and sister, I quoted the immortal words of Job: "The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord."

Truly the Master was present also in that upper room.

"In the day when I cried Thou answeredst me, and strengthenedst me with strength in my soul."

Anent the Next General Conference

ANOTHER General Conference approaches. To be exact, only one meeting of each Annual Conference in the United States will be held between the time of this writing and the morning of Thursday, April 26, 1934, when the twenty-second General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, will be called to order by the Senior Bishop in some choice and fortunate city in our fair Southland.

And although the time of meeting is still fifteen months in the offing, the question concerning the place of meeting has already been discussed informally by more or less interested groups throughout the bounds of the Church; but no prophet has as yet arisen to say, ipse dixit, exactly where the most august body of our Church will gather for its quadrennial sessions.

The indications, however, point to the fact that the momentous question will not long remain unsettled; for there are rumblings from various quarters showing that certain wide-awake and enterprising citizens and organizations in two or more popular centers covet the privilege of having the General Conference in their midst. And what city with Protestant background and proclivities would not enjoy the distinction of being the capital city of Southern Methodism for a season? For, truly, whatever city in our borders is chosen for the seat of the Conference, that particular city will become the cynosure of Southern Methodists throughout the ends of the earth in April and May, 1934, and a great host of visitors, in addition to the bishops, the connectional men and women, and nearly five hundred carefully chosen delegates, will turn their faces in that direction.

In 1930 the number of regularly elected principal delegates was 472, who represented 46 Conferences and 8 missions; whereas 523 delegates and alternates were actually seated. In 1934 this number of principal delegates will be slightly reduced, due to the fact that the churches in Brazil, Korea, and Mexico have become autonomous and also because some of the Annual Conferences were merged by order of the last General Conference.

The elimination of the delegates from the three foreign countries named above will result in a considerable saving in the cost of holding the Conference. It may be a matter of surprise to many faithful Methodists to learn that the travel and per diem expenses of the delegates from foreign countries to the last General Conference was 36.1 per cent of the cost of rounding up and entertaining all the delegates from the home Conferences. The average travel and per diem expense of the delegates from foreign countries was $823.50, while the same expense for delegates from the home Conferences averaged only $127.78.

The duration of the last General Conference, at Dallas, Tex., was eighteen days, including Sundays; that of 1926, at Memphis, lasted sixteen days; that of 1922, at Hot Springs, lasted twenty days; while that of 1918, at Atlanta, lasted seventeen days. The average for the twenty-one Conferences that have been held was 20.7+ days. But, unless exceedingly advantageous terms are made with the hotels, and the railroads give lower rates than heretofore, we shall be surprised if the 1934 Conference remains in session more than fourteen days. Our people are gradually learning the importance of speeding up business, committees have a way of threshing out details and of boiling down their reports so that the Conference either adopts them or tables them without much ado.

Then there is the cost to be considered and the problem of garnering the wherewithal to meet the traveling expenses, incidentals, and per diem of the delegates. The amount received for General Conference expense from the collections for the general work of the Church have been fluctuating considerably since the budget system of apportioning the benevolences was adopted in 1918, as may be seen from the following statement:

1920	20,957
1921	21,018
1922	20,815
1923	37,747

1924 .....	$37,814
1925 .....	62,576
1926 .....	63,357
1927 .....	30,239
1928 .....	26,141
1929 .....	26,598
1930 .....	21,840
1931 .....	20,913
1932 .....	16,663

From these figures it will be seen that, unless the present year (1933) sees a marked advance in liberality on the part of our membership, there will not be enough in the General Conference Treasury to finance a prolonged session of the body—unless, perchance, loyal and devoted delegates are elected who are willing to provide their own travel to and from the Conference and entertain themselves while there. In these days of low prices the per diem that obtained at the 1926 and 1930 General Conferences could reasonably be reduced, which would result in a saving of several thousand dollars, and thereby make it possible for the Conference to sit several days longer for the same money.

So much for the General Conference itself.

REQUISITES FOR PLACE OF MEETING

The Committee on Entertainment has not had a formal meeting, nor has it made a statement concerning all that will be required of the entertaining city. However, some things that have been expected in the past have been about as follows:

An auditorium capable of seating 800 to 1,200, with platform large enough to seat 40 or 50; also ample room, tables, and chairs for 40 to 50 press representatives in front or to one side of the platform.

Twelve committee and exhibit rooms with seating capacity of 75 to 125; also necessary tables, and other furniture for use in the auditorium, on the platform, and in committee rooms, including markers for delegations and committee rooms.

A rest room near the platform for the use of the bishops.

Telegraph service in or near the auditorium; also two or more telephones in the auditorium and one in the rest room.

The maintenance of a bureau of information.

Three stenographers with typewriters during the Conference (which usually lasts about three weeks).

Several local committees to coöperate with the General Committee in securing satisfactory hotel rates, first-class service from Associated Press and local newspapers; also in securing facilities for printing and mailing the Daily Advocate. As a matter of course the Conference pays for hotel accommodations and for the printing of the Advocate.

The place must be so located that advantageous railroad fares can be obtained so as to make the Conference the most economical possible with reference to the expense of getting to and from the place of meeting. With respect to hotels, very reasonable rates as well as adequate accommodations should be obtained.

It seems highly important to locate the Conference as near the center of population of the Church as possible in the interest of economy; and if this is done some city within a radius of 200 miles of Decatur, Ala., will be selected.

PERSONNEL OF THE COMMITTEE

First we have Fred N. Tate, native of Canada, but now a furniture manufacturer, bank director, railroad official, and outstanding layman in our Wesley Memorial Church at High Point, N. C.

Next comes O. P. Clark, presiding elder of the Sweetwater District in the Northwest Texas Conference.

Then comes R. H. Harper, prominent Mason, Secretary of the Louisiana Conference, now pastor of our First Church at Baton Rouge, La., formerly editor of the New Orleans Christian Advocate.

As the fourth man in the committee we have Percy D. Maddin, a native of Texas, but now prominent attorney of Nashville, railroad director, Vice President of our Board of Missions, a member of the commission to arrange for the establishment of the Korea Methodist Church, and man of affairs.

Last is E. C. Watson, of Clarksburg, W. Va., where he is an active churchman and president of a wholesale shoe house.

There they are, ladies and gentlemen: two preachers serving west of the Mississippi, and three laymen residing east of that great watercourse.

This committee will hold a preliminary meeting in Nashville on January 31, when they will consider written invitations from cities desiring to entertain the Conference.

The entire Church is perfectly aware that this committee will select for the seat of the 1934 General Conference the place that offers the very best inducements to the Church.

Previous General Conferences have been held in the following-named places:

Alabama: Birmingham, 1906.
 Arkansas: Hot Springs, 1922.
 Georgia: Columbus, 1854; Atlanta, 1878 and 1918.
 Kentucky: Louisville, 1874.
 Louisiana: New Orleans, 1866.
 Maryland: Baltimore, 1898.
 Missouri: St. Louis, 1850* and 1890.
 North Carolina: Asheville, 1910.
 Oklahoma: Oklahoma City, 1914.
 Tennessee: Nashville, 1858 and 1882;
 Memphis, 1870, 1894, and 1926; Chattanooga (special session), 1924.
 Texas: Dallas, 1902, 1930.
 Virginia: Petersburg, 1846; Richmond, 1886.

The following cities have never had a General Conference: Augusta, Austin, Beaumont, Charleston, Charlotte, Columbia, Denver, Durham, El Paso, Fort Worth, Fresno, Galveston, Greensboro, Houston, Huntington, Jackson, Jacksonville, Kansas City, Knoxville, Little Rock, Long Beach, Los Angeles, Macon, Miami, Mobile, Montgomery, Norfolk, Port Arthur, Roanoke, St. Joseph, San Antonio, San Francisco, Savannah, Shreveport, Springfield, Tampa, Tulsa, Waco, Washington, Winston-Salem.

Each of these cities boasts a population exceeding 50,000, all are within the bounds of our Church, and it is possible that some philanthropical Methodist or some ambitious Chamber of Commerce might be willing to contribute $25,000 or $50,000 to draw the Conference away from the center of population of the Church.

Wherever the hosts of Southern Methodists may come together in April, 1934, we may be sure that it will be a wonderful gathering of high-minded and seriously inclined men and women.

More Seals of the Bishops

THREE years ago we presented in these pages a story concerning the then obtainable seals of our bishops. Since that time we have secured impressions or descriptions of the seals of other bishops.

That each of our bishops has a seal with a distinctive device and motto is a matter of fact; but it seems that very few people, aside from traveling and local preachers who possess ordination parchments, have ever seen or heard of the bishops' seals.

We are under particular obligation to Miss Margaret Jemison, librarian of Emory University, for much of the information concerning the bishops' seals which is given below.

All of the seals that we have examined are either circular or oval in shape and each has an outer scroll, while several possess also an inner scroll.

Bishop Asbury's motto is "Shew thyself approv'd to God." His initials, "F A," appear in the center in script letters.

At the top of the oval are three small crowns.

Bishop Whatcoat's seal is a small oval with shield inside, topped by formal ornament. His initials, "R W," are on the shield. There is no visible motto on the impression at hand.

Bishop McKendree's motto is "Take heed unto thyself." His initials, "W Mc," appear in an entwined monogram in script.

Bishop Roberts' motto is "Preach the word," which appears at the top of the circle, while there is a formal ornamentation at the base. His monogram, "R R R," appears in the center.

Bishop Andrew's motto is "Watch & Pray," the first two words at the top of the seal and the word "Pray" at the bottom, while the initials, "J O A," are in script and run across the die.

Bishop Capers' motto is "As much as in me is." His device is an upraised trumpet. The oval is outlined by a dotted rule. His initials, "W C," are in script.

Bishop Paine's motto is "Feed my sheep," which appears above an eye radiating beams. The seal is circular in shape, outlined by scallops. The initials, "R P," are in script.

Bishop Kavanaugh's motto is "Our sufficiency is of God." His initials, "H H K," are in the center. The oval is outlined with a dotted rule.

Bishop McTyeire's motto is "Take heed to all the flock." His monogram, "H N McT," appears in the center.

Bishop Keener's motto is "In His right hand seven stars. The words "M. E. Church, South," appear opposite the motto. His monogram, "J C K," is entwined in the center.

Bishop Parker's motto is "Feed the flock of God." His initials "L P," appear in Old English in the center. There is a dotted scroll around the border.

Bishop Murrah's motto is "Here am I.

Send me," these words appearing within double circles. His monogram, "W B M," is in heavy letters in the center.

Bishop Arthur J. Moore's motto, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ," appears just inside a circular rule together with the outline of a large cross, while on the outside of the rule are the words "Methodist Episcopal Church, South," and the initials "A. J. M." with an ornament before and one after the initials. Bishop Moore says: "I chose this text of Scripture because it seems to express, better than any other I know, the central business of a minister's life. Mr. Moffatt translates this text to read, 'For I am proud of the gospel of Christ.' To be the messenger of God's voice is the biggest business I know in heaven or on earth. I covet nothing greater than the consciousness of being a faithful gospel preacher."

Bishop Kern's motto is "To live is Christ," which appears with his initials, "P. B. K.," between the inner and outer scrolls. In the center is outlined an ornamental cross. Bishop Kern writes: "I give you an imprint of my seal with the simple word that the quotation is a part of Paul's statement, 'For me to live is Christ.' This I consider the heart of the whole Christian matter. To live like Christ and let Christ live within us is the goal of every Christian."

Other bishops have not responded to our request for information concerning their seals.

The Judicial Council

EVERY one of the forty-two Annual Conferences has now voted officially on the subject of the creation of a Judicial Council, which constitutional question was by the 1930 General Conference ordered sent down to the Annual Conferences with the recommendation that the "changes indicated in the paper be made."

The entire vote for and against the measure follows:

OFFICIAL VOTE

Conference	For	Against	Total
Alabama	125	25	150
Arizona	17	7	24
Baltimore	205	31	236
Belgian	22	23	45

Western Mexican	21	...	21
Western North Carolina	293	4	302
Western Virginia	105	15	120
	5,098	1,152	6,250

With a total vote of 6,250, in order to carry the amendment the necessary vote would be 4,688 for and 1,562 against. As the final vote stands, 81.57 per cent have voted for the amendment and 18.43 against it.

Numerically, therefore, the measure carried by the required "three-fourths of all the members of the several Annual Conferences present and voting," with 410 votes to spare.

The Judicial Council now becomes law and will become effective "when the Judicial Council shall have been elected and organized."

(For the full text of the new law and an analysis of the vote by Episcopal Districts, etc., see pages 337, 338, 350, and 351 of the GENERAL MINUTES AND YEARBOOK for 1931-32.)

Antiques of Interest to Methodists

SCATTERED about over the country there are hundreds of so-called shrines—the homes of the great and the near great, houses where certain generals maintained headquarters in times of war, springs where thirsty travelers stopped to drink, mountains where battles were fought, the Alamo.

But we are interested here with Methodist antiques, of which there are many in our territory. From various sources we have gathered a list of some of these.

Strother's Chapel, in which was held the first Conference ever held within the territory of the Tennessee Conference, has been moved to Nashville and can now be seen on the campus of Scarritt College. While this building now contains many articles of historic interest, we call attention here to two only: the gavel and table used by Bishops Asbury and McKendree at the session of the Western Conference held at Green Hill's place, Liberty Hill, in 1808.

Dr. T. D. Ellis has in his office at Louisville, Ky., a table that was used by Bishop Asbury at what was perhaps the first Conference ever held in the Kentucky-Louisville territory, and which bears the following inscription: "This table was used by Bishop Francis Asbury and Bishop William McKendree in presiding over the Tennessee Annual Conference held at Kennerly's Chapel, Logan County, Kentucky, September 29–October 6, 1814, and is placed in the office of the Board of Church Extension by the courtesy of the Lewisburg congregation, which is the successor of the old Kennerly's Chapel."

We are advised by Rev. R. S. Baughan, of Hampton, Va., that the Uzzell Church on the Isle of Wight Circuit, Virginia, has a pulpit that was used by Bishop Francis Asbury.

An Episcopalian friend who lives at Enterprise, Miss., owns a chair that he bought in England, in which Charles Wesley used to sit when visiting a certain home.

H. G. Hawkins, of Meridian, Miss., has a leather-bound copy of the Port Gibson Female College catalog published in 1847. The catalog is a single large leaf folded like a Rand-McNally map of a state.

J. F. Archer, of Floresville, Tex., possesses Volume I, 1789, and Volume II, 1790, of the Arminian Magazine, both bound in leather.

David F. Fuller, of Grand Prairie, Tex., has a hymn book authorized by the Virginia Conference in 1811, and compiled by Rev. Stith Mead.

The family of the late Rev. Z. T. McCann, Salem, Mo., is in possession of a Bible that is nearly two hundred years old. It was brought to America in 1765, and "has reared six generations of Methodists."

Mrs. Zuleika Smith, Route 3, Kevil, Ky., writes: "My mother has part of an old Bible that belonged to her Grandfather Joshua Smith, whose farm included a part or all of the land where the town of Fulton, Ky., now stands. Some of the s's in this old Bible are printed exactly like f's. Words that should begin with the small letter s, at the beginning have f's, and words that should have small s's within them have f's, but words ending in the small letter s, and those beginning with a capital S, are printed as they are now."

W. E. Towson, Route 2, Smyrna, Ga., writes: "I have in my possession a baptismal bowl used by Dr. J. W. Lambuth in Japan, from which most of our early Christians in that field were baptized; the passport Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Lambuth used when they went to China in 1854; engravings—companion pieces—'Wesley preaching on his father's tombstone,' and 'Charles Wesley preaching to the American Indians.'"

The Tenth Yearbook

THE GENERAL MINUTES AND YEARBOOK all under one cover is now ten years old. That it continues to render a real service to our preachers and laymen we have every reason to believe. Many order it long before it comes from the press; hundreds more order when the first advertisement appears; some telegraph for copies; and a few call over long-distance telephone for copies to be rushed to them. All of which is gratifying to Editor and Publishers.

Thanks are due to the Annual Conference Secretaries who furnished the condensed minutes of their respective Conferences. Without their co-operation it would not be possible to bring this book from the press in January every year. And we take pleasure in commending Secretaries J. E. Alexander, H. M. Canter, W. I. Canter, E. L. Crawford, D. G. Decherd, W. V. Dibble, R. G. Mood, R. S. Satterfield, W. L. Sherrill, W. F. Smith, and B. Rhett Turnipseed for remarkable promptness in forwarding complete minutes this year. During the year 1932 the following-named Secretaries furnished complete reports in proper form for use in this book within four weeks after the adjournment of their Conferences and are entitled to places on our

The Use of the Directory

UNTIL 1882 the GENERAL MINUTES had no alphabetically arranged Directory of the Preachers, and even then no addresses were given. The addresses were first introduced in 1910, and they have appeared every succeeding year since.

In 1902 there was a demand for a Directory of all the Preachers strictly alphabetically arranged from A to Z, without observing the usual Conference lines. At tremendous labor and considerable cost this was done—that is, the names were alphabetically arranged, while following each name was the Conference in which the preacher held membership, and also the page number indicating where the name could be found. But so much detail was involved in the building up of this arrangement, and so much time required to index each name after the pages were made up, that the GENERAL MINUTES did not come from the press until several months after the normal publication date. As a mailing list it was a failure. And although by some it was probably considered a noble experiment as a Directory of Preachers, the then Editor of the GENERAL MINUTES did not look upon it with favor, and did not consider the effort worth the candle, for he never repeated it again.

We earnestly strive to make of the YEARBOOK a thesaurus of Church information that will serve our people faithfully, well, and efficiently—and of course we want the Directory to be as complete and as accurate as we can make it.

While we do not claim that our Directory system is perfect, we do believe that, by and large, it is the most satisfactory Directory that we can devise for all the general purposes for which the Directory is used; and it has grown in popularity and in usefulness by leaps and bounds during the last ten years.

One of the most steadfast friends of the YEARBOOK occasionally complains that he loses sight of a preacher once in a while because he changes his relation or transfers from one Conference to another. Our reply is that if he will name the man and tell us in what Conference he held his membership last year, we can find him in less than four minutes. And this is our method (an actual case this year): H. K. Morehead was a member of the North Arkansas Conference last year. His name was not in the Directory for that Conference this year. We examine the Death Roll for the Conference year, but his name is not there. We examine the list of Transfers, but he has not transferred. We then turn to the condensed minutes of the North Arkansas Conference and examine Questions 5, 11, 12, and 21. If the name is not found in answer to one of these questions, the gentleman has indeed dropped out of the Conference without trace—and this very rarely happens. In the case under consideration we find the preacher's name in answer to Question 11, for he located during the past year, and as a local preacher his name was dropped from the roll. However, local preachers who serve as supplies are entitled to places in the Directory.

The Editor invites suggestions concerning any improvements that may be made in the YEARBOOK.

Pre-Ministerial Occupations

SOMEBODY laughed when one of our bishops remarked that the reason there are "so many no-account preachers is because of the sort of laymen we have to make them out of."

Be that as it may, we have here a remarkably vivid exhibit showing what one hundred of our ministers did before they became pronounced followers of the lowly Nazarene.

It is a very interesting study. As the reader glances over these names he will find the names of preachers of his acquaintance, and it is possible that some surprises will come to light.

And we venture the statement that many of these men are better preachers because they have rubbed up against the world of business.

A Ministerial Memory Book

WE have been much interested in a Ministerial Memory Book kept by the pastor of our Church at Myrtle, in the North Mississippi Conference, Rev. A. W. Bailey, and his wife.

In this book the pastor attempts to make a record of the work done in each charge he serves, so far as it is possible to do this, with pictures, clippings, and otherwise, if it can be visualized.

Brother Bailey advises us that he keeps separate records of each charge, using pictures of churches, of friends, and of ministers who hold the revivals, and also preserves clippings of interest about the church and its people, being careful to give places, dates, number of conversions, and any other item of interest.

In answer to our letter inquiring about this book, Brother Bailey wrote us as follows:

The book is 12¼ inches long by 8¼ inches wide, bound in nice brown cloth binding, with engraving on the corners and around sides. In the center is a diamond-shaped gold indentation and printed thereon in large letters "My Golden Treasures." Underneath this in smaller letters, "A Memory Book." We bought the book eight years ago and it cost at that time $4.50. It is a loose-leaf book with good quality white leaves.

We are attempting to make as complete a record of our stay on each work as we can. We paste pictures, clippings, etc., in it, in as artistic arrangements as we can, using a fountain pen for printing in a neat way underneath each.

We began ours with pictures of our "Sweetheart days" as we married and immediately entered the ministry; also put in pictures and clippings of the wedding. Then came our first "circuit" (Duck Hill). On the first page we put the following: We clipped from the minutes the name of the district and all the pastors therein, leaving at top the date, etc., encircled my name and appointment with ink, pasted at top of page, then put in those admitted on trial at the same time I was; picture of our presiding bishop; next followed, on other pages, pictures of the different churches, parsonage scenes, friends, clippings from county papers, etc.

We feel sure that many of our pastors will be interested in following the example set by Brother Bailey.

Favorite Secular Books in Our Parsonages

THOSE of us who are on the inside and devote much of our time to the making of Cokesbury Good Books sometimes become so absorbed in our own tasks that we wonder why anybody would want to go outside of a Cokesbury catalogue to get a favorite book.

However, from the reports that reach the Editor of the YEARBOOK it seems that many of our preachers and their better halves still find good literature among the old classics, as well as in some of the up-to-date books that are coming from the press from month to month.

In this section we find that our people still have a leaning toward philosophy, history, biography, science, allegory, poetry, adventure, and a good deal else.

Favorite Hymns and Texts

HERE we have the favorite hymns and texts of more than two hundred preachers, most of whom have special appointments—that is, as editors, teachers, secretaries, etc.

Some of the brethren find their favorite songs outside of the Hymnal. Most of these may be found in one of the Cokesbury Hymnals; hence we have designated these with a C for Cokesbury Hymnal and NC for New Cokesbury Hymnal.

The most popular hymn is No. 141, "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross," with others following, respectively, as follows:

- 461. "How Firm a Foundation."
- 309. "Amazing Grace, How Sweet the Sound."
- 388. "A Charge to Keep I Have."
- 463. "Jesus, Lover of My Soul."
- 543. "Dear Lord and Father of Mankind."
- 50. "Abide with Me."

Of the favorite texts, as in previous issues of the YEARBOOK, John 3: 16 leads all the rest, this time with thirty-four votes. Other texts selected by five or more preachers are Matthew 6: 33, Matthew 11: 28-30, John 10: 10, and Romans 1: 16. These texts are scattered over seven books of the Old Testament and fifteen books of the New Testament.

These Veteran Secretaries

THE condensed minutes this year, on the whole, reached this office with still greater promptness than ever before.

During the past year two of our Secretaries, C. C. Higbee, New Mexico, and B. F. Lipscomb, Virginia, passed into the great beyond, the latter after eighteen years of faithful service.

New Secretaries this year are: C. K. Yim, California Oriental Mission; Byars Columbus, Indian Mission; A. C. Douglas, New Mexico; H. L. Sone, China; Evaristo Picazo, Western Mexican; R. M. White, Virginia.

Secretaries who have served consecutively for more than five years are as follows, listed in the order of their seniority:

- Sterling Fisher, West Texas, 42 years.

- J. C. Montgomery, St. Louis, 7 years.
- Cal C. Wright, Northwest Texas, 5 years.

Kinsmen in the Ministry

THERE seems to be no end to this matter of raking up relations in the ministry. When we first introduced this department in the YEARBOOK we were under the impression that we had covered practically all the relatives in the ministry; however, each year the list seems to expand, whereas we naturally expected it to shrink.

It is interesting to note how far removed some of these kinfolks get from each other—as far as the East is from the West.

Charles Grady Aldridge is the son of W. W. Aldridge (local preacher), brother of W. Hewlitt Aldridge (local preacher), cousin of Frank L., Henry L., and William E. Aldridge (brothers), all of the North Alabama Conference. He is a nephew of J. E. Proctor, a Baptist minister.

A. F. Tucker, New Mexico, is a cousin of Charlie Walton, Methodist Protestant.

A. W., Homer, L. R., and W. S. Vanderpool, Oklahoma, are brothers.

M. P. Weikel, Baltimore, is the father of M. C. Weikel, Holston.

F. L. Wells is father of W. W. Wells (local preacher), both of Louisiana.

George F. Winfield, Mississippi, is father of G. F. Winfield, Jr., Presbyterian missionary in China.

George B. Winton, Tennessee, is a brother of W. H. Winton and uncle of J. F. Winton, both of Southwest Missouri; he is also uncle of E. L. Kirk, Western North Carolina, and King Vivion, Texas.

James M. and Mike J. Wysor, Holston, are cousins.

Per Capita Giving in the Church

THE figures in the accompanying table indicate that the prevailing depression in 1932 affected adversely the generosity of our people in every single Conference and Mission in the United States—except the Pacific Conference.

Can anybody except Dr. William Hamilton Nelson offer a valid reason why California should this year stand out above all other sections of the country in the matter of her generosity to the Church? Of course Californians have much for which to be thankful—so have we all! We suggest one mighty reason for California's position: more than 4.5 per cent of the members of that Conference are tithers. (See last column of Table VII in the back of the YEARBOOK for report on tithers.)

For the entire Church the average per capita contribution for all purposes in 1931 was $11.81; whereas in 1932 it was only $9—a decrease of $2.81 for every man, woman, and child in the Church. This means that our people gave less than 23.8 per cent per capita than they gave in 1931.

Since we have such a large number of new members this year it seems surprising that the decrease should continue. Are we to believe that the rising generation has not been trained to give?

Surely we have passed through the worst. Let us take a long look and a long stride forward, count our many blessings, share generously with the Church what God gives us, and see what the Giver of all will return to us in his own good way.

The table below indicates the fluctuations for a quadrennium. Let us study it, lift up our hearts, and do better another year.

Literature Every Methodist Home Should Have

A good Bible.

A Concordance.

The Discipline.

A Hymn Book.

Christian Advocate.

The Conference Organ.

Sunday school literature.

And, of course, the YEARBOOK of the Church.

Long-Service Pastors

Abide with me

BELOW we give the names of preachers who have remained in the same charge continuously for more than five years. For obvious reasons we have not listed editors, teachers, missionaries, and connectional men.

Methodist Headquarters

OUR cities should have centers where Methodists can come together for special meetings and for fellowship generally—not merely for those who live thereabouts, but for the accommodation of those who may stop for a day or two to see the points of interest. We now have headquarters in the cities named below:

Atlanta: Wesley Memorial Building.

Birmingham: 516 North Twenty-Second Street.

Chicago (M. E. Church): 58 East Washington Street.

Dallas: Publishing House, 1308 Commerce Street.

Dobbs Ferry, N. Y. (M. E. Church): Book Concern Building.

Fayetteville (Ark): Mount Sequoyah.

Lake Junaluska: Assembly Grounds.

Little Rock: Eleventh and Scott Streets.

Los Angeles: Trinity Church.

Louisville: 1115 Fourth Avenue.

Memphis: 616-618 Empire Building.

Nashville: Publishing House, 810 Broadway; Mission Rooms, Doctors' Building.

New Orleans: 512 Camp Street.

New York (M. E. Church): 150 Fifth Avenue.

Philadelphia (M. E. Church): 1701 Arch Street.

Richmond: Publishing House, Fifth and Grace Streets.

St. Louis: Security Building.

San Francisco: Publishing House, Glide Memorial Church.

Warsaw, Poland (Warszawa Polska): Mokotowska 12.

THE SUPPORT OF THE MINISTRY

BEGINNING with the Conference year 1914-15 the salaries of the presiding elders and preachers—never enough to create envy on the part of the members of the bar or the bricklayers' union or the brotherhood of railway trainmen—gradually increased from year to year until the crest of the wave of ministerial salary increases was reached in 1927. Since then the wave has receded more rapidly than it came to the flood stage. The salary levels in 1932 are above those of 1919 but below those of 1920.

In order that interested observers of the trend of the times may see how the salaries of our ministers have been affected since the crest was reached we present the facts by Conferences in parallel columns and then by grand totals. Surely we do not point with pride to the showing that is made in this table, for it requires only a glance to determine that the whole trend is downward.

The percentage of decrease is indicated under each total for the years 1930, 1931, and 1932; and in order to be perfectly fair in all respects and show the influence that the decrease in numbers of elders and preachers has had on the decrease in salaries, we give also the percentage of falling off in numbers as well. This reduction in numbers will absorb its proportionate share of the loss in salary.

It will be noted that the salaries of the presiding elders in 1932 were 27 per cent less than in 1929. In 1929 the average salary was $4,311, whereas in 1932 it was only $3,304.

In 1932 the salaries of the preachers in charge were 24.7 per cent less than in 1929. In 1929 the average salary was $1,645, whereas in 1932 it was only $1,279. The slight differential in these figures is caused by the difference in the number of presiding elders and preachers in charge in the two years named.

In none of the above figures is any account taken of the rental values of the parsonages occupied by the preachers, nor is any allowance made for the amounts contributed to mission churches by the Conference Boards of Missions.

When we view this exhibit with a critic's eye we naturally wonder why such conditions exist in our Church economy. But if we look about us, we see everywhere evidences that the Church is not the solitary sufferer. Apparently in every walk of life men and women face the same conditions. The difference in our favor is that we have multiplied spiritual blessings that are worth infinitely more in the long run than a surplus of money in our vaults. And one of the effects of this depression has been to bring men in high and low stations to a better understanding of the needs of each other. Never before in the history of the world has there been a greater supply of the real necessities of life—if we only had sufficient statesmanship to govern the world's resources and properly distribute them on a fairly equitable basis.

Just for a moment and by way of comparison, let us mention fraternal societies and the Church in the same breath. Membership in the former has decreased during the last two years; in the latter it has increased. The application for membership in the former must be accompanied by the initiation fee; in the latter the contribution is voluntary, and the doors of the Church are open to all.

And economically the Church is better off than the erstwhile rich man.

Let us compare the shrinkage in preachers' salaries with the relative decline in the average market value of stocks and bonds in the same years, these estimates being based on 90 stocks and 90 bonds:

	1929	1930	1931	1932
Value of stocks	$164.10	$160.20	$102.80	$57.10
Percentage of decline		2.377%	35.83%	44.45%
Value of bonds	$ 98.20	$ 97.20	$ 83.60	$67.70
Percentage of decline		1.018%	14%	19%

And we are reminded that the poor farmers have fared even worse so far as their money crops or staple commodities are concerned, since they fluctuated more than 23 per cent during 1932 alone. If the farmer is out of debt and raises his own food and provender, he is at least in good circumstances.

If we were bold enough to suggest a remedy for our present ills, it would be this: Cast aside fear, display a little more confidence in your fellow men, work early and late, spend less time in needless argumentation, burn less gas, pray without ceasing, and lean heavily on the strong arm of the Lord Almighty.

PASTIMES AND RECREATIONS OF OUR PREACHERS

THAT "all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy" is a well-accepted aphorism in these days goes without argumentation. Likewise many of our preachers now evidently believe that all preaching and no recreation will conduce to the making of very dull sermons, for they indulge in practically all the recreations known to men of affairs in the workaday world.

Surely we ought to expect better sermons from him who takes a reasonable amount of recreation than from him who confines himself too closely to the walls of his study.

R. O. Ansley reads modern poetry for mental recreation.

Clem N. Baker plays golf and hies him away to Lake Junaluska and Mount Sequoyah.

T. H. Ballarby acquaints himself with the habits of bees and grows flowers.

R. A. Boone contents himself with the reading of Latin.

R. E. Branscomb is travel-minded.

F. V. Brower likes cooking.

O. E. Brown enjoys a game of shuffleboard.

Ed F. Cook enjoys nothing so much as change of work.

R. H. Cooper engages actively in bee-keeping and passively at painting pictures.

J. B. Craven's principal outdoor sport is losing money at farming.

Mason Crum finds pleasure in astronomy and photography.

J. L. Cuninggim's heart is wrapped up in Scarritt College.

Dana Dawson, according to mood, indulges in hunting and traveling.

Elam F. Dempsey takes up research work when he comes to the end of his sermon.

J. C. Diggs indulges in outdoor sports.

Hubert Dodd gathers shells and turns to music.

F. B. Faust claims that his work is his recreation.

O. G. Gibson combines poetry and music.

R. K. Heacock plays the clarinet, saxophone, and tennis.

Ivan Lee Holt has traveled widely and enjoys athletics and athletic contests.

C. E. Hoole travels and helps the boys at scoutcraft.

C. S. Kirkpatrick is old-fashioned enough to participate in barnyard golf.

H. M. Lewis plays volley ball and pitches horseshoes.

N. P. Manning finds nothing so refreshing as playing with children.

G. L. McGehey does a bit of writing and plays croquet.

M. T. Plyler delves into the mysteries of genealogy.

Clifford Ramsey climbs mountains for mental relaxation.

W. B. Rigg goes in for writing.

B. F. Roberts plays his saxophone indoors and looks after bees outside.

J. G. Root works with boy scouts.

G. F. Sanford studies nature, especially trees and shrubs.

W. A. Swift holds revival meetings.

A. B. Tanton takes to art work and cabinet-making.

L. G. Tinnell finds his recreation in basket ball.

A. F. Tucker likes to be with boys in scout work and clubs.

R. U. Waldraven gets pleasure in camp life and travel.

M. N. Waldrip collects books and coins.

W. A. White goes hunting and plays baseball.

J. D. F. Williams works with young people.

G. F. Winfield takes in a picture show occasionally.

Others find their recreation under the following headings:

Baseball.—C. G. Aldridge, L. P. Bloodworth, G. E. Holley, F. B. Hooks, J. L. Sutton, S. S. McKenney.

OUR ONE HUNDRED TEN (110) LARGEST CHURCHES

Editorial Note

As set out in an editorial elsewhere in the YEARBOOK, there has been a decline in the salaries paid our preachers during the past year. Because of this fact we now have fewer than seventy-five preachers who receive salaries of $5,000 or more. For this reason we are this year publishing the list of our one hundred ten largest churches by members and omitting the list by salaries as heretofore.

The list presented here is compiled from the very latest reports received at this office.

When Our Bishops Retire

THE General Conference of 1930 at Dallas adopted the following legislation concerning the superannuation of a bishop: "A bishop may be superannuated on account of age or infirmity, at his own request, or on recommendation of the Committee on Episcopacy; provided, that no bishop shall remain on the effective list longer than the General Conference nearest his seventy-second birthday; provided, further, that the provision in regard to age retirement shall not become effective until the close of the General Conference of 1934."

If each of the fifteen bishops now living continues on the active roll until the General Conference when he will become automatically superannuated, the table below gives the year of his retirement and also his age on May 15 of the General Conference year:

Urban V. W. Darlington, Western Virginia, President of Morris Harvey College.

Horace M. Du Bose, North Georgia, Book Editor.

William N. Ainsworth, South Georgia, pastor of Wesley Monumental Church, Savannah, Ga.

James Cannon, Jr., Virginia, President of Blackstone College for Girls.

Sam R. Hay, Texas, pastor of First Church, Houston, Tex.

Hoyt M. Dobbs, North Alabama, pastor of First Church, Anniston, Ala.

Hiram Abiff Boaz, Central Texas, President of Southern Methodist University.

Arthur J. Moore, North Alabama, pastor of First Church, Birmingham.

Paul B. Kern, West Texas, pastor of Travis Park Church, San Antonio, Tex.

A. Frank Smith, Texas, pastor of First Church, Houston, Tex.

Facts About Our Bishops

THERE have been 61 bishops of the Church, including those who were bishops before the division in 1844, and 51 bishops in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, since the division.

The youngest man ever elected to the episcopacy was Charles B. Galloway, who was elected at the General Conference in Richmond, Va., in 1886, at the early age of 36.

The oldest man ever elected was John Early, who was selected at Columbus, Ga., in 1854, at the age of 68.

Joseph S. Key died in 1920 at the age of 91, being the oldest of the bishops.

The oldest living bishop is Collins Denny, who was 78 on May 28, 1932.

The youngest living bishop is A. Frank Smith, who celebrated his forty-third anniversary on November 1, 1932.

Salaries of the Bishops

THE active bishops are paid $6,000 per year, with a maximum of $1,500 per year for house rent and clerical help and $500 per year for traveling expenses. The bishop who serves the district along the Pacific Coast is allowed $500 extra for traveling expenses. (At the meeting of the College of Bishops in Shreveport, La., in December, 1932, the bishops "took action asking that the treasurers reduce the monthly payments on the salaries of the bishops by sixteen and two-thirds per cent, but that no reduction be made in the payments to the widows of bishops.")

The salary of a retired bishop is $3,000 per year. The compensation for the widows of bishops is $1,200 per year, with an allowance of $300 per year for each dependent child under eighteen years of age. Miss Nina Wilson receives $1,200, and $800 for the care of her sister.

The American's Creed

I BELIEVE in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign nation of many sovereign States; a perfect union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice, and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it; to support its Constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag, and to defend it against all enemies. (Written by William Tyler Page, Clerk of the U. S. House of Representatives, in 1917, and adopted and promulgated by the Government's Committee on Publication. Accepted by the House of Representatives on behalf of the American people, April 3, 1918.)

IN WHAT RESPECTS THE CONFERENCES LEAD

FROM the statistical tables and from other sources we have gleaned the items that appear below and present them for the information they contain:

Baltimore Conference reports the largest amount collected for Lay Activities.

Central Texas suffered the loss of the largest number of preachers by death.

Florida Conference tied Memphis for the largest number of traveling deacons ordained. It also reports the largest number of members in the Fellowship of Stewardship.

Holston Conference enjoys the largest increase in membership for the year. It discontinued more probationers. It leads in the number of adults baptized. It has the heaviest indebtedness on district parsonages.

Latin Mission boasts the largest percentage of increase in membership.

Little Rock Conference suffered the heaviest damage to property and collected the largest amount on losses.

Louisville Conference licensed the largest number of young preachers.

Memphis Conference tied Florida for the largest number of ordinations of traveling deacons.

New Mexico Conference tied North Texas for the largest number of preachers received by transfer.

North Alabama Conference leads in the largest number of superannuate homes and their value. It also suffered the heaviest damage to parsonages.

North Carolina Conference raised the largest amount for the Lake Junaluska Assembly.

North Georgia Conference has the largest number of local preachers and Epworth Leagues and members. It reports the largest number of superannuates and the largest amount collected for the Superannuate Endowment Fund. It raised the largest amount for Golden Cross Enrollment and for all purposes.

North Texas Conference located the largest number of preachers and sent out the largest number by transfer. It tied New Mexico for the privilege of welcoming the largest number by transfer.

Northwest Texas Conference reports the largest number of preachers returning to the fold and asking for readmission.

Pacific Conference has the largest number of Wesley Brotherhoods and members. It reports the largest per capita payment on the part of the Church membership.

St. Louis Conference, for some reason, suffered the heaviest loss in membership.

Texas Conference reports the largest amount paid to presiding elders, but suffered the heaviest damage to its churches.

Texas Mexican Conference has the distinction of paying the highest percentage of its apportionment for the General Work of the Church.

Virginia Conference certainly should be proud of her women folk, for it has the largest number of Woman's Missionary Societies and members, and reported the largest amount collected for their work. The Conference reports the largest number of young preachers admitted on trial, the largest number of supernumerary and effective preachers, the largest number of members. Also reported the largest number of Sunday school officers and teachers. In money matters it reported the largest amount collected for Conference claimants, Church Extension, and amount paid to the preachers in charge. The Conference carries the largest amount of fire insurance and paid the largest amount in premiums. It also has the largest number of parsonages.

Western North Carolina Conference has a record to be proud of: The largest number of young preachers admitted into full connection, the largest number of ordinations, the largest amount paid for Christian Education, Bishops' Fund, Voluntary Kingdom Extension Offering, Missions, Federal Council, and the General Work of the Church. It leads in the largest number of Sunday schools and Sunday school scholars. It reports the largest number of houses of worship, the highest valuation thereon and also the heaviest indebtedness. It reports the highest valuation of its parsonages and the heaviest indebtedness thereon. It reported the largest number of ordinations, charges, societies (churches), infants baptized, traveling preachers, and young preachers admitted on trial. Best of all, it reported the largest number of members received on profession of faith.

OUR HOSPITALS AND ORPHANAGES

Our General Hospital Board

BY CHARLES C. JARRELL, GENERAL SECRETARY

THE Law Book of our Church contains these significant words: "The Church believes that hospitals should be established and maintained by our denomination for the care of the sick and injured."

This hospital creed has begun to express itself in hospital deeds. The Southern Methodist Hospital and Sanatorium at Tucson, Ariz., may well be called our one and only connessional hospital. Its appeal to the Church consists in the fact that it receives patients from all over our territory suffering from tuberculosis. It has rendered valuable service to missionary pastors, Church workers, and to the general public. It is a strong factor in our work in the Southwest. It receives Golden Cross funds from all the Annual Conferences that have no direct connection with Methodist hospitals.

A swift glance at the whole field reveals the fact that we have twelve going hospitals, with a bed capacity of 2,000, treating about 35,000 patients annually, and educating about 700 trained nurses.

The names of these hospitals are:

Wesley Memorial Hospital, Emory University, Ga.; R. H. Oppenheimer, Superintendent.

Barnes Hospital, St. Louis, Mo.; L. H. Burlingham, Superintendent.

Good Samaritan Hospital, Lexington, Ky.; Miss Lake Johnson, Superintendent.

Southern Methodist Hospital and Sanatorium, Tucson, Ariz.; D. G. Decherd, Superintendent.

Methodist Hospital, Houston, Tex.; Miss Josie M. Roberts, Superintendent.

Methodist Hospital, Memphis, Tenn.; Henry Hedden, Superintendent.

Methodist Hospital, Hattiesburg, Miss.; H. Ogden, Superintendent.

Dallas Methodist Hospital, Dallas, Tex.; J. H. Groseclose, Superintendent.

Methodist Hospital, Fort Worth, Tex.; Truman Terrell, Superintendent.

Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital, Elkin, N. C.; H. L. Johnson, Superintendent.

Duke Hospital, Durham, N. C.; M. E. Winston, Superintendent.

The Warren A. Candler Hospital, Savannah, Ga.; Charles G. Earnest, Superintendent.

These hospitals render a large amount of free service to the sick poor. The total amount of such service runs to nearly a half million dollars every year.

Particularly noteworthy for the large amount of charity work done are: Barnes Hospital, St. Louis, Mo.; Methodist Hospital, Memphis, Tenn.; Duke Hospital, Durham, N. C.

The Good Samaritan Hospital, Lexington, Ky., has become a great institution under the generous oversight of Mr. Henry L. Ott, President of the Board of Trustees. The work of this hospital for crippled children is thrilling for those who know the inside story. These children live in a sunlit roof, and thus get the maximum of sunshine. In a well-lighted, airy basement is a shop fitted up with all kinds of carpenters' tools. Durable toys and other articles are turned out by these children who clutch for happiness in this manner.

One of these hospitals, The Warren A. Candler Hospital, of Savannah, Ga., is under the fostering care of the General Hospital Board, which acquired ownership of it in March, 1931. The Superintendent, Rev. Charles G. Earnest, with the coöperation of a local Board of Trustees, headed up in Mr. Gordon Groover, and under particular oversight of the Executive Committee of the General Hospital Board, has made a signal success of this hospital, having come through a trying year with a small cash surplus. The hospital is beautifully located, covering an entire square in the geographical center of the city of Savannah, and surrounded by handsome homes and beautiful parks.

The Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital at Elkin, N. C., has just opened a splendid Nurses' Home, which will add greatly to its efficiency.

The Golden Cross Enrollment throughout the Church has suffered under the severe financial strain upon our people. The North Georgia Conference, however, has expended more money through the Golden Cross in the treatment of the sick poor at Wesley Memorial Hospital this year than it did last year, the total being around $8,500. In this good work the North Georgia Conference leads the entire Church.

This healing ministry of the Church has rapidly expanded and if fostered earnestly and generously for a few more years will become one of the great philanthropies of this section of the nation.

The General Hospital Board has received from the Church through the general assessments during the year just closed a little less than $18,000. It has received from Kingdom Extension funds about $8,000. This Board has tried to administer these slender funds with utmost economy, the entire working force for the last six months consisting of the General Secretary and one assistant. By reason of these economies the General Hospital Board will close its fiscal year, January 31, 1933, with a small cash surplus. It would be highly desirable if this surplus could be increased to an amount that would make it possible for the Board to run through the summer months without borrowing any money. This has not as yet been made possible by the Church. The larger part of the Kingdom Extension funds of the Board has gone to the connectional tubercular work at Tucson.

The General Hospital Board is trustee for a fund for the treatment of needy blind persons in Arizona, admitted as patients into our Southern Methodist Hospital and Sanatorium at Tucson. This fund was created out of the estate of the late Mr. Caswell L. Hutcheson amounting to $22,000. Wealthy persons over the Church might well use the General Hospital Board as trustee and agent for their Good Samaritan mercies.

Methodist Hospital Association

BY FRED T. BARNETT

AN organization whose work is auxiliary to that of the General Hospital Board is the "Hospital Association of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South," the membership of which is composed of the superintendents of the existing Methodist hospitals and one representative from each of the Conference Hospital Boards.

The object of the Hospital Association is to elevate the standards and to promote the interests of the hospitals of the Church, to coordinate the practices and activities of these institutions, and to promote the ideals and teachings of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, as applying to the care of the sick and injured.

Annual meetings of this association are held, at which time addresses by distinguished physicians, nurses, hospital superintendents, and others are delivered, as a part of a well-prepared program, and round-table discussions are held for the consideration of the practical problems which confront our Church hospitals.

The 1933 meeting of this organization will be held in St. Louis, Mo.

The officers of the Association are: Dr. C. W. Webdell, Chaplain of Barnes Hospital, St. Louis, Mo., President; Rev. C. Q. Smith, Vice President; Mr. Fred T. Barnett, Secretary and Treasurer.

HOME OF THE AGED AND ORPHANS

Established 1925. Location, Gaithersburg, Md. Property of the Baltimore Conference. Superintendent, Herman M. Wilson. Two fine brick buildings are now in use and the plans call for other units to be erected in the future. The home is caring for about seventy aged men and women of the Church. It is not limited to superannuate preachers and their wives, but is opened to laymen and laywomen as well. The first unit of the home was constructed at a cost of over $100,000. The second unit, known as Epworth Hall, was built and furnished by the Epworth Leagues of the Conference at a cost of about $50,000. It stands as a monument of the love and respect of the twentieth-century youth of the Church for their aged brothers and sisters. The charter of the institution provides also for an orphanage. This is sorely needed and will be built as soon as it is feasible to do so.

ANNUAL STATEMENT OF OUR PUBLISHING AGENTS

AS required by the Discipline of the Church, we submit for your consideration our annual statement for the fiscal year ending February 29, 1932.

In submitting our report for the past year we do not feel it necessary to burden you by making reference to financial conditions with which you are thoroughly familiar. We might call attention to statements of business houses generally and the fact that most of them are showing losses, or to some denominational houses that show considerable losses for the past year, but we do not rejoice in their difficulties and are, therefore, facing up to our own problem of the immediate future.

Your Book Committee and the Publishing Agents have given careful attention to the general supervision and operation of the Publishing House. By taking advantage of lower costs of materials and by very careful administration of the business we have been able to make large savings in expenses. Other reductions are constantly being put into effect. Beginning March 1, 1932, a general reduction in all salaries and wages was made effective.

Economies indicated above have made it possible to reduce prices on songbooks, church and Sunday school supplies, and many individual items necessary to our churches. Coöperating with the General Board of Christian Education, we are now issuing textbooks for Cokesbury Training Courses in cheap bindings to sell for thirty-five cents each, feeling that our people cannot afford to pay the higher prices formerly charged.

On January 1, 1932, the Sunday School Magazine and Workers' Council were combined into one periodical, known as the Church School Magazine. On the same date the Epworth Era and the High Road were combined, making the Epworth Highroad, which we have reason to believe is the greatest religious periodical for young people published in the country. These combinations of periodicals eliminate duplication and will result in a saving to our Sunday schools of approximately $50,000 annually. Credit for the combination of these periodicals and their wonderful improvement is due the General Board of Christian Education, particularly the Editorial Department.

Beginning October 1, 1932, other reductions in prices, amounting to about $35,000 per annum, will be effective. Our prices are already as low as similar materials of other publishers, and in many instances lower. However, it is our desire to give our churches and Sunday schools the benefit of every possible saving. Therefore, we shall continue to reduce prices when lower costs of materials permit.

We are glad to report that the circulation of the Christian Advocate increased 2,650 over the previous year. This is one of the really great religious weekly papers, and we solicit your full coöperation in our effort to place it in every Southern Methodist home.

The Cokesbury Press continues to publish better and better books. The slogan—"Cokesbury Good Books"—has a very real meaning to the discriminating buyer of religious books.

Total sales of the Nashville House and its branches for the year amounted to $1,666,230.61, a decrease of 9.6 per cent as compared with the previous year. In spite of the most difficult business conditions we were able to make a net profit of $37,635.75.

Since the General Conference of 1926 the Publishing House has distributed $500,000 to our superannuated preachers, their widows and orphans, a record that makes the Book Committee and the Agents very happy. The past year has been a most difficult one and our profit has been small. However, the Book Committee, by its foresight, had in the past several years set up a reserve for an emergency, and, realizing that the superannuates will probably need money more this year than when times are better, they have taken from this reserve $22,364.25 and added it to the profit of $37,635.75, making a total appropriation of $60,000 to be distributed this year.

The operation of the Publishing House of our Church, doing a volume of one and three-quarter million dollars per year, is always bringing up new prob-

We express to our preachers and the members of the Church our deep and sincere appreciation for their continued loyal support.

LAMAR & WHITMORE, Agents.

Approved by the Book Committee at its annual meeting held in Nashville, Tenn., May 4, 1932.

C. A. CRAIG, Chairman;

W. LOUIS DAVIS, Secretary.

NOTE: At the same meeting the above was approved Dr. A. J. Lamar resigned as Publishing Agent and the Book Committee elected Dr. Alfred F. Smith to succeed Dr. Lamar, effective July 1, 1932, on which date the firm name was changed to Whitmore & Smith, Agents.

PUBLISHING AGENTS REPORT AS TREASURERS

As required by action of the last General Conference, we have had Dahlberg & Company, certified public accountants, audit the funds of which the Publishing Agents are treasurers. The funds are as follows: Bishops' Fund, General Conference Expense, American Bible Society, and Federal Council of Churches.

Copies of the official audit of each fund were submitted to the Book Committee, but for information we are attaching a condensed balance sheet of each account.

As you will note, we have made the Treasurers' year end on the last day of February to conform with the Publishing House year. By doing so we can have our auditors make their reports on the Treasurers' accounts at the same time they audit the Publishing House, thereby saving these accounts the additional expense of a separate auditor.

LAMAR & WHITMORE, Treasurers.

Latest Cokesbury Books and Their Authors

The depression has given lovers of good literature an opportunity to read good books, for our own Cokesbury Press has made an excellent record during the past year in the matter of bringing out a line of books of superior quality. And a casual perusal of the names of authors will convince one that the best scholarship is represented. The authors whose names are printed in italics are all Southern Methodists. Books marked with an asterisk (*) will bear the 1933 copyright and are going through the press as we write this on the second day of the year.

THE Department of Tract Literature, 810 Broadway, Nashville, Tenn., will furnish all tracts free upon request of our preachers. A list of more than fifty available tracts will be sent to any inquirer upon request.

BOOKS, NEW AND OLD, BY SOUTHERN METHODIST MINISTERS

THAT our own preachers do more than prepare sermons and addresses and minister to their own flocks is evidenced by the large number of books that emanate from their pens year by year. And, on the whole, they are all books well worth the reading.

In this department of the YEARBOOK for ten years we have consistently catalogued all new books written by our preachers that have come to our attention. In this list, however, we now present some books that have not heretofore had a place in our lists.

Ansley, Rufus O.—"Overture and Other Poems."

Bowen, C. A.—"Lesson Materials in the Church School."

Bratcher, S. R.—"Priceless Gems from Holy Writ."

Brown, O. E.—"Christianization of American Life," joint author of "Life and Letters of Laura A. Haygood" and "God and the New Knowledge."

OUR ASSEMBLIES

Lake Junaluska Methodist Assembly

THE Lake Junaluska Methodist Assembly is in the Blue Ridge Mountains of Western North Carolina, twenty-eight miles from Asheville and three miles from Waynesville. The altitude of the Assembly Grounds is 2,650 feet above sea level. Within a radius of fifty miles there are more than fifty peaks of five thousand or more feet above sea level. The Great Smoky Mountain National Park is not far from Lake Junaluska and a road leading into the western entrance passes near the Assembly Grounds.

The summer climate of Western North Carolina is one of its greatest attractions. The days are warm and pleasant, but there is rarely a night during the summer when it is not necessary to sleep under heavy blankets. The average temperature for July is 70 and for August 69.

The Assembly is owned and managed by thirty-four trustees chosen from Annual Conferences that are east of the Mississippi River. The officers are: E. A. Cole, President; E. P. Anderson, First Vice President; John T. Fisher, Second Vice President; E. L. Woolf, Third Vice President.

The official season at Junaluska is from June 1 to September 15. The Assembly coöperates with Duke University, and the General Boards and Commissions of the Church, in holding summer schools, conferences, institutes, camps for boys and girls, and general meetings. Among the recreational advantages are golf, boating, fishing, horseback riding, mountain hiking, tennis, etc. The lake covers two hundred and fifty acres of land and is stocked with bass, bream, and trout. Thirteen hotels and boarding houses provide entertainment at reasonable rates.

Western Methodist Assembly

MOUNT SEQUOYAH is nestled in the heart of the Ozarks, and overlooks the city of Fayetteville, Ark., where the State University is located. With an elevation of 1,722 feet, health, scenic, recreational, educational, and worship advantages are featured during the summer season. These advantages are carried on by the Assembly over a property tract of 440 acres, with hilltops, beautiful springs, mineral water well, tourist camp, cottages, library, cafeteria, drug store, bookstore, dormitories, chapel, Epworth League building, woman's building, athletic field, and children's playground. All guests have access at reduced prices to our city's new golf course and swimming pool.

The Assembly is owned and controlled by thirty-three trustees chosen from thirteen cooperating Annual Conferences—all the Conferences in Arkansas, Missouri, Oklahoma, Texas, Louisiana, and New Mexico. The immediate management is in charge of a superintendent, who is elected annually. The officers are: A. C. Millar, President; W. L. Scarborough, Secretary; T. L. Hart, Treasurer; and S. M. Yancey, Superintendent.

Mount Sequoyah is an ideal location for Chautauqua, musical, educational, recreational, and worship programs presented by the Assembly in coöperation with the General Boards and Commissions and Conference Boards of the Church. The program will open there the last of June and continue into September.

For any information regarding Mount Sequoyah, write S. M. Yancey, Fayetteville, Ark.

SENIOR AND YOUNG PEOPLE EPWORTH LEAGUE SUBJECTS, 1933

Let our Leaguers be offensive and defensive for Jesus Christ.

THE topics listed below are intended primarily for use with young people from 15 to 23 years of age. In certain situations these age-group limits may be altered. Program materials based on these topics appear in the Epworth Highroad. General helps for the persons appointed to lead the Epworth League meetings of this age group will be found in the Church School Magazine, though such helps are seldom related to the subjects of any particular date.

FIRST QUARTER

JANUARY

1. A Time with God. Matt. 6: 5-13; Luke 11: 1; 6: 12, 13. To present the values and needs of communion with God and the Quiet Hour Covenant.

8. Playing Square with To-Morrow. 1 Tim. 4: 12; Matt. 25: 14-29; 1 Cor. 8: 4-13; Acts 3: 25. Will the world be better because we have lived in it? What sort of heritage (intellectual, social, physical) will we pass on?

15. Investments in Habits. (Temperance.) 1 Cor. 6: 19, 20; Ps. 1. Habits may be friend or enemy. Constructive value of good habits.

22. Investing a Life. Ps. 37: 1-11; Rev. 14: 13; Luke 4: 16-18; Matt. 11: 2-6. The importance of a life of service, Livingstone, Grenfell, and others. How an ordinary life may be invested.

29. When Are You Educated? Prov. 2: 1-9. Education is the accumulation of knowledge, plus.

FEBRUARY

5. Church and State in Mexico. Acts 10: 1-8, 19-35. To give information and appreciation of problems of our new Church in Mexico.

12. Taking Orders. John 15: 12-17; Eph. 6: 1-10; 1 Pet. 2: 18-24; Philemon. The question of attitude toward authority—both from the angle of giving and from the angle of taking orders.

19. Understanding Ourselves. John 8: 32; Ps. 19. What ought we to do about ourselves? The value of forgetting ourselves.

26. Does the Right Change? Matt. 7: 12; 23: 13-28; 22: 35-40; Mark 7: 5; Exod. 2: 1-17; 1 Thess. 5: 15-22. What did Jesus make the basis of right and wrong? Some arbitrary customs of the past, such as slavery, which have been overthrown by an increasing understanding of the Spirit of Christ.

MARCH

5. Playing Fair with Other Races. Acts 10: 30-36. What is the Christian attitude toward other races?

12. God's Confidence in Us. Gal. 4: 6, 7, 18-25; Ps. 8; Heb. 4: 14-16; John 3: 16, 17. Self-respect as sons of God and attendant responsibility. Being and doing.

19. Are We Worthy of the Church? 2 Chron. 24: 9-14; Acts 11: 29, 30; Matt. 28: 19, 20; Rom. 12: 9-21; 2 Cor. 9: 5-7; Ps. 100. Have we a right to expect the Church to do anything for us? What responsibility does such an expectation involve? It is expected that this subject be treated as a preparation for the following Sunday, Young People's Day.

26. A Step Farther. 1 Thess. 5: 21-24. Young People's Day. It is suggested that all departments use the special program. For those who cannot do this the subject will follow the idea of building what we have received, passing on something better.

SECOND QUARTER

APRIL

2. A Recipe for Happiness. Matt. 5: 1-12. Jesus' definition of a happy man, from the Beatitudes.

9. Pleasures That Last. Heb. 11: 24-26. All real pleasures endure in happy America. Apply this standard to sample recreational activities.

16. If a Man Die. (Easter.) Ps. 90; John 11: 25, 26; 16: 31-33; 21: 15-17; 2 Cor. 4: 6-10; 5: 1. To recognize and accept a Christian attitude toward death—a natural process—not fearful or repulsive or a special visitation of God.

23. One-Hundred-Per-Cent Americans. Mic. 6: 6-8. A consideration of the claims of the real American, the Indians, and the work of our Church for them in the Home and Foreign Missionary Enterprise.

30. The Teaching Ministry of the Church. (School and College Day.) Matt. 5: 1-12; 28: 19,

MAY

7. Persons or Things? Luke 16: 13; Mark 8: 34-37; 1 Kings 21: 1-20. A consideration of the Christian standard in business.

14. Being a Christian at Home. Matt. 18: 14-17, 21, 22; 5: 43-45; Prov. 6: 16-19. Living Christian ideals as young people in the home of father and mother and in their own homes either now or in the future.

21. Who Is a Missionary? Luke 10: 29-37. The missionary is he who is neighbor to his brother, basing his thought and action on understanding love. Present missionary frontiers are not only geographical, but also are drawn across our areas of living.

28. The Church in Public Affairs. Prov. 29: 2, 18; Luke 12: 31; Heb. 12: 12-16. Do the various governmental agencies and officials have the right to expect anything from the Church and Church members? How far should the Church concern itself with politics? How shall it give expression on social or moral issues which have become involved in politics?

JUNE

4. Varieties of Religious Expression. 1 Cor. 12: 1-31. The Church's constructive program. The test of real religion is devotion to Jesus Christ and that it may express itself in many different ways. Examples of experiences.

11. Christian Courage. Judges 6: 11; Mark 5: 36; 1 Cor. 16: 13; 2 Tim. 1: 7; Dan. 3: 17, 18; 1: 8; Acts 6: 54-60; 26; Heb. 11: 32; 12: 1. Moral courage. Early Christian heroes and present-day examples.

18. The Long View of Life. 2 Cor. 4: 1-18. The necessity of having patience to work and wait for results that are often slow. The ultimate triumph of good.

25. Africa. Acts 16: 9, 10. A story of Bishop Lambuth and John Wesley Gilbert's trip to Africa and the mission founded there, with a brief description of the work that is being done in the Congo to-day by our Church.

THIRD QUARTER

JULY

2. Heritage of the Past. Deut. 8: 6-20. An appreciation of what we have received, with national heritage as a particular illustration, celebrating Independence Day.

9. What Makes a Missionary? John 10: 14-16. China as an example of different methods of missionary approach.

16. Code and Creed. Exod. 20: 7-17; Matt. 22: 34-40. We live in an orderly universe. Are there not laws regarding behavior? The experience of the race as expressed in creeds and codes of law.

23. Learning About God. Gen. 22: 1-13; Ps. 83; Deut. 16: 1, 2; Amos 5: Hosea 2: 1 Cor. 3: 1, 2; Mark 4: 33. The first of three subjects on the general theme, "Learning about God." Appreciation of efforts to find God in the past. The early Hebrews.

30. Prophets Tell About God. Isa. 2: 1-5; 40: 1-11; 55: 6-13; Mic. 6. The Hebrews learn still more about God through the vision and insight of their great prophets, Isaiah and Micah.

AUGUST

6. God the Father. John 3: 16-21; Matt. 5: 43-48; John 10: 14-30; 14. The highest conception of God was revealed by Jesus Christ in his life and teachings. By learning of Jesus' life and trying to follow his teachings, men now may learn more and more about God.

13. The Universal Search for God. Acts 17: 22-28. In all nations and in all religions people have sought after God. Only in Christ do they find him completely revealed.

20. Singing Voices. Ps. 33: 1-5; 40: 1-3; 96; 98. A program built from recent religious poems, including hymns.

27. A New Church. Isa. 42: 1-10. The new Methodist Church in Brazil will rest largely on young people. What are the problems and difficulties which they face? What have they in common with us? What can we do to help them?

SEPTEMBER

3. The Right to Work. Mark 10: 35-45. The Christian attitude toward labor; observance of Labor Day.

10. Sharing with Our Neighbors. (Young People's Mission Special—Home and Foreign Missionary Enterprise.) Luke 10: 25-37; Acts 8: 25-29. A consideration of the opportunity of sharing with others through the Mission Special. This subject should give a brief view of the work accomplished through the Young People's Mission Special, both at home and in other lands.

17. The Power of a Purpose. Matt. 6: 24-34. A central purpose gives a view of the whole of life and provides a united front for the approach.

24. What's in a Day? Ps. 84. Preparation for next Sunday's Promotion Day; receiving new members from younger groups and older members for new duties.

FOURTH QUARTER

OCTOBER

1. We Are the Government. Ezek. 33: 7-20. Responsibility as citizens for wise legislation and law enforcement.

8. Why Have a Church? 1 Pet. 2: 1-10; John 17: 9-26; Ps. 122. The value of organizations in general, and especially the value of an organization of those who believe in Christ and seek to establish his kingdom on earth. The service of the Church.

15. Watching the World Grow Smaller. (Mission Study.) Luke 24: 44-48; Acts 1: 6-8. A consideration of the increasing intercommunication that makes us all neighbors and the value of understanding each other.

22. Why Doctrines? Matt. 5: 17-20; Luke 4: 16-21. Attitude toward the Apostles' Creed and other Christian doctrines which the present Church has inherited from the past. What was Jesus' attitude toward the doctrines of his Church? Wesley's attitude toward doctrines.

29. Differences. Mark 2: 15-17; Luke 19: 1-10; Matt. 18: 15-17. What shall I do about people with whom I disagree? Shall I stick with the crowd of whom I disapprove? How did Jesus treat the people who differed with him? The problem of behavior toward people whose conduct and ideas we disapprove.

NOVEMBER

5. Peace in the Heart. Ps. 46; 1 John 4: 11-21. World-peace in the long run depends upon the attitude of individuals. Are you pacific in your own attitudes?

12. What Is the Rule of Love Work? Matt. 16: 24-26; 1 Cor. 13. Jesus taught the way of love in all situations. Will it really work? Do we dare try it? Concrete situations in which the way of love has actually been tried.

19. What Is a Christian? Luke 2: 52; 1 John 3: 11-24. The essential characteristics of a Christian and the necessity of their expression through effective living.

26. Festival of the Harvest. Deut. 16: 13-17; Lev. 19: 9, 10; 23: 9-14. The ancient Jewish festival of the harvest as recorded in the Bible. What it meant to the Jews and what it means to us at the Thanksgiving season. Proportion of our efforts to God's in making a harvest—agricultural and others.

DECEMBER

3. Two Hours Away. Amos 5: 21-24; 8: 4-6; Micah 6: 8. The problems which face the young Christian in Cuba, and an appreciation of the work and task of our missionaries in Cuba.

10. Moving Together. 1 Cor. 12: 12-27; Gal. 5: 16-26. The question of greater unity among the churches.

17. How Shall We Receive Him? Luke 10: 38-42. Varieties of religious experiences. Tolerance to those who do not have exactly our own experience.

24. The Star and a Song. Isa. 9: 1-7; 52: 7-10; Luke 2: 8-20. Devotional and ritualistic service built around expressions of the Christmas spirit in music and poetry.

31. Our Church in Mission Schools. Matt. 28: 19, 20. Linking in with the Scripture cited, give a survey of our educational institutions in mission fields to secure union of missions and fifth Sunday educational emphasis.

CHANCEL WINDOWS

BY BRUCE S. WRIGHT

"Most beautiful and suggestive are chancel windows," observes Dr. Wright. "Made of art glass of soft tones and color . . . they calm the troubled mind. . . . Chancel windows give comfort and hope. . . . To the chancel we bring our little children for Holy Baptism. Before the chancel we take the vows of membership in Christ's Church. Within the chancel is the Communion table. From the chancel desk the Word of God is read. . . ." With this foreword which so aptly summarizes the spirit that pervades his book, Dr. Wright gives a series of devotional sermonettes calculated to enrich the spiritual life of Christians everywhere. A source of devotional themes for the preacher; and devotional readings of rare helpfulness for lay people.

5x7 $\frac{3}{8}$  inches.

THE STIRRED NEST and OTHER SERMONS

BY TEUNIS E. GOUWENS

One of the outstanding ministers of the Southern Presbyterian Church makes available to preachers and lay leaders a number of sermons of encouragement and challenge delivered during our present economic distress. He calls for a new vision and the steady influence of complete trust in God. He aims to halt the possible drift to pessimism by helping his readers rediscover the realities of the spiritual life. Dr. Gouwens has preached well and helpfully. He has given a particularly fine book for all who preach and teach, and an effective tonic for all Christians everywhere.

4 $\frac{1}{2}$ x7 $\frac{1}{8}$  inches.

THE QUESTION OF THE CROSS

BY EDWARD L. KELLER

Ten sermonic meditations for the lenten season, treating with deep insight the Christian imperative of knowing and applying to present-day life and practice the spirit of Jesus' overwhelming sacrifice. Through these meditations Dr. Keller reconstructs the Passion of Jesus and interprets its meaning for our day. The cross remains no longer a question. It resolves itself into a tremendous challenge to consecrated Christian service. The author gives a timely book for the preacher, and a very wholesome one for the layman to whom the cross may still be a puzzling question.

5 $\frac{1}{2}$ x8 $\frac{1}{2}$  inches.

PATHWAYS TO THE ABUNDANT LIFE

BY J. MARVIN CULBRETH

A splendid new book revealing the sources of, aids to, and expressions of the abundant Christian life. The author deals with live issues in the Christian's world of today, facing particularly the problems of youth as he accepts the responsibilities of civic, business, and industrial leadership, and of society. Throughout the author seeks to develop for young people a workable program for the enrichment of their devotional life, and to create a truly Christian outlook on all of life. Youth and those who teach youth will welcome this book. Older people and parents will understand youth better because of it.

COURAGE THAT PROPELS

BY G. RAY JORDAN

The pastor of Wesley Memorial Church at High Point, N. C., through fifteen timely messages calls upon all Christians everywhere to measure up to the needs of the hour, with courage that gets things done. "There is always the need for courage," notes Mr. Jordan, "and it is hardly necessary to refer to the fact that all of us are going through such testing difficulties just now! Both as individuals and as nations we need some strong, steady force." Rich in practical, fresh illustrations, these messages point the way to a living faith for individuals in need of faith in themselves and in God.

SUNSHINE AND VICTORY

BY JULIAN C. McPHEETERS

The author of this heartening book is pastor of Glide Memorial M. E. Church, South, San Francisco, Calif. At the age of twenty-eight he was stricken with tuberculosis. This book tells interestingly and helpfully his fight against that dread disease, first in the Ozarks, then in Montana, then in Tucson. The book is published with the earnest hope that its story of encouragement and cheer will be a salutary influence to many sufferers. Also in Sunshine and Victory are heartening briefs of the fights waged by a young banker, a young lawyer, a young dentist, a young bookseller, and another young preacher against tuberculosis.

5x7 $\frac{3}{8}$  inches.

A new translation retaining the majesty, beauty, and reverence of the Authorized Version, yet crystal clear for the modern reader.

FOR THOSE WHO HAVE NEVER DISCOVERED THE BIBLE

How many thousands are there who have never realized that the Bible is the world's greatest single volume of history and romance?—who have never enjoyed the heroic exploits of ancient chivalry or the human stories of love and loyalty?—who have never felt the thrill of its oriental splendor or the refreshment of its poetic beauty? If you are one of these, now is the time to discover this masterpiece of the world's literature.

Why is this the most accurate, most understandable version of the Bible?

First, it represents the Old and New Testaments in the language we speak today. Second, it is a direct translation from original Greek and Hebrew sources, some of which were not available to earlier translators. Third, the light of modern research has enabled the translator to dissipate many shadows in earlier translations.

The Old and New Testaments complete in one volume. You will want to own this superb book, and you may own it, at this new low price, which will place Dr. Moffatt's Translation within the reach of everyone.

IDEAL BIBLE for PREACHERS

LARGE TYPE

INDIA PAPER EDITIONS

Containing References and Concordance Only

Bibles with only reference and concordance are becoming more popular every day. Where you have access to the larger and more comprehensive commentaries and Bible dictionaries, the elimination of all surplus helps is desirable. It decreases the weight and thickness and makes a much more handy volume.

THIS BIBLE REPRESENTS THE VERY BEST QUALITIES AT THE LOWEST PRICES OBTAINABLE. THEY ARE MADE FOR SERVICE AND GUARANTEED TO GIVE SATISFACTION.

Printed from Long Primer Type, Self-Pronouncing, on the Finest Quality of India Paper
